

THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIII. WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1889. NO 230.

PLEASE NOTICE.
We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects of general interest, but
The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
Communications must be written on the one side of the paper.
Personalities must be avoided.
And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

The Charleston News and Courier pays the following noble and eloquent tribute to the memory of Gen. D. H. Hill. No more beautiful offering to his worth and virtue and patriotism than this has been penned:

The hero of two wars, the man who won his spurs at Cherubusco and Chapultepec, and who, at Big Bethel, gained the first brilliant victory of the civil war, and showed of what stuff the Southern soldier was made, who served throughout the war, rising gradually from Colonel to the high rank of Lieutenant General, and finally laid down his arms with Johnston in North Carolina, has passed from mortal sight. But such men as Hill can never die. The men who fought beneath the Starry Cross can see him now, as in the Shadow Land the joins Lee, and Jackson, and Stewart, and Albert Sidney Johnston, and Hood, and Dick Anderson and the other immortals, and answers to the roll call of the brave and true. "Here! Deo Vindice!"

Gen. Hill was no time server or turncoat. He never admitted for a moment that there was any stain upon the sword that had flashed in his hands on so many hard fought fields. He was a son of whom both the Carolinas may be proud, the one his own, the other his foster mother. He remained a Southerner to the last, and if he failed to bend to the storm, and to ride upon the current to the harbor of success, blame him not. Of such stuff he was not made.

Cure Your Catarrh, or Get $500.

For many years, the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, who are thoroughly responsible, financially, as any one can easily ascertain by proper enquiry, have offered, in good faith, through nearly every newspaper in the land, a standing reward of $500 for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad or of how long standing, which they cannot cure. The Remedy, which is sold by druggists at only 50 cents, is mild, soothing, cleansing, antiseptic and healing.

LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

B F PENNY—Clothing
WILMINGTON PAPER CO
MUNDS BROS—Pharmacists
W M CUMMING—Mattresses
GRAND BALL—Germania Band
JAS D NUTT—Dutch Flower Roots.
CHERRY HALL—New Grocery Store
BRADY & GAYLORD—The Racket Store
CRONLY & MORRIS—Valuable Real Estate

Day's length 11 hours and 54 minutes.

Sunset to-morrow afternoon at 47 minutes past 5 o'clock.

An unusually large number of our country cousins were in the city today.

It seemed cold enough for frost this morning but there was none seen hereabouts.

Mr. W. B. Davis's seine landed about 3,000 mullets yesterday on Wrightsville Beach.

Archie Freeman's seine made a haul of 2,000 fine mullets yesterday at Carolina Beach.

Prayer and experience meeting of business and working men at the Seaman's Bethel to-night at 8 o'clock.

The contract for making the Winter uniforms for the police was awarded yesterday to Messrs. Munson & Co.

"I cannot praise Hood's Sarsaparilla half enough," says a mother whose son, almost blind with scrofula, was cured by that medicine.

We have a few Fluting Machines which we are closing out at less than factory cost. See them. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co

Preaching at the Seaman's Bethel to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock. Seamen and the public generally are invited to attend.

Headquarters for Sash, Doors and Builders' Supplies is the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. They sell the best goods at prices that you pay for those of an inferior quality.

Burglars. Be secure from them by putting our Burglar Proof Locks on your blinds. They are cheap and can be put on by the most inexperienced. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Ladies will find a very handsome and complete line of ladies' Muslin Underwear at astonishing low prices at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, 122 Market street. Sign of the blue awning.

Refreshing and Invigorating
Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

No interments this week in Bellevue, ope, a child, in Oakdale, and four, all adults, in Pine Forest.

The Register of Deeds has issued marriage licenses this week to 7 couples, all but one of whom are colored.

In the language of an old chestnut it may be said that there will be some moving scenes witnessed hereabouts next week.

Services to-morrow at the First Baptist Church at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., conducted by Dr. Pritchard. Sunday School at 3:30 p. m.

