According to Cardinal Gibbons, the growth of the Catholic Church in American has been no less mar vellous than that of the United States as a nation. In 1790, he said in a recent address, there were 4, 000,000 inhabitants in America and 40,000 Catholics. Now, after the lapse of only a century, there is a population of 65,000,000, of which 9,000,000 are Catholics. But above and beyond this numerical growth is a marvellous progress in leaning and charity, as exhibited in 650 coleges and academies, and nearly as care of the young, the sick and in

All of the private papers of Abra ham Lincoln and all documents re ferring to his private business affairs are in the custody of the First Na tional Bank of Bloomington, Ill. The late David Davis, formerly a Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and later a Senator and acting Vice President, was Mr. Lincoln's executor, and to him all of the President's private papers were given. Judge Davis took them all to his home in Bloomington and deposited them in the FirstNational Bank's vaults, he being a heavy stockholder in the bank. Though the work of the executor was long since completed and Judge Davis has gone to his long rest, the papers are still there.
