Inherited Blood Poison.
How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison.
Bad blood passes from parent to child, and it is therefore the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.
James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My two sons were affected with blood poison, which was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
W. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes:
"My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend." J. B. Wilson, Alhambra, N. C., writes:
"I was afflicted with 'Bone and blood poison' and it was a very large ulcer, and on the stamp there came a large ulcer, which worsened every day until doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and healthy. I never knew what good health was before."

Two fine entertainments are booked for next week. These are "A Night Off" on Monday night, the 21st, and "Arabian Nights," by the same company, on Tuesday night.
We are assured that they are both fine plays and will be presented by a good company.

Our country cousins seem to be holding back their cotton now.
They are holding partly for better prices and partly for more cotton bagging. As for the former they can get the top of the market here, as we have been paying more for it than any of our near-by sister cities.

Mr. A. Roder, proprietor of the new Purcell House, has terminated his engagement with the Island Beach Hotel and is here to day for the purpose of making arrangements looking to the opening. He will go North in a few days to engage help, and purchase furniture etc.

Down Last Night, Up To-Day.

The cautionary Northeast signal was lowered last night but instructions were received here this afternoon to hoist the cautionary Northwest signal, which was done. It was also ordered up at Morehead.
There is a storm off the middle Atlantic Coast. Northerly winds, backing to Northwest and clearing weather were predicted for this locality.

City Court.

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases this morning:

Ralph Huske, disorderly conduct, guilty and fined $10.

Louis Peshau, disorderly conduct, case continued.

David Jacobs, selling or offering liquors for sale on Sunday, guilty and fined $20 and costs.

Joseph Wright, disorderly conduct, guilty and fined $10.

Still Pushing Ahead.

Capt. Phil Sasser, who has for some time past been employed on the W. O. & E. C. R. R., has given up that position. The road is now graded 20 miles, which is within two miles of Sloop Point and about halfway to New River. Some little iron has been laid at this end of the line and we are told that a construction train will soon be at work. We may yet get some New River oysters by rail this season.

The Donors are Unknown.

One day during the past week some one, unknown as yet, gained admission to St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church and caused to be put up on the rail to the choir loft, in the rear of the pulpit, a very handsome silk plush curtain, or dosel, with brass rod and ring accompan-yments. The curtain and fixtures are very handsome and give an appearance of marked improvement to the church. We understand that the Pastor of the Church, Rev. Jno.
W. Primrose, has no idea who the donors are but he may rest assured that some of the ladies of his congregation can tell.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Dr. Lorenzo Frink, a native of Brunswick and a life long resident and highly esteemed citizen of that county, died yesterday at Southport and his remains were brought here last evening for interment. He was brother to Mrs. Thomas B.
Smith, of this city. Mrs. W. E.
Boudinot, of Richmond, and the late Mrs. Henry Nutt. He was 77 years of age. The funeral services were held this afternoon at St.
James', and the interment was in Oakdale. The pallbearers were Messrs. William Watters, T. C.
McIlhenry, David S. Cowan, W. T.
Daggett, E. D. Hall, Clayton Giles, Isaac Bates, James G. Burr and W.
I. Gore.

Address at Duplin Roads.

On Saturday evening last, the 12th inst., at Clement Hall, Duplin Roads, the citizens of the village and surrounding vicinity were treated to a fine address on the "Farmers' Alliance" question by the Rev. Colin Shaw, of Magnolia. The speaker kept his audience spellbound for an hour and a half with his eloquence and sound, logical talk. Many of the readers of the REVIEW and of the JOURNAL are well acquainted with the reverend gentleman, for he has been a member of the Wilmington Presbytery for over fifty years. During the war he was chaplain of the 18th Regiment. The Rev. Mr. Shaw is 78 years of age, but any one not acquainted with him would hardly take him to be more than 60, so well does he carry his years. We hope that many years yet may be spared his profitable and valuable life.

Do Not Think for a Moment that catarrh will in time wear out.

The theory is false. Men try to believe it because it would be pleasant if true, but it is not, as all know.
Do not let an acute attack of cold in the head remain unsubsided. It is liable to develop into catarrh. You can rid yourself of the cold and avoid all chance of catarrh by using Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. If already afflicted rid yourself of this troublesome disease speedily by the same means. At all druggists.

Duplin Dots.

(Reported for the Review.)

On last Friday, the 11th inst. there was a very interesting trial in the village wherein Arnold Teachy was plaintiff and K. Carter was defendant. The case was begun at 11 o'clock a. m. and was going on at 9 o'clock the same night. Defendant was represented by Mr. R. W. Dixon, of the Goldsboro bar, and the plaintiff plead his own case. It was one of the most interesting trials I ever listened to, and the defendant displayed much shrewdness and made the witnesses plumb the line.

Mr. L. J. Butler, of our village, was in the past week united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss C.
S. Carter, of Sampson county. The writer of this wishes them a long and happy life.

On Friday evening last, as the South bound train stopped here, the accomplished music teacher of the Warsaw High School stepped from the cars and you just ought to have seen the smiles that were upon the faces of our young men. She is a daughter of Pender county.

