Mercurial Poison. Mercury is frequently injudiciously used by quack doctors in cases of malaria and blood poisons. Its after effect is worse than the original disease. B. B. B. (Botanic Blood) contains no mercury, but will eliminate mercurial poison from the system. Write to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for book of convincing proof of its curative virtue.

A. F. Britton, Jackson, Tenn., writes: "I caught malaria in Louisiana, and when the fever at last broke my system was saturated with poison; and I had sores in my mouth and knots on my tongue. I got two bottles of B. B. B., which healed my tongue and mouth and made a new man of me." Wm. Richmond, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My wife could hardly see. Doctors called it syphilitic tritis. Her eyes were in a dreadful condition. Her appetite failed. She had pain in her joints and bones. Her kidneys were diseased also, and no one thought she could be cured. Dr. Gilliam recommended B. B. B., which she used until her health was entirely restored." E. P. B. Jones, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I was troubled with copper colored eruptions, loss of appetite, pain in back, aching joints, debility, emaciation, loss of hair, sore throat, and great nervousness. B. B. B. put my system in fine condition."

For the Music Market.
Prof. Van Laer will leave here on September 1st for New York, where he will go for the purpose of making special selections of pianos for those who may favor him with orders. This is an excellent way to buy a piano. The Professor thoroughly tests the instrument before the purchase is made and he guarantees in this way not only a good piano but an actual saving in cost.

Confederate Veterans.
A meeting will be held this evening at 8.15 o'clock in the county Court House, which all ex-Confederate soldiers and sailors of New Hanover county are earnestly requested to attend. The report of the committee on permanent organization of a Confederate Veteran's Association will be received, officers elected, and other action taken.

Freeman-Cowan File Co.
Mr. Stephen G. Cowan, formerly of this city, but now of Richmond, has been chosen President of the Freeman-Cowan File Company, to which a charter has been recently issued.

The purposes for which the company is formed are to manufacture, buy, sell, or contract for tariff files or bill holders, filing cases, blank and invoice books, cabinets, and any and all office devices; the whole to be used for the convenient arrangement, display, and record of tariffs, invoices, bills, and other like papers and records.

The capital stock is limited to $30,000, in shares of $10 each, and the works will probably be established at Manchester. These facts we learn from the Manchester Leader.

Peterson's Magazine.
Peterson's for September is already on our table. The steel engraving, "Pick a Back," is a charming picture; the wood illustration, "The Young Family," is exceedingly pretty. The illustrated article gives a variety of head dresses and costumes, and describes them in a charming way. Miss Bowman's serial "In St. Tammany Parish," ends most touchingly, while the other continued story, "Ted and I" concludes in as sprightly a manner as it commenced. The short stories are exceptionally good and the fashion and household notes are complete. The "Talk By a Trained Nurse" gives useful and much needed directions for "Lifting and Moving a Helpless Person." Altogether this number thoroughly maintains Peterson's high reputation. Terms: Two dollars a year. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

A Very Successful Affair.
There is no no discount on the fact that there was a big crowd last night at Wrightsville Beach. The efforts on the part of the Ocean View Railroad to cater to the public enjoyment were eminently successful. The number of those present during the day and evening is variously estimated at between 2,000 and 4,000 people. An even average would probably hit it about right. The target practice was postponed but the fireworks were sent off and up as promised. It began at 8:30 and continued until after moonrise. It was a very fine display. The Germania Cornet Band went down at 6:35 and they played during the pyrotechnic display, and afterwards, making some of their best music. The switchback and other amusements were liberally patronized and the supper houses were crowded. Altogether it was a very successful affair and will well bear repetition.

They "Swore like our Army in Flanders," may be said of many sufferers from biliousness, headache, constipation, indigestion, and their resultant irritability, intellectual sluggishness, ennui, etc. The temptation to thus violate a sacred commandment, however, is speedily and permanently removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—tiny, little, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules; nothing like them. One a dose. Druggists.

W. M. Cumming renovates old Mattresses.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, showers and stationary temperature. For Wilmington and vicinity, showers.

To Dispel Colds.
Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

A Quick Trip.
Mrs. J. Mohr, Mr. William Konig and Miss Minna Konig, of this city, who left here last Spring for a visit to Germany, returned here on Saturday night. Mr. Peter T. Sudes, a young man who has never been in this country before, accompanied them. They made a remarkably quick trip, only ten days from Hamburg to Wilmington. There are others of the party from this city who have not yet arrived but who are expected to leave on the return on Sept. 3rd or 5th.

