Forecasts.
For North Carolina, generally fair except light rains in eastern portion and stationary temperature.
The local forecasts are for slight rains to day and fair weather tomorrow.

There were not many of our country cousins in the city yesterday, a fact due more to the approaching encampment than to the bad weather. They will come in to the reunion of the 18th Regiment on the 11th and the parade of the Confederate Veterans on the 12th.

Shirts, we have got them by the million, made by good and skilful hand; come and see us, we can save you over fifty five per cent. We'll not charge you fancy prices, treat you well, don't be afraid, therefore come and patronize; us money saved is money made, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 122 Market street.
Sign of the blue awning. tf

An Old Soldier Gone.
Col. Daniel Klein, an old resident of this city, who came here directly after the war and has remained here ever since, died at his residence on Dickinson street Wednesday night, in the 75th year of his age. He was a veteran of the war, having served under Sherman, and had filled several Federal offices here. The funeral services and interment took place yesterday afternoon.

Confederate Veterans.
The meeting of the Confederate veterans, called for yesterday forenoon at the City Hall, was not largely attended because of the fact that so many were out of the city. Col.
E. D. Hall was temporary chairman and a committee consisting of Col.
W. L. DeRosset, J. H. Currie, Capt.
O. A. Wiggins, Samuel Hall and W.
H. Green was appointed to take the necessary steps to effect a permanent organization.

The merchants of this city have been personally appealed to to allow their employees who are members of the W. L. I. to attend the Encampment, which opens next Tuesday, and favorable responses have been received from many. The boys hope to go into camp at least 50 strong.

Is it Paradoxical?
The Robert Portner Brewing Co., through their agent here, Mr. E.
Kuhblank, sold a very large amount of beer for consumption yesterday.
This, paradoxical as it may appear, will probably account for the fact that nobody got drunk. Those who are to order for the Encampment should do so at once.

A Handsome Trade Issue.
The Fayetteville Observer of the current week comes to us as a huge and handsome trade issue. It is of 32 pages, with a pink cover, and is a truly magnificent issue, equal to the best of its kind. It is a complete epitome of the business of Fayetteville and is handsomely patronized in its advertising columns, the merchants of that city having rallied to a man to its support. We congratulate Bro. Whitehead on the good work he has done.

Installation of Officers.
At a regular meeting of Orion Lodge No. 67, I. O. O. F., held on Wednesday night, District Deputy Grand Master G. W. Altfer, assisted by H. O. Craig as Grand Warden, W. W. Yopp, Grand Marshal;
S. A. Craig, Grand Secretary; Wm.
M. Hays, Grand Treasurer; C. D.
Morrell, Grand Herald, installed the following officers, to serve during the ensuing term: S. P. G.—G. H.
Ward; N. G.—John E. Silva, Jr.; V.
G.—J. E. Williams; Secretary—J. M.
McGowan; F. S.—W. C. Farrow; T.
—John L. Dudley; Warden—G. W.
Branch; Conductor—N. F. Brandt; I. G.—J. J. Burnett; O. G.—G. W.
Linder; R. S. to N. G.—W. H. Searborough; L. S. to N. G.—George Smith; R. S. to V. G.—J. A. Williams; R. S. S.—S. C. Styron; L. S.
S.—A. Nugent; Chaplain—C. W.
Stuart.

A Brilliant Marriage.
Miss Rosa David, the beautiful and accomplished daughter of Mr.
A. David, of this city, was married last night in the Temple of Israel to Mr. Lewis Stein, a promising young merchant of Richmond, Va. The ceremony took place at 7 o'clock, in the presence of a large number of invited guests, and Rev. Dr. Men-delsohn pronounced the beautiful and impressive service which made them man and wife. Miss Amy David, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mr. Simon Stein, of Baltimore, brother to the groom, officiated as best man. The bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Stein, of Baltimore; Miss Florence Greene; wald of Richmond; Miss Pauline Blumenthal, of Philadelphia; Miss Bertha Leseman, of Atlanta; Miss Lilly Taylor and Miss Amy Weill, of Wilmington. The ushers were Mr. Moses Stein, of Baltimore, brother of the groom; Messrs. Samuel Bandheim and Daniel Whitlock, of Richmond; Messrs. Eddie David, Leopold Brunbild and Isaac Bear, of Wilmington; with Mr. J. I.
Macks as Master of Ceremonies.
Mrs. Cushing, the organist of the Temple, presided at the instrument with her usual grace and skill.
Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Stein, of Richmond, the parents of the groom.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party took carriages and were driven to the Orton House, where they were joined by a number of invited guests and where a sumptuous banquet had been spread. After the feast there was dancing, to music furnished by Prof.
Raff on the piano and Prof. Bellezza on the violin. At 12:05 o'clock the happy pair took the North bound train for Richmond, where they will hereafter reside. They will go immediately to housekeeping in a residence which has been handsomely and luxuriously furnished by the parents of both parties as a wedding gifts to their children.

An Offensive Breath is most distressing, not only to the person afflicted if he have any pride, but to those with whom he comes in contact. It is a delicate matter to speak of, but it has parted friends and lovers. Bad breath and catarrh are inseparable. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures the worst cases as thousands can testify.

Progress.
It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possession these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

About the Crops.
We don't think that the rains have seriously injured the crops here abouts, with the exception of melons and perhaps peanuts. Corn is not hurt, unless in some of the lowlands which have been overflowed, but cotton is in the dumps. It is in the grass and cannot be plowed. A few weeks of sunshine, however, will set this right. It is hoped that the peanut crop has not been seriously hurt but we are afraid for melons.

