Harper's Young People.

AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE begins its tenth volume with the first number in November. During the year it will contain five serial stories, including "Dormant," by Kirk Munroe; "The Red Mustang," by W. O. Stoddard; and "A Day in Waxland," by R. K. Munkittrick; "Nels Thurlow's Trial," by J. T. Brown; "The Three Wishes," by E. Ansley; and "Brander Matthews," a series of fairy tales written and illustrated by Howard Pyle; "Home Studies in Natural History," by Dr. Felix L. Oswald; "Little Experiments," by Sophia B. Herwick; "Chimneys of Child-life from Dickens," by Margaret E. Sangster; articles on various sports and pastimes, short stories by the best writers, and humorous papers and poems, with many hundreds of illustrations of excellent quality. Every line in the paper is subjected to the most rigid editorial scrutiny in order that nothing harmful may enter its columns.

Harper's Weekly.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S WEEKLY has a well-established place as the leading illustrated newspaper in America. The fairness of its editorial comments on current politics has earned for it the respect and confidence of all impartial readers, and the variety and excellence of its literary contents, which include serial and short stories by the best and most popular writers, fit it for the perusal of people of the widest range of tastes and pursuits. Supplements are frequently provided, and no expense is spared to bring the highest order of artistic ability to bear upon the illustration of the changed phases of home and foreign history. A new work of fiction from the pen of William Dean Howells, and one by Charles King, will be among the leading features of the Weekly for 1889.

Harper's Bazar.

ILLUSTRATED.

HARPER'S BAZAR will continue to maintain its reputation as an unequalled family journal. Its art illustrations are of the highest order. Its literature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashion and Household departments of the most practical and economical character. Its pattern-sheet supplements and fashion plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of the subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social etiquette, house-keeping, cookery, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright short stories and timely essays are among the best published; and no line is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions of the new volume will be serial stories by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mrs. Alexander, William Black and Thomas Hardy, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. Christine Terhune Herrick.

JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 18, 1889.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

President Harrison has changed his demeanor in various important details since he was elected to his present office. He used to hang his head in a spiritless way and never looked anybody in the eye. His manner was what is known as "slouching." Now, however, he has braced up. He holds his head high, his shoulders back, and there is a straightforward glance in his eyes now and then when he is talking to an office seeker. He is more particular about his clothes than he used to be, and has already been improved by his elevation.

A large public bath will soon be erected in Philadelphia, from money left by Benj. Franklin and John Scott. Franklin left in his will, dated April 23, 1790, $5,000, to be used by Philadelphia in such a way that after the lapse of a century the principal and interest should amount to a sum large enough to make valuable public improvements. In 1816 John Scott added $4,000 to this sum. The principal now amounts altogether to about $110,000. Ten thousand dollars of this will be laid aside for another century, after the new bath is constructed.

President Harrison had a peculiar experience near Deer Park recently. He alighted from his carriage and entered a drug store with a bottle in his hand. "A pint of alcohol," he said. "Have you a doctor's prescription?" asked the proprietor. "No. I want the stuff for an alcohol lamp," returned the President, who had not been recognized. "Sorry, sir," returned the druggist, "but Garrett County went local option, and if you want to buy spirits without a prescription you'll have to vote against prohibition." The President walked thoughtfully to his carriage, while a bystander informed the druggist who it was he had bluffed.

The romantic story of the engagement of Consul Jacob L. Doty to Princess Paloma, of the Society Islands, has been punctured by D. C. Atwater, who has lived in Tahiti for years. He says: "The real name of the alleged Princess is Paloma Brander. Her mother is a half-caste woman, who is chief of one of the small islands, having a population of about one hundred and fifty people. Paloma's father was a Scotchman, who has been dead for a long time. Paloma is 17 years of age. Her parent was willing that she should marry Doty, but the girl herself did not see it that way. There never was an engagement between them. Doty will never go back to Tahiti, as he is not in high favor at the island."

A Parliamentary paper has been issued containing reports prepared by Queen Victoria's representatives in the capitals and chief towns of Europe, in reply to a circular addressed them by Lord Salisbury, giving information as to what laws are in force in the various States of Europe with regard to the carrying of firearms by private persons in populous places. These reports go to show that of the twenty four States comprised in the Continent of Europe there are stringent laws regulating the carrying of weapons in all of them, save in Denmark, the Duchy of Baden, the Duchy of Coburg, Montenegro, the Netherlands, Norway and Sweden, and Switzerland. In Turkey regulations on the subject exist, but the provisions are very elastic and are seldom carried out.

