THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL XIII.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 26, 1889.

NO 175.

The report that Mrs. Herron, wife of Rev. David Herron, was under sentence of death in Corea is now ridiculed. On the contrary, it is said that the lady is in high favor with the Queen.

The wheat crop of Dakota is 30,000,000 bushels short. The figures are large but not in the least exaggerated. The total production for the Territory cannot, under the best possible conditions from now until harvest, exceed 20,000,000 bushels, and to put it that high is a liberal estimate.

William Mahone, of Virginia, aspires, strange as it may seem, to the Presidency of the United States. He thinks that the time is coming when in order to break the Solid South the Republican party will be obliged to nominate a Southern man. As he is the leading Southern Republican he feels that the lightning is sure to strike him at last. It is this conviction that prevents him from making a fight for the Governorship of Virginia.

Tom O'Reilly, who has been made editor of the Journal of United Labor, the Knights of Labor organ, was the moving spirit in the great telegraph strike of 1883, and he still is the leader of the handful of members that are left in the 'Telegraphers' Brotherhood. He is an intimate friend of Mr. Powderly and was intrusted by him with many delicate missions. His experience as an editor has been as assistant to John Taltavall, editor of the Telegraphic Advocate.

The pious Wanamaker is not above combining a little business, as well as piety, with his politics. The following is but one of the many things being told on him now: It is said that Joseph W. Burke, the newly appointed Collector of Internal Revenue at Austin, Texas, owes his appointment to a recent monetary transaction with Wanamaker's house. Burke is a dealer in clothing and under the advice of friends went to Philadelphia and placed a large cash order with Wanamaker and also made arrangements for exclusive future dealings with that house. He then made known the fact that he was an applicant for the Collectorship and his appointment was, on Wanamaker's recommendation, promptly made out and handed to him.

This is from the New York Herald. It is thrilling, and it is in all likelihood true. It is lengthy but it is well worth perusal:

CHICAGO, July 24, 1889.—A most peculiar case of mania was that of Harry Munzer, which came before Judge Gray this morning. The story which Harry Munzer, sane, told of Harry Munzer, insane, was so fascinating that the jurymen were half afraid to be near one who could admit that he was subject to such physical and psychical changes as the witness claims to have undergone.

Munzer is about twenty seven years of age and his features bore a decidedly innocent, but intelligent expression. For four years he has acted as an entry clerk of figures and his manipulation of figures has been considered something wonderful. He has been subject to gloomy spells at periods about two years apart, during which he would become a recluse for weeks at a time. "Just tell us about the last one," said the Court.

"I feel something approaching heavily," said the witness, "but I can take care of myself here. The queer sickness came on me about a year ago," said he, "and this time I became much alarmed at the developments. I seemed to be approaching a state altogether different from the natural one. An ague like feeling crept over me, beginning first in my brain. I was then living at my father's house on West Lake street. My mind did not seem growing weaker, but it seemed to be altering its functions materially. "Presently the sight of a tool or anything with a blade would start every fibre and nerve in me to tingling, and I became afraid of myself, and I became afraid of my friends. I recognized the faces of my friends. I had a cool control of my mental faculties. I was not out of my head in the least, but there was a desire which seemed to be muscular as well as mental, and wholly apart from my natural volitions. My father saw only the outside of this and I dared not explain to him the complete revolution in my being. He sent me to Lake Geneva to be treated in a private institution there, and now for seven months I have been there under the constant care of several experienced physicians. They have been unable to assist me. I grow worse. I knew it and realized the dread change. Never have I lost my senses. The doctors gave me chloroform, but I fear that it has hurt my nervous system and served to augment this fearful development rather than cure it. We consulted and thought a change would be good for me. I now insist that I be placed somewhere so I may be watched and treated differently. The week I have been here since I left Geneva I have not been home. I will not go there. I believe that some rapid change for the worse should take place immediately should I go back. This mania would unman me and force me to do that which I have been battling against, I would kill them. I might kill myself, and yet I would know what I was about."

The story itself was not so very different from what one might expect to hear from a man who felt himself becoming insane. What terrified the jurors was the complete change in his features as he proceeded. From an innocent, harmless expression at the beginning he changed to one of extreme cunning and malignity. Deep lines appeared in his cheeks beside his nose. The eyebrows fell dark and the corners of the mouth drew up. His forehead wrinkled up like an old man's, and his voice actually changed so that a listener might have supposed that a man of 45 was talking. The words came from deep down in his chest, and in fact, the entire aspect of the man was changed. He bent forward in his chair, his shoulders stooped and his eyes became watery. The Court gazed at the phenomenon in astonishment. When the narrator reached that portion of his recital where he spoke of killing, the jury gazed upon the face of a man about to commit murder.

"That will do," said the Judge, in a husky voice. Munzer was startled at the command. He looked up wildly, then fell back in his chair, half exhausted, with a sigh. Tears fell down his cheeks, the wrinkles disappeared from his forehead, the fiendish expression left his face and in a minute more he was the young man, Harry Munzer, again with an innocent face. The jury brought in a verdict finding him insane.