The Regatta Yesterday.
There was not much of a regatta yesterday. There was not too much water under the keel but too much on deck. Only three boats entered, the Little Alice, Capt. S. P. Cowan, the Rosa, Capt. Wm. L. Smith, and the Pirate, Capt. Norwood Giles.
The Little Alice started at 11:45, broke her mainboom and came in at 2:24; the Rosa started at 11:46:40, parted her bobstay and came in at 2:05:1; the Pirate started at 1:49:25 and came in at 1:51:4. The Pirate was awarded the first prize and the Rosa the second prize which is, by the way, the first prize for the boats of her class. There was a great many spectators, notwithstanding the dreadful weather.

Only Three 'Toxicated.
We have heard of no accident of any kind at all serious in its nature as occurring to any of our people yesterday. And it is a positive fact, according to the testimony of reliable witnesses, that there was but one intoxicated person at Carolina Beach and only two at the Hammocks and Wrightsville Beach. Not one of these was drunk, only—well, they were pretty full and awful bores to every man who met them.
This is certainly a splendid showing for anywhere.

Personal.
Hon. Geo. Davis, has gone to Mt.
Airy, where he will remain during the summer.

Mr. H. G. Latimer and family have gone North on a pleasure visit and will be absent several months.

Mr. M. T. Davis is in Richmond, on business.

Mr. G. W. Kidder will leave here tomorrow for a visit to Central and South America which will occupy several months.

Col. Paul F. Faison, of Raleigh, was among the visitors to the city yesterday who took in the resorts.

Hon. James Wilson returned last night from New York, where he had been summoned by the sad news of the death of his brother, Dr. Benj.
Wilson.

Industrial Manufacturing Company.
This new enterprise, the projected organization of which has been heretofore spoken of by the REVIEW exclusively, was fairly started at a meeting held on Wednesday night, which was organized by calling Mr.
John D. Bellamy, Jr., to the chair and appointing Mr. B. F. Kipg secretary. The following were elected a board of directors, viz: Thos. J.
Southernland, J. H. Hanby, S. W.
Nobles, E. F. Johnson, H. P. West, John L. Boatwright, John D. Bellamy, Jr., O. M. Fillyaw, A. S. Winstead, W. H. Howell, W. F. Williams, Duncan McEachern, Leo. Taylor Jos. D. Smith, Wm. Struthers.

The capital stock of the company is $15,000 which may be increased to $25,000, and the par value of shares is $25, payable in weekly installments of twenty five cents. Two hundred and fifty of the six hundred shares were subscribed for by those present at the meeting, and that the remainder of the stock will be readily taken goes without saying.

The meeting adjourned until tonight at 8:30 o'clock, at the Mayor's office in the City Hall, at which time the officers of the company will be elected.

We call attention to the ad. of the University in our columns. It is thoroughly equipped for the best work and offers to our boys as good an education as can be procured for the same money anywhere in America.

W. M. CUMMING,
Manufacturer and Renovator of Mattresses.

Hurrah for the Encampment!

We sold this Fourth the largest amount of BEER ever sold in Wilmington for a national holiday, and now all of our energies are bent on supplying the people of this city and their thousands of guests with supplies for the Encampment. This, as everybody knows, opens next Tuesday at Wrightsville.

Our customers will please send in their orders as early as they can make it convenient to do so. We always make prompt deliveries but it helps a heap when orders are in ahead and not deferred until the last moment.

Remember that Portner leads the world, and Tivoli and Vienna Cabinet Beers ARE THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

ming, manufacturer of mattresses. +

The switchback at Wrightsville Beach was liberally patronized yesterday. It is said that nearly 3,000 rides were taken on it during the day.

Mr. H. B. Fuller is in the city with a car load of fine Western horses, well broken to saddle or harness and a pair of fine black carriage horses, which may be seen at Mr.
Orrell's stables.

The Company I Reunion.
Answering to roll call of the survivors of the Wilmington Rifle Guards, Co. I, 18th N. C. Infantry, at the Hammocks yesterday, there were A. B. Cook, B. F. White, H. G.
Evans, Jas. I. Metts, R. S. Love, F.
H. Mitchell, William Blanks and Josh. T. James.

It was proposed and agreed to defer any regular meeting; meantime to join with the 18th as a body in the reunion of the 11th, and with the 18th as a body in the general veteran parade of the 12th inst.

At Carolina Beach.
The Sylvan Grove was kept busy yesterday in transporting passengers to and from Carolina Beach—but principally to. There was a large crowd there and a happy, enjoyable crowd. The number has been variously estimated at between 500 and 800. Capt. Perry was kept busy and that famous pig pen of his was pretty well cleaned out when the last train had gone last night.
There was no rain there but there was a fine display of fireworks after nightfall.

A Real Solid Comfort.
Well, the 4th has come and gone, and everybody who wanted it had an outing and there are probably some light hearts to-day as well as light pocketbooks. There is a good deal of calm comfort in the thought that one can be relieved of his money so charmingly and so thoroughly in such short order and need not go to Coney Island or Long Branch to be cured of that by no means common disease, a plethora of the pocketbook.

Hammocks and Beach.
Yesterday was a big day at the Hammocks and Wrightsville Beach.
In all 22 trains, 11 each way, were run on the Seacoast Railroad. The number of passengers carried exceeded 2,000, and but for the wet weather there would have been between 3,000 and 4,000. A great many remained there to enjoy the beautiful display of fireworks, and to attend the german. The former was very fine and in the latter there were 25 couples. It was a brilliant scene and a crowded one, at the Hammocks last night. A great many people were entertained and all of the various resorts liberally patronized. The last train came in long after midnight, and it and the preceding one were fairly packed with people.

PLEASE NOTICE
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects general interest, but
