The Daily Review.

SIRIUS.
I watched the darkling doom of night,
Grow flecked with God's eternal eyes,
With pulsing heart and ravished sight
I saw great Sirius arise.
Like to a king of royal state,
Swept he in splendor to his throne;
The stars paid tribute, small and great.
When Sirius, the Dog Star, shone.
The moon, an orb of argent fire,
Crept out and turned her face amazed
To where, as tho' he would out vie her,
Bold Sirius in brilliance blazed.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.
It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. Sold by Munds Bros., druggists.

Queer Things That are Patented.
There is a claim in the Patent Office for a patent on the Lord's Prayer, the specifications being that the repetition of the same "rapidly and in a loud tone of voice" will cure stammering.
Among odd inventions are "chicken hoppers," which walk the chicken right out of the garden when she tries to scratch; "the bee moth excluder," which automatically shuts up all the beehives when the hens go to roost; "the tapeworm fish hook," which speaks for itself; the "educational balloon," a toy balloon with the map of the world on its surface; "side hill annihilators," stilts to fit on the down hill legs of a horse when he is plowing along a side hill; and the "hen surpiser," a device that drops the newly laid egg through the bottom of the nest with intent to beguile and wheedle the hen into at once laying another.

One of the latest patents is an automatic bath tub, which starts the hot and cold water at a given moment in the morning to which it has been set, maintains exactly the right temperature of it by graduating the flow of water, rings a bell when all is ready, and, two minutes later, suddenly drops the sleeper's pillow about a foot and turns him out.—Louisville Courier Journal.

ARE YOU SKEPTICAL?
If so will convince you that Acker's English Remedy for the lungs is superior to all other preparations, and is a positive cure for all Throat and Lung troubles, Croup, Whooping Cough and Colds. We guarantee the preparation and will give you a sample bottle free. Sold by Munds Bros., druggists.

A Dude's Dexterous Feat.
The other night five or six young men of the listless, self-sufficient variety so familiar just now dined together in a private room at a fashionable restaurant. After cigars had been lighted one of them drawled:
"I'll bet, fellows, that I can throw this knife, and it will stick in the crack of that door every time."
He rose from the table and pointed out the narrow crack between the door and the jamb, and showed how he proposed to place the knife. The five others approached the place and cried out: "We take the bet. For how much?"
"I am to have ten throws. Each time that I fail I pay a ten dollar bill; if I succeed in putting the knife in the crack ten times, each of you will pay me the same sum."
The young man took his position, and, with a rapidity and accuracy that words cannot describe, executed ten times in succession this remarkable feat.
When he had finished every one hurrahed with delight. Each one of his wagers being paid, he pocketed a roll of bills with a just pride. "But how did you ever learn to do this?" asked one of the company. Then he revealed the secret. For two or three years, having nothing pressing to do and anxious to be talked about, he had given himself up to patient practice at this work. Each morning he looked himself in his room, and, far from prying eyes, he emptied for hours to put a knife into a hole. He had to make innumerable experiments to measure the distance required, the force necessary, and the curve, but his perseverance was invincible. At first he threw the knife into the wide mouth of a Chinese jar; then into the neck of a bottle; finally he succeeded in lodging his projectile in the narrowest opening.

And yet some people say that our dudes are good for nothing, and encumber the earth!—N. Y. Times.

Have You a Cough?
Attend to it in time—do not neglect it—for it may become serious and end in Consumption. Young's Cough Balsam will cure all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. For sale by Munds Brothers.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE
Denote an impure state of the blood and are looked upon by many with suspicion. Acker's Blood Elixir will remove all impurities and leave the complexion smooth and clear. There is nothing that will so thoroughly build up the constitution, purify and strengthen the whole system. Sold and guaranteed by Munds Bros., druggists.

Farmers report that horses like ensilage and hogs do well on it.

PEOPLE EVERYWHERE
Confirm our statement when we say that Acker's English Remedy is in every way superior to any and all other preparations for the Throat and Lungs. In Whooping Cough and Croup it is magic and relieves at once. We offer you a sample bottle free. Remember, this Remedy is sold on a positive guarantee by Munds Bros., druggists.

Mr. Smithers (of Philadelphia at a Boston reception)—Her voice reminds me of our independence bell. Mr. Bean—Ah! has true ring, you mean? Mr. Smithers—No; it's cracked.

Advice to Mothers.
MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty five cents a bottle. July 6 deod & wlv
