Rheumatism and Catarrh.
Rheumatism and catarrh are both blood poisons. In many severe cases they have been treated with B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), made by Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Write for book of convincing proofs. Sent free.
W. P. Dodge, Atlanta, Ga., says: "My wife and I had catarrh and nothing did her any good, her constipation finally failed and poison got into her blood. I placed her on a use of B. B. B., and to my surprise her recovery was rapid and complete." W. P. McDaniel, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I suffered with rheumatism and had rheumatism so I could not get along without crutches. I tried all kinds of medicine in the head. First class remedy did me no good. Then I tried B. B. B. and the effects were magical. I cheerfully recommend it as a good tonic and quick cure." Mrs. Martha Nichols, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "I had catarrh six years and a most troubling cough, and my eyes were much inflamed. Five bottles of B. B. B., thank God!
I am now well." John M. Davis, Tyler, Texas, writes: "I was suffering a number of years to spells of inflammation of the throat, which six bottles of B. B. B.
I took healed, and I thank heaven, as I had not felt the slightest pain since."

Congressman Russell, of Connecticut, thinks that Read, of Maine, will be the next speaker of the House.

Anarchist Braunschweig calls Anarchist Most an "autocrat and corruptionist." Just what Most calls Braunschweig doesn't appear on the record.

About one sixth of the population of New York deserted the city last Sunday and hid themselves to some pleasure resort. According to the Herald just 290,887 people went out of the town on that day.

Governor Buckner recently decided to furnish a copy of the Constitution of Kentucky to be filed with an exhibit at the Paris Exposition, because, according to that Constitution, slavery appears to be still existing in the Commonwealth.

Jay Gould is credited with the intention of forming a great railroad trust. There will be 23 Western roads in the pool. Jay is credited with having remarked that the Inter-State Commerce bill was "merely the stepping stone to the formation of a trust."

The entire State is being billed for a grand firemen's tournament, which is to be held in Raleigh on August 13 and 14. There will be engine contests, reel racing and horse hose carriage racing, with other attractions. The railroad rates will be lower than ever before.

Leo XIII is 82 years old but Bishop Keane says that when he saw him in Rome in March he was the picture of health, stout, robust and active. The Bishop thinks he may live many years yet. Cardinal Newman is 92 years old and has just retired from the active performance of his duties.

Connecticut will be the next State to vote on prohibition. An amendment to the Constitution will be voted on in October, and its defeat is regarded as a foregone conclusion.
The press of the State is almost unanimously against it, and it is fair to presume that the press represents the popular feeling.

The assessment of the city of Nashville, Tenn., for this year shows an increase of a million of dollars in property value over last year's assessment. This is an excellent showing. Nashville is increasing rapidly in population and business, its manufacturing industries especially being prosperous. In addition, it is becoming the educational centre of the great Southwest.

The friends of high license point to Minneapolis, Minn., as a proof of the advantage of that system, both as a means of lessening the traffic and as a source of revenue. It is shown that in the spring of 1884 Minneapolis, under a $100 license, had 500 saloons, paying into the city treasury $50,000 a year, whereas at present, under a $1,000 license, the saloons number only 230, and the city receives $230,000 a year.

Here is what the President did last Sunday. We find it in the shape of a telegram from Deer Park:

President Harrison heard a sermon to-day by the Rev. E. D.
Meade, Episcopalian, on the "Duties of business men as Christians." A passing reference to politics by the preacher was to the effect that the employment of improper agencies in public affairs to counteract similar agencies was never justifiable. The President and his father-in-law, Dr.
Scott, remained after the services and partook of communion. The President took a stroll in the afternoon with his family. Private Secretary Halford says that the story about Mrs. Harrison inviting a physician with Kilrain's party on the occasion of her first trip to Deer Park to have a glass of wine was a pure invention. The President will take up public business to-morrow, but no appointments are likely to be made.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, bilious headache, and all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. One a dose.

Shirts, we have got them by the million, made by good and skillful hands; come and see us, we can save you over fifty five per cent. We'll not charge you fancy prices, treat you well, don't be afraid, therefore come and patronize; as money saved is money made, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 123 Market street.

We are sorry to hear that Capt.

suppose, of the immense fatigue, exposure and want of sleep which he was forced to undergo during the period of the Encampment.

Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of

We are sorry to hear that the big freshest recently, from the June rains, has completely destroyed most of the fine lowland crops in Bladen county, along the line of the Large Purchase of Realty.

The Wilmington Compress and Warehouse Company have purchased the entire property on the river front between the Messrs.
Chadbourne's and Messrs. Parsley & Wiggins' saw mills, known as the Blossom & Evans' property. The tract comprises twenty two lots, extending from the river to Second street, with a river front of nearly 1,000 feet and ample depth of water.
The new owners of the property contemplate extensive improvements on their purchase.

cleared to day for San Domingo with 10,189 feet lumber, valued at $2,763.77, shipped by Messrs. S. & W. H. Northrop.

Progress.
It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possession these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

For the Pen.
Deputy Sheriff Elder left for Raleigh this morning with six prisoners sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary, as follows: Moses Ev-

All the above named were convicted of larceny. Upchurch is the only white man in the lot.

The Band at the Beach.
The Germania Band has accepted an invitation extended to them by the management to give an open air concert at Carolina Beach every Friday afternoon. A music stand has been erected for them near the hotel. The first of the series of concerts will be given on next Friday afternoon, on which occasion they are sure to be greeted by a large audience.

of Honor of North Carolina. Supreme Dictator, Hon. A. R. Savage, of Lewiston, Me., will meet A. S. D.
Bellamy, in Greensboro, and be present at the session.

Three Fourths of a Century.
An old resident of this city says that there are but twelve houses here which were built prior to his recollection of events. He can remember when every building in the district bounded by the W. & W. R. R. on the North, Orange street on the South, Second street on the East and the Cape Fear River on the West, was erected. He has seen every block in this district devastated to a greater or less extent by fire.

Capt. Whisnant's Arrival.
Capt. T. W. Whisnant, the new superintendent of the Carolina Central Railroad, arrived here to-day on the noon train and has already formally assumed the duties of his new position. He has been cordially welcomed here, where he has already a number of friends, and we can assure him that he will make many others among our people. His family are still resident in Charlotte, where they have resided for a number years past and will probably remain there until the Fall.

Two parties were fined $5 each and the costs, $2.75, in all $7.75 each, for keeping unlicensed dogs.

Advice to Mothers.
MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes.
Twenty five cents a bottle.
