Rheumatism and Catarrh.
Rheumatism and catarrh are both blood diseases. In many severe cases they have yielded to treatment with B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), made by Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga. Write for book of convincing proofs. Sent free.
W. P. Deane, Atlanta, Ga., says: "My wife had catarrh and nothing did her any good.
Her constitution finally failed and poison got into her blood. I placed her on a use of B. B.
B. and to my surprise her recovery was rapid and complete." W. P. McDaniel, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was much afflicted and had rheumatism so bad I could not get along without crutches. I also had neuralgia in the head. First class physicians did me no good. Then I tried B. B.
B. and its effects were magical. I cheerfully recommend it as a good tonic and quick cure." Mrs. Nellie Nichols, Knoxville, Tenn., writes: "I had catarrh six years and a most distressing cough, and my eyes were much swollen. Five bottles of B. B. B. thank God I am cured." John W. Davis, Tyler, Texas, writes: "I was suffering a number of years from spells of inflammatory rheumatism, which six bottles of B.
B. B. took heaven, has entirely cured. I have not felt the slightest pain since."

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL XIII. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JULY 25, 1889. NO 174.

There has been a fight on hand in New York between the Sun, Times, Tribune, World and Press and the composers employed in those offices. There is an armed neutrality now, but the printers are at work. The Herald and the Star are not in the fight. The former seems to be coldly indifferent to the outcome but the Star is fighting valiantly for the rights of the printers.

A terrible tale of the destruction of 8,700 houses and a loss of 1,600 lives comes to us from China. A special from San Francisco says:
The steamer Belgie, from Hong Kong and Yokohama, which arrived here to day, brings word that a recent fire at Lu Chow destroyed 8,700 houses, while over 1,200 persons were burned to death and 400 others killed. Nearly 170,000 people were made homeless and at last accounts were coming out without shelter and were dying at the rate of 100 a day from want and exposure.
The authorities were providing for their necessities.

Yesterday's New York Star says: It was announced yesterday that the Tax Commissioners have been able to fix upon a lower rate than has been known in New York, with two exceptions, in over a quarter of a century. President Coleman and his colleagues, Commissioners Feit-ner and Parris, after close scrutiny and investigation of the real and personal property owned by the citizens, have decided upon 1.95 as the correct figure for 1889, which is .27 lower than in 1888, .21 lower than in 1887 and .34 lower than in 1886. The two lowest comparisons which can be made in the time mentioned are those in 1860, when the rate was 1.695, and 1862, when it was 1.75.

Bishop Seymour, of Illinois, was quietly married on Tuesday morning in New York city. The Herald furnishes the full account:

The Right Rev. George F. Seymour, Bishop of the Western Diocese of Illinois, was married yesterday morning at Trinity Church to Mrs. Mary Atwood Aymar, of Jersey City. The wedding was strictly private, only the near relatives of the bride and bridegroom being present —twelve in number.
The ceremony was performed by Right Rev. Bishop Potter, assisted by Rev. Dr. Morgan Dix. The Episcopal marriage service was given without music. The bride was attired in a plain traveling suit of dark brown material, which was in keeping with the quiet appearance of the staid old church. There were no flowers, and in compliance with the wish of the bridegroom everything was made as unostentatious as possible. Indeed until an hour before the ceremony the sexton of the church knew nothing of the approaching marriage.
It is just a little over nine years ago that the bridegroom was consecrated bishop in the same church in which he was yesterday married.
Bishop Seymour is an old New Yorker and was graduated from Columbia College in 1850. After being ordained a minister, four years later, he was assigned to duty in Brooklyn. For several years he was rector of a church in Westchester county. For several years before being elected bishop he was dean of the faculty of Columbia College. He is now in his 57th year.
His bride is several years his junior and is well known in Jersey City society, and was one of the leading church women of that place.

The first concert by the Germania Band at Carolina Beach will be given to-morrow afternoon. The Passport will leave here at 5 o'clock and the Sylvan Grove at 7. The last train leaves the Beach at 9.30.

Night before last, at the Ocean View Dining Rooms, Mrs. Mayo entertained a party of 35 Jewish ladies and gentlemen at supper. The party was made up in the city and spent the afternoon and evening on the beach, winding up with one of Mrs. Mayo's famous fish suppers.

