Caught in the Act.

A colored special police officer by the name of Sasser caught a colored individual who gives his name as David Wiggs in an attempt last night to break into a house on Tenth street. He is now in jail for may be said of many sufferers from safe keeping. When searched a large knife with a bent blade was found on him and it is supposed ennui, etc. The temptation to thus that this was part of his stock in trade. It is possible that he may be identified by some one whose premises have been visited at night and if any such there be we hope that the identification will be made. Col. Hall will afford all necessary facilities to this end.

There will be speeches by Col. T. S. Kenan, of Raleigh, Capt. Swift Galloway and C. B. Aycock, of Goldsboro and others. There will be a band of music on hand and a big picnic, winding up with a ball at night. Fund. The people of Duplin intend to make it one of the grandest occa sions since the war. All are invited to attend.

A Pest to the Plants. Mr. Donlan, Superintendent of Oakdale Cemetery, has shown us a sprig from an evergreen hedge which looks as though it had been sprinkled with corn husk. On examining it we found that the whitfirst discovered in Savannah, in 1880 old way. by Prof. Comstock, of the Horticul tural Department, Washington, D. C. It has since been found at Nor folk, and one or two other places. It multiplies very rapidly and will destroy whole hedges in a very short with the Horticultural Department and has received instructions in regard to their extermination, and he has gone to work with the hope of getting rid of them in a short time. They have already seriously injured several fine hedges in Oakdale.