I spent last Thursday night with one of Duplin's best farmers, Mr. K.
H. Dempsy, who does not buy Western white-sides and Eastern hay but on the other hand he sells corn, meat and fodder. That is the kind of farmers we need in the good Old North State.

The farmers through this section are busily engaged housing their crops. Corn is turning out tolerably well but cotton is almost a failure.
This fact alone ought to inspire those who got supplies last summer on time, to strain every nerve to pay the merchants and all others who have aided them through the past summer, so that they may not hesitate one moment in furnishing them another year. There is nothing more pleasant to an honest man than to pay his debts.

Several of the fairest daughters of Pender county were visiting in our village on Wednesday last.

Some time ago there was a petition sent to Capt. J. F. Divine, Gen.
Supt. of the W. & W. R. R., from many of the best citizens of this place asking for a larger warehouse than we have now. We understand that he will heed their request, and will give us a nice, commodious, brick warehouse in place of the old wooden structure that now stands here. The officials of the W. & W. R. R. are always willing to aid in improving and upbuilding a town or a village on their line when the citizens will manifest any interest therein.

After coming in from the country on Friday, about 12 o'clock, one of the students of Prof. Clement's school came up and politely invited me to go down on that evening and hear the scholars make their speeches and read compositions.
I did so and never did I hear better from the students of any school.
Their behavior was excellent and showed that they had been trained in a manner which was a credit to their teachers. I must mention a composition on the history of Virginia, by little Lillie Boney, about 12 years of age, which was written and read in a manner that would be a credit to any young lady. The larger boys of the school had compositions on the question.
"Is the present system of public schools beneficial?" They were all very good indeed but I must make special mention of Mr. O. T. Boney's, at the close of which there was applause after applause.

The Eastern Baptist Association met at Concord Church, Duplin County, on Tuesday, the 8th inst.
There were at least 2,500 people present. The Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., of Wilmington, preached one of the ablest sermons of his life on Wednesday. A spirit of love and harmony seemed to prevail during the session of the association. Concord Church is about five miles distant from the railroad. The hospitality of the people around Concord was unbounded and the strangers who visited this meeting of the Association will long remember the kind manner in which they were treated.

The Jersey Lily has become quite famous for her beauty, and she means to keep it too, for hasn't she learned in the great United States to cure colds with Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup?

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair weather and stationary temperature with frosts to night. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

Gone After the Boat.

The crew who are to bring out to this port the new transfer steamer of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. left here this morning for Wilmington, Del.
They will arrive there to-morrow morning and if the boat is ready—and presumably she is—they can leave to-morrow afternoon or Thursday morning and with fair weather may be expected here on Sunday or Monday. They can take the inside passage nearly all of the way and probably will.

The Little Tycoon in Asheville.

Ladies and gentlemen in Asheville presented the Tycoon in that city on last Friday night and to a large audience. The Citizen ventures the opinion that "in no other city, large or small, could such a performance be placed on the boards by amateurs." Has our cotemporary never heard of the rendition of the same piece in Wilmington? Leading parts in the entertainment, by the way, were taken by young ladies from this city, and the Citizen compliments them very highly. The piece was produced on two nights in succession, last Friday and last Saturday. The Citizen thus speaks of the entertainment on the first night, Miss DeRosset being the only one mentioned by name:

We have never listened to so sweet a voice as that of Miss De-Rosset, of Wilmington, who took the leading part of Violet. Her singing of "Tell Me Daisy" was exquisite, and brought rounds of applause, which she gracefully ac-knowledgeed with that dear old Southern song "Way Down Upon the Suwanee River" to the intense delight of all who heard her.

Of the presentation on Saturday night the Citizen speaks as follows of all of the young ladies from this city who were represented in the cast:

To the charms of the young ladies from Wilmington who so ably assisted Mrs. Martin, it is impossible to do justice. It is needless to say that those who have met them during their short stay here have been completely won by their many attractions, and they will leave behind them many warm friends and admirers.

Miss Annie DeRosset in the leading character of Violet "The Little Tycoon" is charming in every way.
Her voice is rich, and remarkably sweet. She sings with much feeling and expression, and when added to this is her beauty and skill as an actress, there is little to be desired in her performance of the part.
Her rendition of the two songs "Tell Me Daisy" and "The Moon Song" elicited rounds of deserved applause and she was encored several times.
Miss Amoret B. Cameron, as Miss Hurricane, displayed much exquisite grace and remarkable talent for acting, approaching many of the best professionals in vivacity and finish and far exceeding them in grace and daintiness of expression.
Her entrance at the opening of the third act in the Japanese dance is the embodiment of grace, and was received with great applause.

Miss Jean Cameron and Miss Carrie Myers, of Wilmington, assisted in the chorus, performing their parts gracefully and skillfully, and showing thorough drill and attention to their duties.

The balance of the cast was made up of Asheville talent, most of it well known to our readers.

My boy met with a serious accident by pulling a can of boiling water over on himself and scalding his face, hands, and arms dreadfully.
Having a bottle of Salvation Oil in the house I applied it immediately to the parts scalded, (as per directions) and am glad to state that he is now well, and the wounds healed nicely without leaving a scar. Mrs.
A. CAMPBELL, 2 Roberts St., Balto.