Whoever it was that poisoned with concentrated lye, or otherwise, Mr. H. H. Bloom's fine coon dog should have the benefit of the law.

Services in St. John's Church to-morrow: Holy Communion at 7.30 a. m.; morning prayer and sermon at 11 o'clock. Sunday School at 4.30 p. m.

We are sorry to hear that Dr. Mendelsohn is quite sick and confined to the house. In consequence of this there was no service in the Temple of Israel today.

Mr. John Shiolar, builder and contractor, formerly of this city but more recently of Raleigh, is here with the view of returning and locating here permanently.

Skipjack are biting beautifully now in the channel in front of the Island Beach Hotel. A party of gentlemen yesterday caught there a long string of fine, large fish.

Mr. I. Shrier returned to the city last night from the North. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Estelle, who has been a pupil at the Academy of Music in Cleveland, Ohio.

Miss Webster, who taught in the Normal Room of the Tileston Institute last year, will return to fill the same position this Fall. Miss Bradley has engaged another lady, Miss Marriett, of Massachusetts, to teach during the coming session.

Miss Annie Thompson, of the new millinery store of Klemann and Thompson, on North Front street, returned last night from New York, where she has been visiting the large millinery establishments in that city and perfecting herself in the latest styles.

Mr. Charley Hall has opened a new and first class family grocery in the handsome store corner of Orange and Seventh streets. He has laid in a fine stock, all new and fresh goods, and he guarantees to sell as cheap as the down town dealers. Give him a call.

In consequence of several cases of sickness in the immediate neighborhood of Grace Methodist Church the peal of bells may not be rung on to-morrow but the usual Sabbath services morning and evening will be conducted by Rev. Mr. Creasy, the Pastor, whether the bells are rung or not.

Syrup of Figs.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system acts gently, on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

Superior Court.

The Superior Court has been engaged all of today in the case of Harris vs. Sneed. The argument was taken up yesterday afternoon. Mr. Junius Davis opened for the plaintiffs and was followed by Mr. Iredell Meares for defendants. Judge Russell spoke this morning and was replied to by Col. Thos. W. Strange. Mr. Meares' speech yesterday afternoon was his maiden effort before the bar and he was highly complimented by the Judge as well as by the members of the bar, for his clever, lucid and forceful presentation of the case.

The case was given to the jury about 12 o'clock and they returned at 4 o'clock with the following findings: That the plaintiffs were the owners of the land and in possession of it at the time the slander was alleged to have been spoken, but that the defendants entered under a bona fide claim of title and had not slandered the plaintiff title and the plaintiffs were not entitled to damages.

Special Services.

At St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church corner Sixth and Market streets, Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, pastor. There will be services in this Church Sunday, September 29th, at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m., both to be in English. The organist will be assisted, and Miss Minnie Schwarz will assist the excellent choir. There will be special services of the Sunday School at 3:30 p. m. at Luther Memorial Building, at which interesting addresses will be made by the pastor, besides music and recitations, in which Maj. H. H. Foster and his daughter, Norma, will take part. All are welcome.

Judged by His Clothes.

We find the following anecdote relative to the late Hon. John Dawson going the rounds of the papers. It was originally from the Washington Post. Mr. Dawson died only a few years since, having been for more than half of a century a Wilmingtonian, during which period he had several times held the highest municipal office in the gift of the people. The anecdote is a true bill as we happen to know. Mr. Dawson, Mr. Stewart and Mrs. McLaurin, a lady resident for many years in Richmond county, all came out together in the same ship, many years ago. All three are now dead. The anecdote is as follows:

One of the leading citizens of Wilmington, N. C., was John Dawson. As a banker he accumulated a large fortune, which was so securely invested that even the ravages of the war left it unimpaired. Mr. Dawson rose from humble origin. He had come over from Ireland when a lad in the steerage of the same ship which brought Alexander T. Stewart. The two boys formed a warm friendship, which lasted through life. They maintained correspondence and grew prosperous, each in his own locality, though the New Yorker's wealth expanded with a marvelous rapidity.

