Contagious Blood Diseases.

Ulcers, sores, pimples, itch, salt rheum, etc., are evidences of contagious blood disease. It is manifestly a duty to eradicate blood poison from the system by a use of B. B. B. (Bismuth Blood Balm), thus enabling the sore places to heal, and thereby removing all possibility of other members of the family becoming likewise afflicted. Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., for books that will convince.

J. B. Outlaw, Mt. Olive, N. C., writes: "I have cured my wife of a large ulcer on her leg that doctors and all other medicine would not cure."

A. J. Rossman, a prominent merchant of Greensboro, Ga., writes: "I know of several cases of blood disease speedily cured by B. B. B. Two bottles cured a lady of ugly scrofulous sores."

W. C. Birchmore & Co., Moxey, Ga., write: "B. B. B. in curing Mr. Robert Ward of blood disease affected one of the most wonderful cures that ever came to our knowledge."

Rosa Bonheur, who works as indefatigably as ever, is making some studies of the Indians and the animals of Buffalo Bill's troupe, at Paris, for a large painting she intends to execute.

Many of the white children in the 6th public school district of Cincinnati have refused to attend the school because colored children have been admitted, and a juvenile race war, with stones, is being daily carried on. Foraker may have to call out the militia to quell the rebellion against equal rights in the public schools.

The death is announced in Washington of John W. Lane, a millionaire of Portland, Me. Mr. Lane was interested in the telegraph business with Thomas T. Eckert before the formation of the Western Union Telegraph Company, had interests in the Providence horse railroads, and owned fifty houses in Portland. He was 71 years old.

The Boston Herald says: "It is Mrs. Cleveland's fate that she is still famous. It is six months since she flourished as the first lady of the land, but the private station she now occupies doesn't give her obscurity. She is no sooner recognized wherever she goes to day than she is followed by a crowd. She complains that this sort of thing has grown wearisome, but it is doubtful if she will succeed in ridding herself of the penalties of the popularity she enjoys. The people are with her, and they can't be shaken off."

The colored people of Florida are indignant over the recent appointment of Gen. McKee as the receiver of public moneys for that State, for they remember a speech made by that gentleman shortly after the last Presidential election. In this speech he read the Riot Act to the colored voters, telling them that the time had come when the good of the Republican party demanded that they should take back seats and let the white leadership in the party prevail. At that time Gen. McKee was a candidate for postmaster at Jacksonville.

North Carolina can challenge the world on fine beef. Mr. Garrell had on his stalls to day in Front street market some Ashe county meat that can safely challenge Baltimore and New York to beat it.

Parties from the Hammocks and Wrightsville Beach tell us that old ocean presented a grand sight this morning. "The waves of the sea are mighty and rage horribly," as the Psalmist described it, and one told us that the waves were "as high as the houses."

Mr. James F. Post, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer of the W. & W. R. R. Co., gives notice in this issue that three and a half per cent. interest on the certificates of indebtedness of the road will be paid October 1st, at his office in this city, to all holders of record on that date.

The Ladies Delighted.
The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Peterson's Magazine.
"Peterson" for October comes to us with a handsome new cover, which the publishers announce to be the first of a number of improvements about to be made in this admirable periodical. These changes and additions cannot fail greatly to increase "Peterson's" wide circulation, which has long been far beyond that of other lady's magazines in the country. The contents of this number are, as usual, of the first order of merit. The illustrations are excellent, the stories capital, and the fashion and household departments are models in their completeness. It will soon be time to decide on a magazine for next year. Our advice to families not familiar with "Peterson" is to send for a sample copy. Address: Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, rain and stationary temperature. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

The Sociable To-Night.
The Hibernian Benevolent Society will give the first sociable of the season to-night at Hibernian Hall, on Third street, between Princess and Chestnut. There will be music for dancing and refreshments will be served by the ladies. The committee promise a pleasant evening to all who may attend.

Mayor and Magistrate.
But one case was adjudicated by the Mayor this morning and that realized $20 for the city—when it is collected. One case, Jesse Lewis, charged with disorderly conduct, in cursing and abusing the driver of a street car, was removed on affidavit to Justice E. D. Hall's court, where the defendant was found guilty but judgment was suspended on payment of costs.

Scholarships Awarded.
The competitive examination for the two free scholarships allotted to New Hanover county in the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts, begun yesterday afternoon before the Board of Education and the Superintendent of Public Instruction, was concluded to day. Messrs. Henry E. Bonit, of Wilmington and W. T. Canady, of Scott's Hill, passed a successful examination and to them the scholarships were awarded.

The Wind and the Rain.
The first effects of the storm reported in yesterday's REVIEW as moving Northeast from Pensacola were felt here about dark last evening, when rain began to fall. It rained all night and about midnight the wind was very high. The maximum velocity here was 25 miles an hour and at Southport, between 7 and 8 o'clock this morning, it registered 36 miles, with the wind from the Southeast. The entire rainfall at this station has been 2.15 inches since the beginning last evening.

The storm centre moved this morning to the North, to Kentucky. It is accompanied there by excessive rains and the winds are high. On the coast the wind has veered to the Southwest, although at this writing, 12 o'clock, the cautionary signal is still up.

The predictions of the Signal Office as to the storm have been verified in every particular. They told us it was coming, and from what direction; that there would be high winds last night, and that the wind would shift to Southwest this morning, and all of these things have come to pass exactly as foretold.

Streets of New York.
The New York Herald, an excellent authority on theatrical affairs, says: "That old time melodrama, 'The Streets of New York,' with a real fire engine, lots of red sparks, in numberable supers in red shirts and theatrical looks and various other things, was presented at the Grand Opera House last evening, and succeeded in deeply interesting a large audience in the lower part of the house and thrilling a much larger in the gallery. To say that the gallery was filled would be drawing it mildly. It was packed, and when its occupants were not engaged in applauding the many deeds of the hero and the virtues of the heroine, they spent their time in loudly hissing the villain. Though many of the 'supers' forgot to appear cold during the snowstorm, the audience was made to forget these little things by the fine acting of Mr. W. C. Donaldson as Tom Badger, who is all that could be desired in the part and makes it go with a vim quite refreshing in these days of self styled stars."

It will be presented at the Opera House on Wednesday and Thursday evenings by the strongest cast seen in the play for years.

Cure Your Catarrh, or Get $500.
For many years, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, who are thoroughly responsible, financially, as any one can easily ascertain by proper enquiry, have offered, in good faith, through nearly every newspaper in the land, a standing reward of $500 for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad or of how long standing, which they cannot cure. The Remedy, which is sold by druggists at only 50 cents, is mild, soothing, cleansing, antiseptic and healing.
