Progress.
It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possession these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Remedy. 50 cents, by druggists.

and 8 o'clock p. m. The new bathing houses on the Beach are now open.

Capt. Pennypacker Appointed.
Capt. E. J. Pennypacker has been appointed Collector of Customs at this port. We have all along supposed that he would be. He filled the office very acceptably here for the four years previous to Cleveland's election and the business community of this place will no doubt be satisfied with the appointment, since a Democrat must go and a Republican must come.

Industrial Manufacturing Co.
There is to be a meeting in this city, this afternoon, for the purpose of organizing a company with the above name. The works are to be established here and the manufactures will consist of butter plates fruit and berry baskets, shingles, &c. The capacity at present will be 35,000 butter plates per day and 50, 000 shingles but this it is expected to increase, perhaps double, next winter. The capital stock of the company has been placed at $50,000 and nearly all of this, we understand, has been taken.

An Interesting Event.
Gen. M. P. Taylor, Assistant Engineer of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley R. R., has invited His Honor, the Mayor, and the Board of Aldermen, the Chamber of Commerce, the Produce Exchange and the Chamber of Industry to be present on next Monday afternoon at the company's wharf, at Point Peter, when the first engine and train of cars on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. will enter the corporate limits of the city of Wilmington. Gen. Taylor will fire a salute on that occasion and the company's attorney, Hon. A. M. Waddell, has been invited to make an address. The steam tug Marie will leave foot of Market street at half past 5 o'clock to take the guests over to Point Peter.

Belford's for July.
Belford's Magazine for July is at hand and as usual with an excellent table of contents. "The Republican and the Democratic Parties" is a fine dissertation upon the leading points dividing the two great parties of the day; "The Lady of the Club" is a pleasant little romance; "Brains and Biscuit" is a clear, forcible article; "Mr. Walk-a-leg Adams meets with a Tartar" is brimful of interest; "True and False Civil Service Reform" is a seathing article upon one of the greatest fares and humbugs of the day; and "That Fascinating Greek" is a very fascinating story. "Roanoke of Roanoke Hall" is the novel for the month. It is by Malcolm Bell, is an extremely interesting story, and there are several fine stories and the usual reviews and editorial department. This latter is devoted to "Bishop Potter's Protest" and "Mrs.
Surratt," two admirable articles, both the product of Donn Platt's wonderfully trenchant pen. Issued by Belford, Clark & Co., New York, at $2.50 a year.

The Prizes and the Winners.

There were not as many at Carolina Beach yesterday, on the excusion given by Howard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1, as we were led to expect by the report of one who saw the boat leave. The weather was against them yet those who were present certainly had a good time. There was no rain at the Beach. In the target shooting the first prize, a gold-headed cane, was won by Mr. C. Richter; the second prize, also a gold-headed cane, was won by Mr. P. N. Fick. The third prize, a silver headed cane, was won by Mr. J. G. Oldenbittel, and the fourth prize, also a silver-headed cane, was awarded to Mr. M. Rathjen. In the contest for the ladies' prize, Miss Mamie Moore made the best shot, and was awarded the prize, a solid silver fruit knife. After this, another contest was opened for prizes, and the first was won by Mr. Wm. Tienken, who made the best shot, and was awarded a gold lined silver cup. The second was won by Mr. J. G. Oldenbittel, who was awarded the second prize, a silver cup, and the third prize, a gold lined silver tumbler, was also won by Mr. Oldenbittel.

Thorough Training.
Yesterday's Messenger says in its Raleigh correspondence:
It has been suggested to your correspondent by Rev. Bennett Smedes, Rector of St. Mary's School, that exact justice has not been done to one of Wilmington's fair daughters, a student at that college. When it is known the high standard set for its roll of honor and the necessary requirements to reach it establish not only the high grade and excellence of the school, but the distinguished requirements that teachers must possess and the diligence and capacity that students must develop in order to get recognition, it necessarily follows that one who reaches the first place upon its roll of honor should have due credit.

At the late commencement on the roll of honor the highest grade was obtained by Miss Annie Moore, of Wilmington, having an average of 99.1 for the whole session, the highest average for the last year which was made by any pupil of the school.

It is well enough to add here that the young lady in question had been for years a pupil at Misses Burr & James' Female School, in this city, and was prepared there for the course at St. Mary's. Numbers of Wilmington girls have gone to St. Mary's from this school and with possibly one exception they have taken a high stand there. This shows the thoroughness and excellence of the training at this school.

Musical Last Night.
That the people of Wilmington are a music loving people is plainly evidenced by the fact that neither "wind nor weather" is allowed to deter them when a treat of this kind is in store. Such was the case last night. The weather was bad and the streets were decidedly sloppy and yet there was a large audience at the Opera House to attend the musical given for the benefit of the building fund of Grace M. E. Church.

The opening piece was a vocal quartette from Weber's Frei Schrift, which was very finely rendered by Messrs. Bowden, Emerson, Jacobs and Grant. Capt. Geo. P.
Welsh followed in a solo, which was received with delight by the audience; Miss Florence Bowden charmed and delighted the audience with that exquisite hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light" and responded to a rapturous encore with "Let Me Dream Again." Mr. W. N.
Jacobs rendered a cornet solo in a masterly manner and Mrs. Muse sang an exquisite solo, followed with a baritone solo by Mr. F. R. Hawes, rendered with much spirit. Then came the duet, "Oh, that we two were Maying," by Miss Bowden and Mr. Emerson, and this closed the first part of the entertainment.

The cornet solo of Mr. Schloss drew forth much applause from the audience and Mr. Greenwald was well received in his solo.

Miss Schwarz's solo from Handel was beautifully sung. The duo, "The Night," by Miss Schwarz and Mr. Emerson, was rendered exquisitely, and the trio, "Run up the Sail," was delightful.

The programme closed with the quartette "Good Night, Beloved." The arrangements were all very good and everything worked smoothly. The programme was arranged by Mr. James F. Post, Jr., the Manager of the musicale, and Mr. Horace M. Emerson.

For North Carolina, rain and stationary temperature.

Archie Lee, who it was supposed had made away with a new-born child, as told by us yesterday, showed the officers during the afternoon where he had thrown the body. He claimed that it was born dead and an examination made by Dr. Potter sustained his assertion.

Personal.
Mr. Geo. W. Charlotte, of the Siler City (Chatham county) News was in the city yesterday.

Capt. Arthur A. Spitzer, of Richmond, Va., Adjutant General of the Grand Camp of Confederate Veterans, is in the city and at the Bonitz House.

Mr. W. A. Willson, Jr., has gone West to visit some of the big cities in that great section.

Big Excursion Party.
A large excursion party came down on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad to day from points principally North of Goldsboro.
They got here about 10:30 and were taken immediately down to salt water, over the Seacoast R. R. We hear that there were nine carloads and that the cars were all full of people.

Two Larceny Cases.
H. R. Upchurch, lately employed by contractors on the C. F. & Y. V.
R. R., was arrested last night, charged with the larceny of over $200 from a sub-contractor and Thos Snider, a stone cutter employed on the government building, was also arrested last night charged with stealing $50 from the trunk of a room mate. The cases were being heard before Mayor Fowler this afternoon.

They Can Always Get it Somewhere.
(BY AN OLD VET, CO. I, 18TH N. C.
REGIMENT.)
When men have doffed their overcoats
And donned their linen dusters,
And all the Sunday sailing boats Go down the beach in clusters; When to the beach in boats or cars Men go with maidens pretty, What do they care if all the bars Are closed up in the city?

The "bully boys" are on the boat, And down the bay are going And at the beach where bathers float,
The lager's freely flowing.