A large colored excursion came in this morning from Columbia. There was a brass band and a base ball club in the crowd. The Passport took down to Southport as many of them as she could accommodate, others went down on the Seacoast trains, while still others remained over in the city.

The Fifth Street M. E. Sunday School will give an excursion to Carolina Beach to-morrow. The boat will leave at the usual hours but those wishing a day of real pleasure are advised to take the 9.30 boat. The management will do all that is possible to make it pleasant for everybody.

Progress.
It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach and healthy in its nature and effects. Possession these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

Bids for Government Work.
Proposals for dyking, etc., at Winyaw Bay, S. C. were opened yesterday at the office of Capt. W.
H. Bixby, U. S. Engineer, in this city. Bids were submitted by John Shehan, New Rochelle, N. Y.; C.
McK. Grant, Charleston, S. C.; W.
H. Morton, N. Y.; J. S. Howell, N.
Y.; W. T. Gaynor, Fayetteville, N.
Y.; R. G. Ross, Wilmington, N. C.; Southern Construction Company, Nashville, Tenn. The lowest bid was that of J. S. Howell, New York, $96,555. The amount available for the work is $111,000.

Advice to Mothers.
MRS. WINSLOW'S SMOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes.
Twenty five cents a bottle.

Archie Freeman, the courteous caterer at Carolina Beach, who is becoming so well and so favorably known to the patrons of that popular resort, appears in a card in this issue. He is prepared to accommodate all who call upon him with the best that may be had and at the lowest prices.

Very Much Pleased.

Capt. J. T. Oglesby, of Charleston, S. C., a conductor on the A. C. Line running between this city and Charleston, was among the visitors at Carolina Beach yesterday. It was the first time he had been there and he was so much pleased with the place that he says that he will at once bring on his family, who are now at Charleston, and have them spend the balance of the Summer at the Beach.

Reduced Rates for the Firemen.

The Seaboard Air Line has ordered on sale round trip tickets at reduced rates on account of the Grand Firemen's Tournament to be held in Raleigh August 13th and 14th. Tickets will be on sale from August 12th to 13th inclusive and will be good for the return trip until August 15th. Tickets will be as follows from the points named: Wilmington $5; Charlotte $4.75; Rutherfordton $6.50; Weldon $3.25; Henderson $1.80; Sanford $1.80; Maxton $3.70; Shelby $5.75.

An Excellent Idea.

We understand that Mr. Jno. F.
Garrell will, on or about the first of August, erect a large refrigerator on the vacant lot next North of Front street market. This refrigerator will be of a size sufficient to hold two car loads of meat. Mr. Garrell's idea is to receive direct from Western North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee live beef in car load lots and to slaughter it here as it may be needed, putting it in the refrigerator just long enough to make it tender. The meat will be slaughtered only as it is required and thus the market can be provided for, day by day, without overstocking it.
The meat will not touch the ice in the refrigerator and will not be in any wise injured by being kept there.

A Good Old Democrat.

An itemizer for the REVIEW tells us of a sturdy old patriot he met on the W. & W. train, going out from the city, a few days ago. He was 86 years of age and said that it was the first time he had ever traveled on a railroad. He lost three sons in the late war, all, of course, in the Confederate ranks, and he is a cousin of John Grady, of Duplin county, the only man who was killed among the Whigs at the battle of Moore's Creek, February 27th, 1776. He has always voted the straight Democratic ticket, and no other and hopes to live long enough to vote for Grover Cleveland again in 1892. He left the train at Goldsboro and our informant neglected to give us his name.

Scribner's for August.

Scribner's Magazine for August is a most seasonable issue, containing spirited out-door papers on the game of lawn tennis and on tarpon fishing; two papers on Tennyson, whose eightieth birthday is thus commemorated; short stories by H. H. Boyesen, Brander Matthews, George Parsons Lathrop, and E. C. Martin, a new writer, and valuable additions to the Electric and Railway series. A full face picture of Tennyson, from a photograph taken last year is the frontispiece and the table of contents for the month is as follows: Tennyson, frontispiece; Form in Lawn Tennis, by James Dwight, M. D., illustrated; The Master of Ballantrae—X, by Robert Louis Stevenson, illustrated; Tarpon Fishing in Florida, by Robert Grant, illustrated; Memories, by Brander Matthews; Nocturne, by Louise Imogen Guiney; Electricity in Lighting, by Henry Morton; illustrated; A Pagan Incantation, by H. H. Boyesen; How to Feed a Railway, by Benjamin Norton; The New Poverty, by George Parsons Lathrop; A Monster of My Acquaintance, by E. C. Martin; Tennyson's First Flight, by Henry Van Dyre, illustrated; The Two Locksley Halls, by R. T. Lounsbury.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, bilious headache, and all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. One a dose.