Immediately at the close of the war Dawson hurried to New York. The strangled commerce of the South had left her markets bare and though wealthy, Mr. Dawson could only command a shockingly bad suit of butternut nankeen. His wife was hardly better clothed. Entering the huge dry goods palace of the merchant prince, Mr. Dawson gazed around for his old friend. A dapper floor-walker stepped up brusquely:

"Well, sir," said he, "what can we do for you?"

"I want to see Mr. Stewart," said Mr. Dawson.

"He is busy, sir, and has no time to see you."

"Oh, I didn't know. I'll just look around, then, if you have no objection."

The clerk thought he was some countryman who wanted to see Mr. Stewart out of curiosity. The old fellow stared around and attracted considerable attention from the gaily dressed ladies who thronged the store. The underling concluded it was about time to interfere, so he walked up and said:

"I told you it was no use to wait for Mr. Stewart. He is very busy and has no time for any one like you. Now, unless you wish to buy something, you had better be going."

"Mr. Stewart doesn't want to see me, you say, young man?" asked Mr. Dawson, dreamily.

"I don't need to repeat it a third time," replied the clerk. "You had better go at once. We don't want you around the store. You will drive away custom."

Just then the proprietor himself came walking down from the counting room.

"Hello, Aleck," shouted Mr. Dawson.

The dry goods millionaire stopped and stared. Then he rushed up and threw his arms around the rough old fellow in the butternut suit.

"Why, John, where did you come from? My dear fellow, I am perfectly delighted to see you. Why didn't you let me know you were here?"

"I tried to but that young man—"

But the officious clerk had disappeared at the first greeting.

"Where did you get that suit?" asked Stewart. "My carriage is at the door. Get right in and come to the tailor's. You must have some decent clothes right away. Where is Mrs. Dawson? You must both come right to my house and stay."

So he ran on as he actually dragged his old friend to his carriage.

The officious clerk tried to keep out of sight every time he saw Mr. Dawson coming, but the latter took a malicious pleasure in running across him every time he came into the store and bowing to him. Finally, the clerk came one day and, abjectly apologizing, begged that Mr. Dawson would not carry the story of his rudeness to the proprietor. Mr. Dawson gave him a good humored tongue lashing and let him go.

For Rent.—Desirable Store corner Front and Mulberry Sts. Possession given at once. Enquire of I. Shrier, cor. Front and Princess. t

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Paper! Paper! Paper!

Bags! Bags! Bags!

BLANK BOOKS, STATIONERY,
SCHOOL SUPPLIES, &c.,
FULL STOCK! PRICES ROCK BOTTOM!
WILMINGTON PAPER CO.
TO THOSE WHO EXPECT TO MOVE
October 1st, 1889:
LET ME SUGGEST THAT WHEN YOU MOVE YOU HAVE YOUR Old Mattresses Overhauled and Renovated.
—IN ONE DAY I CAN—
Make Them as Good as New.
W. M. CUMMING,
MANUFACTURER AND RENOVATOR OF MATTRESSES.
17 PRINCESS STREET.

Large Haul of Mullet.

Mr. James A. Hewlett's seine hauled up 20,000 fine fish on Masonboro Beach yesterday afternoon. This is a big haul, by far the largest of the season thus far. Salted down they will fill between 80 and 100 barrels. Mr. Hewlett has a large number of hands to-day at work cleaning, salting and packing the fish.

First Ball of the Season.

A grand ball will be given in Howard Relief Hall, on next Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Germania Cornet Band. Tickets $1, and no gentleman admitted without a lady. This will be the first ball of the season and the excellent manner in which all of the entertainments given by the Germania Band are conducted is a sufficient guarantee of a pleasant evening to all who may attend.

At St. Andrew's To-morrow.

Rev. B. F. Marable, one of the most-eloquent Presbyterian divines in the State, will preach in St. Andrew's Church to-morrow night, at 8 o'clock. A special choir, consisting of Miss Annie DeRosset, Miss Gabriella DeRosset, Mr. Jas. D. Smith and Mr. L. Tate Bowden, with Mr. E. P. Boatwright at the organ, will render the music at the services. There will be no morning services in this church. This is a change made from announcement in the morning papers.

