Progress
It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possession these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Shirts
We have got them by the million, made by good and skilful hand; come and see us, we can save you over fifty five per cent. We'll not charge you fancy prices, treat you well, don't be afraid, therefore come and patronize; us money saved is money made, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 122 Market Street, Sign of the blue awning.

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP
should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty five cents a bottle. July 6 dead & wly

Not a Very Rich Haul
This morning, between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock, a thief entered the house of Mr. James W. King, on Princess, between Fourth and Fifth streets, and ransacked the house, getting about $7.50 in money and several other articles, among them a two cent silver piece, which Mr. King prized very highly, because his mother gave it to him. She had kept it from her childhood. The date of the coin is as near as can be remembered about 1837. Mr. King told us that the thief is welcome to all he got if he will return the silver piece.

He was after Money
This morning, about 3 o'clock, a thief entered Mr. C. F. W. Bissinger's house, corner of Sixth and Princess streets. He gained an entrance by cutting the wire on the back door and the fastening of the door. After getting inside he paid a visit to nearly every room in the house. From one room he got a box of jewelry and carried it into the parlor and after examining it and not finding anything he wanted left it on the piano. Then he started into Mr. Fred Bissinger's room but finding him partly awake started to run. Fred then gave the alarm, but the thief got away. It seems that his object was money as he only took about $3 in change that Mr. Bissinger had in his pocket.

The Worst Nasal Catarrh

The Water from the Well. Work on the artesian well at Hilton has been temporarily suspended for some time past after having gained a depth of 518 feet. Mr. Sweeney, the superintendent, says that a large number of our citizens visit Hilton very often for the purpose of drinking the water from this well, and also that a gentleman of this city, on hearing that the pipe was to be removed and a larger pipe placed in position in the well, sent out and procured 25 gallons for his own use.

Tribute of Respect to Col. Jones.

At a meeting of the employes held at the C. C. R. shops, at Laurinburg, July 18th, 1889, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Col. L. C. Jones, our friend and Superintendent of the Carolina Central Railroad, has been removed by Him who is too wise to err, too good to be unkind. Therefore be it Resolved 1st, That in the death of Col. L. C. Jones we have sustained an irreparable loss. We will no more hear the kind and cheerful tone of his voice or feel the warm grasp of his kindly hand. He always had a kind word and pleasant smile for every one. His high position which he held made no change in him. If any, it only made him more amiable, more generous and kind.

Resolved 2nd, That while we deeply deplore the death of our beloved Superintendent, we shall ever revere his memory and bow in submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved 3rd, That we extend to the family of the deceased our heartfelt sympathies in this their sad bereavement.

Resolved 4th, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased and to the Wilmington and Jonesboro papers for publication.

CAPT. JAS. MAGLENN, S. R. ETHRIDGE, G. W. GOODWIN, S. J. HUNTER, Committee.

In Memoriam.

A meeting of the members of the Produce Exchange was held at noon to-day to take action in regard to the death of Col. L. C. Jones, who was a member of that body. The following is the official report:

This Exchange having heard with regret of the death of Col. L. C. Jones, one of its members, and Superintendent of the Carolina Central Railroad, desires to put on record its high appreciation of him, both as a man and an official; therefore be it Resolved, That rarely is any business organization called upon to give expression to such sentiments of genuine sorrow as is the "Wilmington Produce Exchange" on this occasion. And it is eminently proper that in lamenting the decease of one so peculiarly sincere, only true feelings should abound.

We are deeply impressed with the fact that in the death of Col. L. C. Jones this organization has lost a valuable member, and each of us a friend.

For many years has he been devoting much of his untiring energy in developing the resources of this whole section, and Wilmington is largely indebted to his ability for material progress. Her interests were ever carefully watched and intelligently guarded by him, and his influence was exercised only for her good.

