New York has now 32,390 tene ments, in which 1,100,000 people live. The most densely populated region of the city, covered almost wholly with tenements, lies east of Broad- results My brother also was very low way and south of 14th street. The remarkable pages of Dr. Tracy's report are those in which he gives figures to show the lowness of the death rate in the tenement quarters.

In digging the foundations for a new building in Rome there was found a marble sarcopnagus, bearing the name of Crepereia Triphæna, with the lid still firmly fastened with rivets of iron imbed ded in lead. Inside was the skeleton of a woman, upon which were found a pair of gold earrings, a gold neck lace, a large and elegant gold brooch, a thick gold ring, a ring composed of two gold circles, a long aurber spiral pin, two combs of box wood, a silver box and a few other objects.

The Philadelphia Times says that William L. Scott is of medium height, slightly stooped and plainly dressed. He has a quick, abrupt manner, and will not parley or argue. This characteristic, acquired through the pressure of his multi farious business interests, is a very serious drawback upon his political popularity. Mr. Scott, however, is said by his neighbors to be one of be a little peppery when he musters the most benevolent men in his sec. his men. - Baltimore American. tion, his purse being ever open to all legitimate demands. He is an Episcopalian in religion, and has built two or three churches for that faith, and has also contributed largely for Catholic as well as Protestant churches of other denominations than his own.

On the 4th of July next the Society of Tammany will celebrate for the one hundred and thirteenth time, and in its usual striking manner, the birthday of our glorious Republic. As the grand sachem, James A. Flack, says in his circular letter, the organization has from time to time numbered among its members "the most illustrious names in the annals of our statesmanship." DeWitt Clinton, for example, is a name of which any political body might be proud. Its present membership can be congratulated on the complete. ness of their present control of New York city, the prize for which, with varying success, Tammany has stead ily fought during the past hundred

The recent prohibition election in Pennsylvania promises to cost a pretty penny to the tax-payers. An election expert in the Pittsburg Dispatch estimates that over $1,000,. 000 have been expended in legitimate expenses of the campaign. The printing and expressage of the tickets, done by the State, is really an inconsiderable item of the whole amount. The next question that arises-in fact is being widely agitated-is who will ultimately pay for the election. As the matter stands, the counties have all-paid the bills without any quibbling. But the State will undoubtedly be asked to reimburse the counties. The cost of the election to Philadelphia, the norance, &c., may be cured at home without fail cexposure. Infamible and Confidential. An Important Announcement

An Important Announcement About six weeks ago, while at business, I was suddenly attacked with excruciating pains in my feet, knees and hands. So severe the attack that I took my bed immediately, and in two or three days my joints were swollen to almost double their natural size, and sleep was driven from me. After suffering the most excruciating pain for a week, using liniments and various other remedies, a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition, said to me:

"Why don't you get Swift's Specific and use it. I will guarantee a cure, and if it does not the medicine shall cost you nothing."

I at once secured the S. S. S., and after using it the first day, had a quiet night and refreshing sleep. In a week I felt greatly benefitted. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six benefitted. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six bottles I was out and able to go to business. Since then I have been regularly at my peat of duty, and stand on my feet from nine to ten hours a day, and am entirely free from pain. These are the plain and simple faces in my case, and I will cheeffully answer all inquiries relative therete, either in person or by mail.

THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL SESSION of Misses Burr & James' School will commence on Thursday, Oct. 4th, at St. John's Chapel on Third, between Red Cross and Campbell streets, where it has been located for the past two years. The street cars running en Red Cross, a few yards from the building, can cover any objection to distance. A well ventilated schoolroom, pleasant play ground, good cistern of water and retired si uation make it more desirable than more central localities available. The Principals, as heretofore, will spare m effort for the advancement of the pupils kindly entrusted to their care, giving individual attention to each, and ruling with firm but loving discipline. Their many graduates, some of them now occupying the position of teachers, testify to their success. As always stated in their diculars, scholars received only for the session, no deduction Leing made except in cases of protracted sickness. Those entering after 00