A little more than one month and then oysters will be in fashion. This is the duller day, in every way, that has fallen on the city since last Summer.

Another german at the Island Beach Hotel to night, and a large crowd is expected.

We have a few Fluting Machines which we are closing out at less than factory cost. See them. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Bay View and not Ocean View is the name of one of the streets just opened at Carolina Beach, which has just been christened.

A peculiarity of Hood's Sarsaparilla is that while it purifies the blood, it imparts new vigor to every function of the body.

Ladies and children fish every afternoon from the bridges across the banks channel at the Hammocks, and they generally have good sport.

Burglars. Be secure from them by putting our Burglar Proof Locks on your blinds. They are cheap and can be put on by the most inexperienced. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Headquarters for Sash, Doors and Builders' Supplies is the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. They sell the best goods at prices that you pay for those of an inferior quality.

Paint your house with Regal Ready Mixed Paint. It is the best and cheapest. You will find all colors in any desired quantity at the factory's agents, N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

There was a large attendance at the base ball grounds yesterday afternoon and a good game was played between the Roseville club of this city and the Columbia team. The game was won by the home club. Score, 5 to 4.

Shirts, we have got them by the million, made by good and skillful hand; come and see us, we can save you over fifty five per cent. We'll not charge you fancy prices, treat you well, don't be afraid, therefore come and patronize; us money saved is money made, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 122 Market street. Sign of the blue awning.

A special train will be run to night to accommodate those attending the german at Island Beach Hotel. It will leave the Hammocks at 1 o'clock.

It is said that Col. Fred Olds got everything off the grounds at Camp Latimer that was moveable except three tent pegs, which could not be found. It is presumed that some of those fellows of the Fourth Regiment used them for toothpicks.

Stoves. We have a very large line, made by the best factories, of the latest and most improved styles, which we guarantee to bake and cook well and to give general satisfaction. Our low prices will astonish and our Stoves please you. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

To Dispel Colds. Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

Good on Ocean View R. R. We are requested to state, by the management of the Ocean View R. R., that the 500 tickets which are to be issued by the Seacoast R. R., to the poor of this city, will be received on the Ocean View for a round trip ticket to Switchback and return. This is another generous offer which it gives us much pleasure to chronicle.

Think About It. Dr. J. C. Brown, of Wadesboro, who was here yesterday, and at Bonitz's Hotel, threw out a suggestion which may bear fruit. He thinks that if the merchants of this city will combine and give an excursion here to merchants all along the line of the Carolina Central R. R. it will pay them handsomely in the end. We publish this suggestion for what it may be worth.

Capt. Whisnant at Work. Under this head the Charlotte News says: Capt. T. W. Whisnant, the new Superintendent of the Carolina Central road, has buckled down to business in the superintendent's office in Wilmington, and under his hand everything works with the old time smoothness. The people of Wilmington, to whom Capt. Whisnant is a comparative stranger, will find him an excellent man in every respect, courteous and affable in his manners and a man endowed with fine business tact and ability. He is a man that they will love. Charlotte will certainly regret to lose him as a resident.

New Registration Laws for Physicians. North Carolina has the most rigid and exclusive laws governing the practice of medicine of any State in the Union. The last legislature passed the following in regard to registration and every physician will have to comply that wishes to continue practicing. The new law requires that "all persons who are now practicing medicine or surgery in this State shall, before the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, personally appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county where any such person resides or practices for registration as herein provided; and any person who shall begin the practice of medicine or surgery in this State after the passage of this act shall likewise personally appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of the county in which he resides or practices within thirty days after obtaining a license from the Board of Medical Examiners of the State, as now provided by law for such registration. That any person applying for registration as herein provided shall produce and exhibit before the clerk of the Superior Court a license obtained from the Board of Medical Examiners aforesaid, or a diploma issued by a regular medical college prior to the seventh day of March, 1885; and upon such exhibit or oath being made as aforesaid, the Clerk shall register the date of registration with the name and residence of such applicant."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation, biliousness, sick headache, bilious headache, and all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels. One a dose.

Forecasts. For North Carolina rain and stationary temperature. For Wilmington "rain."

Two young gentlemen who missed the last train last night footed it all the way from Wrightsville to Wilmington. It was a nice, cool night for such fun.

Refreshing and Invigorating. Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Down the River. A large party went down to the Beach this morning on the Grove on the excursion given by the Sunday School of Fifth Street M. E. church, and there were many on this afternoon's boat. The Passport will probably carry down also a large number this afternoon, provided it does not rain, for the first of the series of Friday afternoon concerts by the Germania Cornet Band takes place then.

City Court. The following cases were disposed of by the Mayor this morning: Jno. C. Smith, disorderly conduct, case removed to Justice E. D. Hall's court. David Mallett, drunk and down, was fined $10. Scott Wade, disorderly conduct, judgment suspended. Robert Moody, disorderly, was fined $10. Five boys, for bathing in the prescribed limits, were each fined $5.

Advice to Mothers. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty five cents a bottle. July 6 deodwly