While possessed of dignity, he truly said, that in courtesy and refined civility no man could excel him. Genial of temper and easily approached, his friends were many and confined to no class. He merited and retained the respect of all with whom he came in contact. Though strictly attentive to the minutest details of business, his courtesy in his own office to all stamped him clearly the gentleman and pronounced him the model official. Keenly compassionate, never did business pressure prevent a kindly consideration of all claims upon his sympathy or means. His sense of equity was most acute, and all forms of injustice and aggression were abhorrent to him. With a profound contempt for shams or artifices he lived an honorable, unflinching life. Discerning the true issues of existence, he bent his energies to the betterment of his fellows.

Such in brief are the salient points in the character of our late companion and friend; and in commemoration of such an embodiment of manly virtue

Be it further resolved, That a page be left on our journal, with his name only inscribed thereon, and that a copy of the foregoing be sent to his family and be published in the daily newspapers of this city.

NORWOOD GILES, W. H. SPRUNT, OWEN FENNELLS, JR., Committee.

Remarks tenderly and feelingly eulogistic of the lamented gentleman were made by Messrs. D. L. Gore, Norwood Giles, T. D. Meares, Jno. H. Currie and J. H. Sharp.

Maj. Duffy, of the Star, has gone on a visit to his family, who are at Winston.

The highest the thermometer in this office has registered to-day is 92 at one o'clock.

The Register of Deeds issued but one marriage license this week and that was to a white couple.

There was a heavy downpour of rain here this afternoon. In less than an hour's time .63 of an inch fell.

Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. No night services.

There will be a big excursion party here from Fayetteville and other points from Wilson and that vicinity towards the latter part of the month.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina fair weather, except showers along the coast, and cooler. Local forecasts for Wilmington, showers.

Refreshing and Invigorating Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

It is to Mr. Marcus Bear and not to Mr. Morris Bear that the handsome monument in Oakdale has been erected. It was a careless error and entirely the fault of the writer.

Although it was raining very hard when the Sylvan Grove left on her 2.30 trip for Carolina Beach this afternoon, she carried down about 150 passengers. They say it doesn't often rain at Carolina Beach and we believe it, if all reports are true.

A Monster Sawfish.

Three large sawfish were captured a few days ago in Mr. Van Sutton's seines in the river, opposite Bald Head, and almost directly in the inlet. The largest of these was 14 feet long, including the saw. Mr. Sutton brought the saw of this fish to the city and by a careful measurement we found it to be 3 feet, 6 inches in length. It had just 50 teeth. It is an interesting curiosity and Mr. Sutton will keep it as a trophy to show his up-country friends.

An Extensive Vineyard.

But few people in this city imagine what an extension vineyard Capt. S. W. Nobles has at his farm a few miles East of this city. It is probable that there are not many vineyards in North Carolina that exceed it. He has 125 acres in cultivation and there are 150,000 grape vines in all, nearly all of which are bearing. On the old Newbern road, on a part of what is known as the old Hamilton place, there are 30,000 new vines now in their third year, and some of which are already bearing fruit. In a few years more Capt. Nobles will probably reap a rich reward from these, as well as from other parts of his extensive vineyard. We are glad to learn from him that the earlier prospects for a good grape yield this year are already being realized.

The Hilton Mills.

We are glad to know that Messrs. Parsley & Wiggins, the enterprising firm of millers who suffered such a serious disaster recently in the destruction of their planing mill and sash factory, are again well equipped and prepared to receive and fill promptly all orders. It was on the morning of Wednesday, the 10th inst, that the loss occurred and yet on the following Saturday, three days after, a new planer was on board of a steamship and en route for this port and on the Thursday of this week it was up in the mill and fully at work. This is a good illustration of what pluck and enterprise can do.

Messrs. Parsley & Wiggins have not yet begun to rebuild, but will start in on that line in a few days. Their boilers are now being tested and the work of rebuilding the planing mill and sash and blind factory will be begun next week. In the meantime the two saw mills and the planer are at work in the endeavor to keep up with orders.

PLEASE NOTICE. We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects general interest, but the name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor. Communications must be written on but one side of the paper. Personalities must be avoided. And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

The New Superintendent. Just before going to press we learn that Capt. T. W. Whisnant, for many years past Roadmaster of the Western division of the Carolina Central R. R., has been appointed General Superintendent of that road, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the lamented Colonel Jones. It is an excellent appointment.