The Fire This Morning.

The alarm of fire this morning about 3:15 o'clock, turned in from box 41, was caused by the burning of two two-story houses on Wooster, between Fourth and Fifth streets. One was owned by Mr. John McEntee and was insured in the Sun Mutual of New Orleans for $400. The other was owned by Mr. B. Kelly and insured in the Insurance Company of North America for $200; both companies are represented here by Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor. The origin of the fire is unknown.

"An Immense Book."

Under this head the Savannah News of a recent date says:

"The Morning News has just made a blank book for the Central Railroad, which is probably the largest ever turned out of any blank book manufacturer in the South, if not in the Union. It measures, when open, 6 feet across."

Messrs. Jackson & Bell, of this city, have nearly equalled this and stand ready to manufacture to order a blank book six feet across should such be needed by any one. Several years ago they made a large blank book for the office of the General Auditor of the A. C. Line in this city, which measures exactly 5 feet 4 inches across.

Paint your house with Regal Ready Mixed Paint. It is the best and cheapest. You will find all colors in any desired quantity at the factory's agents, N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Grand Ball,

UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE GERMANIA CORNET BAND, at Howard Relief Hall, Wednesday Evening, October 2nd, 1889. Tickets $1.00. No gentleman admitted without a lady. sat wed sep 28 2t

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

New Family Grocery Store.

I HAVE OPENED A FIRST-CLASS
GROCERY STORE
AT THE CORNER OF ORANGE AND SEVENTH STREETS, where I will be pleased to have my friends and the public to call and examine my stock, as I intend to keep nothing but the best of everything, and guarantee to sell as cheap as any Retail Store in the city.
Respectfully,
CHARLEY HALL.
sep 28 1aw 1m

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE.

WE ARE AUTHORIZED TO RECEIVE bids for the purchase of that valuable property situated upon the East side of North Water street, between Princess and Chestnut streets, fronting 93 feet upon North Water street, with a depth, including stores, open way and warehouses, of 177 feet to the West line of "The Orion" Hotel, line designated by a stone wall.
This property is well worthy of examination and will be cheerfully shown and lines designated upon application to CRONLY & MORRIS,
Auctioneers,
Stock and Real Estate Brokers.
sep 25 2t wed sat

Oysters.

A NICE LOT OF LYNNHAVEN Bay Oysters received by sep 27 2t CARL MUGGE.

RACKET NEWS!

OUR BUYER, MR. BRADY, ONE OF THE proprietors of the RACKET STORE, is now in New York purchasing a large stock for the Fall trade. Mr. Brady is a wide-awake and careful buyer and has had quite a good experience in that line and he will attend all the auction and sheriff sales and will lay in that the RACKET has ever carried. Therefore we will be able to do better by our many good customers than ever before.

The Largest and Best Assorted Stock of Goods

WILL PLACE THIS LARGE STOCK BEFORE THE PUBLIC AT A

VERY SMALL MARGIN,

As our motto is "Quick Sales and Small Profits."

WE WILL GO IN MORE LARGELY FOR

Millinery and Carpets and Toys than we have in the past, as our customers are getting more numerous and our sales much larger every day. This stock will be opened the 1st of October

and we invite both rich and poor to call and examine our stock before you buy elsewhere. We have secured a sufficient number of clever clerks that will treat all with the same politeness. Call on us.

Very truly yours,

BRADY & GAYLORD,
PROPRIETORS.
117 S. FRONT ST., WILMINGTON, N. C.
Headquarters, New York. sep 17 2t sat

Dutch Flower Roots.

HYACINTHS, TULIPS, CROCUS, Etc.
Direct importation. Finest selection. Illustrated catalogue now ready and free on application.
JAMES D. NUTT,
The Druggist,
218 N. Front St., Wilmington, N. C.