A Bit of Local History.
The Raleigh News and Observer has been shown by Col. Saunders some old documents which revive recollections of the fatal duel between Col. Samuel Swann and Mr. John Bradley, of this city, in the year 1787. The duel took place in the rear of St. James' Church, probably on Fourth street, very nearly where the Adrian engine house now stands. Fourth street, at one time, formed part of the St. James' graveyard.

There are several accounts as to the causes that led up to the shooting. One is that a difficulty occurred at Col. Swann's residence because of a remark made at the table by Mr. Bradley in reference to an English officer who was present and which Col. Swann resented; another is that it resulted from a race between two plantation boats from Swann's point to Wilmington, the two gentlemen being in the boats; one of the boats, it is said, cut through a canal somewhere and the other claimed that this was unfair and the quarrel which ensued led to the duel; another is that Col. Swann, in company with an Englishman, an acquaintance of his, entered a store kept by Mr. Bradley and examined some rings, Mr. Bradley claiming afterwards that one of the rings was missing and intimating that the Englishman had taken it. Col. Swann resented the imputation and hence the challenge, which was promptly accepted and the duel was fought on the afternoon of July 11, 1787. This is the commonly accepted account here, and it is also given by the late Mr. Griffith J. McRee, in his "Life and Correspondence of James Iredell." It is said that the Englishman remained here, married and turned out badly, in this, at least, justifying Mr. Bradley's suspicions. We have never heard his name.

Col. Swann, who had served with distinction during the Revolution, was accounted the best shot in the Cape Fear section. He stated previous to the encounter that he merely intended to "wing" Mr. Bradley and located the exact spot in his thigh where his ball actually did strike his adversary. Mr. Bradley was unskilled in the use of the weapon. At the first fire the latter fell wounded but as he did so his weapon exploded and Col. Swann was shot through the brain and instantly killed. Mr. Bradley was arrested and the News and Observer tells the remainder of the story as follows:

Mr. Bradley was indicted, but apparently on the suggestion of the legislature, Gov. Caswell pardoned him. The court ruled that a man before he was convicted, and refused to allow the plea. An uncle of Mr. Swann was one of the judges, and the case was adjourned from time to time, until at last, Mr. Bradley had an opportunity of applying to the legislature itself for a pardon; and the original petition and special act passed by the legislature granting a legislative pardon to Mr. Bradley.

Notwithstanding the strong family connection of Mr. Swann and the want of political influence of Mr. Bradley, no effort was made to prevent his obtaining the pardon; and time was allowed for it to be granted. Indeed, Mr. Bradley's circumstances appealed very strongly to the sympathies of all.

Mr. Eugene Philyaw becomes night clerk at the Orton House.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. L. M. Hewlett is quite sick at his residence in this city. He has the old fashioned bilious fever.

Hon. C. W. McClammy has been very sick from an attack of malarial fever but we are glad to know that he has recovered and is out again.

Ger. barque Wieland, Vollrath, cleared to day for Buenos Ayres, with 10,750 feet lumber and 4,058 barrels rosin, valued at $9,366.99, shipped by Mr. E. Kidder's Son.

Maj. D. O'Connor returned to the city on Monday night, from a tour of some of the Northwestern States. Business called him back but his family did not return with him. They are visiting friends at the North.

Caught the Possum.
Mr. W. H. Yopp is the happy owner of a neat little cottage at Carolina Beach where he reposes every evening after the cares of business, with none to molest or make him afraid. He is also the happy owner to day of a possum which he caught at the Beach last night, not with a hook and line but with his own right hand. It was only after a stern chase, which was necessarily a long chase, that he was able to catch that possum. But catch him he did, and by the tail. He was walking up the plank promenade at the Beach last night, toward his cottage, when he saw something stealing along in front of him. Divining, as by a sort of instinct, what it was, he immediately gave chase and at the farthest cottage, about in front of old Camp Wyatt, he overhauled the game and pounced upon it. There was a struggle, of course, but it was an unequal one as the possum weighs only about five pounds while Mr. Yopp weighs about five— we mean two hundred. But it was a victory dearly bought; the chase and the capture required a great deal of wind and our friend when he rose proudly as a victor on the battle field was blowing off steam enough to run a donkey engine on board a man-of-war. But he got the possum and he's going to fatten him for a feast when sweet potatoes get ripe and this writer confidently expects to pick a bone.