"Painting the Town Red." You may call this a vulgar expression and as modern as it is vulgar, but in the "Inferno of Dante" we read the lines: "Who, visiting, greet through the purple air, Us who have stained the incarnadina."

Incarnadine or red may be the wrong color for a town, but it is the natural color of the blood. If your liver is out of order, your blood will soon lose its ruddy glow and become impure. This means kidney disorders, lung disease, and, in course of time, death. To put the liver right and so stop such a train of evils, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a sure remedy. It is guaranteed to benefit or cure all diseases arising from a disordered liver or impure blood, as indigestion, sour stomach, dyspepsia, all skin, scalp, and serofulous affections, salt rheum, tetter, erysipelas, and kindred ailments, or money paid for it will, in every case, be promptly refunded.

"It Works Like a Charm." Rulon's Magnetic Liniment is a safe and speedy cure for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, Headache, Sprains, Bruises, Swellings, Diphtheria, Inflammation of the Kidneys and all painful affections. For sale by Munds Brothers.

A Safe Investment.

Is one which is guaranteed to bring you satisfactory results, or in case of failure a return of purchase price. On this safe plan you can buy from our advertised druggist a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. It is guaranteed to bring relief in every case, when used for any affection of Throat, Lungs or Chest, such as Consumption, Inflammation of Lungs, Bronchitis, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Croup, etc., etc. It is pleasant and agreeable to taste, perfectly safe and can always be depended upon. Trial bottle free at Robert R. Ballamy's wholesale and retail drug store.

Translating as He Spoke.

The variations of language in different parts of the same country are often so extreme that residents in one region can hardly understand those of a different region. A certain calico manufacturer in the north of England employed a set of workmen whose pronunciation was quite unintelligible to alien ears. One day a southern visitor, wishing to note the variations of popular language, said to him: "I hear that you are obliged to speak in two different tongues, one to your friends and another to your workmen. Is that true?"

"It is perfectly true, as I will show you. Hear me address one of the men. Fetch Mr. Dean." The operative stared, and uttered nothing beyond a peculiar guttural sound. "Fetch Mr. Dean, I say!" Still the same stolid expression of countenance continued. The employer then glanced meaningfully at his friend, to prepare him for a surprise, and said, abruptly, "Fetch Mr. Dean, I say!" The messenger darted off at once, without another word. When he reappeared, his master said to him, "Why have you tied up your head?" No answer was returned, and the question was repeated, with the same result. Then the master said, quickly: "What thee got thee yed teed up fur-r?" "To keep the yure out o' my een," was the immediate answer.—Youth's Companion.

A Good Appetite

Is essential to good health; but at this season it is often lost, owing to the poverty or impurity of the blood, derangement of the digestive organs and the weakening effect of the changing season. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a wonderful medicine for creating an appetite, toning the digestion and giving strength to the whole system. Now is the time to take it. Be sure to get Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merited that and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, pyrexias, That Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. MISCELLANEOUS.

An Important Announcement.

About six weeks ago while at business, I was suddenly attacked with excruciating pains in my feet, knees and hands. So severe the attack that I took my bed immediately, and in two or three days my joints were swollen to almost double their natural size, and sleep was driven from me. After suffering the most excruciating pain for a week, using liniments and various other remedies, a friend who sympathized with my helpless condition, said to me: "Why don't you get Swift's Specific and use it? I will guarantee a cure, and if it does not the medicine shall cost you nothing." I at once secured the S. S. S., and after using it the first day, had a quiet night and refreshing sleep. In a week I felt greatly benefited. In three weeks I could sit up and walk about the room, and after using six bottles I was out and able to go to business. Since then I have been regularly at my post of duty, and stand on my feet from nine to ten hours a day, and am entirely free from pain. These are the plain and simple facts in my case, and I will cheerfully answer all inquiries relative thereto, either in person or by mail.

THOMAS HARRILL, 11 W. 18th Street, New York City.

NASHVILLE, TENN.—I have resorted to a severe attack of rheumatism by a timely resort to Swift's Specific. In cases where a permanent relief is sought this medicine commends itself for a constitutional treatment that thoroughly eradicates the seeds of disease from the system.

Rev. W. P. HARRISON, D. D. New York, 51 7th Ave.—After spending $20 to be relieved of blood poison without any benefit, a few bottles of Swift's Specific worked a perfect cure.

C. PORTER, VESPA, GA.—My little girl, aged six, and boy, aged four years, had a very bad case of the worst aggravated shape. They were puny and sickly, day-day they were losing weight, and I will cheerfully answer all inquiries to her sex. WILLIS & Co., Druggists. Three books mailed free on application.