Rev. Thomas Atkinson, of Fayetteville, will preach at Lebanon Church, Wrightsville, on Sunday next.

Mr. Eddy Kelley, of the Baxter Stove Works, at Birmingham, Ala., is in the city and will remain here throughout the summer.

Three more lots were sold to-day at Carolina Beach to parties who will build Summer residences on them.

Forecast.

For North Carolina threatening weather and showers and stationary temperature. For Wilmington, showers.

City Court.

The attention of the Mayor this morning was divided between a number of boys who were brought before him for bathing in the city limits during daylight, and several others who were arraigned for keeping unlicensed dogs. The former were discharged with a reprimand and the latter were disposed of in the usual way.

At Carolina Beach.

Improvement is still the order of the day at Carolina Beach. There is already a village there and on every succeeding visit we find something new. There are now twelve cottages at the Beach, all comfortable and all with a sea front, and three more were begun yesterday. Two streets have already been laid out. Capt.
Harper has already christened one as Ocean View, but as the other has not yet received a name we will call it Germania avenue, as it leads direct from the pavilion which has been erected for the band.

The State Farmers' Alliance.

The North Carolina State Farmers' Alliance meets in annual session in Fayetteville, August 12th, and will continue in session several days.
On this account the Seaboard Air Line will sell tickets from all points to Fayetteville at reduced rates for the round trip. Tickets go on sale from August 11th to 15th and will be good to return until August 17th.
The fare for the round trip will be as follows from the points named: From Wilmington, $4.60; Charlotte, $4.85; Raleigh, $3.20; Weldon, $3.95; Henderson, $4.60; Sanford, $1.60; Rutherfordton, 6.35; Shelby, $6.10.

A Liberal Offer.

The management of the Wilmington Seacoast Railroad, appreciating the situation of our poor, will donate five hundred tickets for their use from Wilmington to Hammocks and return. These tickets will be furnished from Princess street office on application of any minister of the various churches, or officers of the Fresh Air Fund Benevolent Society, and will be good on any train until September 30, 1889. This is an excellent and a liberal move on Capt. Nolan's part, and no doubt it will be highly appreciated by those for whose benefit it is intended.

The Irrepressible Burglar.

An unsuccessful attempt was made about daylight this morning to burglarize the residence of Mr.
J. D. Hodges on Walnut, between MacRae and Ninth streets. The house was entered through a window opening into an adjoining yard.
Against this window was a bed on which several of Mr. Hodges' children were sleeping. In the same room an elder daughter slept. She awoke and saw the man and screamed for her father. Mr. Hodges rushed into the room when the rascal jumped through a window and made his escape. Mr. Hodges says that he was colored and wore a soft hat and russet shoes.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, it has pleased God to his Divine wisdom to remove from our midst, on the 28th day of June, 1889, our beloved brother Freeman, F. W. MEYER, therefore as a token of our love and esteem we, the committee appointed at the last meeting of the Howard Relief Fire Engine Co. No. 1, dedicate to his memory the following resolutions: Resolved, That by the death of our brother Freeman, F. W. Meyer, this company has lost one of its oldest and most respected members.
Resolved, That we deeply sympathize with the bereaved family, and that we will always cherish his memory.
Resolved, That the Engine House be draped in mourning and that the members wear the usual badge of mourning for the space of thirty days.
Resolved, That a blank page inscribed with his name, age and date of demise be left in our Book of Records, and that these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, and a copy be sent to his widow and to the daily papers with request of publication.

T. DOLAN,
J. H. BOESCH,
A. ADRIAN,
M. RATHBEN,
Committee.

PLEASE NOTICE
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects general interest, but The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written on but one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.
