It is estimated that $2,000,000 has been paid to hotel-keepers in the White Mountains this year.

The amount of money distributed this year in the betting ring at the races on tracks near New York City is estimated by the Tribune at $30,000,000.

During this year the shipments of gold from this country have aggregated about $70,000,000, and the gold in the bank of France has increased $62,000,000.

When the boilers of the steamer Corona exploded, destroying forty lives, nothing was saved except the certificate of the United States boiler inspector, to the effect that the boilers were all right.

After destroying a very large number of letters Mr. Gladstone has selected sixty thousand for preservation, and has built for them a fire-proof room. When his biographer comes to overhaul them he will find his work half done in advance.

The Evangelical Alliance for the United States will hold a national meeting in Tremont Temple, Boston, the 4th, 5th and 6th of December next. A most attractive programme has been prepared, including the names of many eminent clergymen and laymen. The meeting is expected to equal in interest and influence the great Washington Conference of 1887.

Mrs. Cleveland is anxious to engage in some line of endeavor which will raise her above the average society woman. She has thought of literature, but has decided to keep out of the field of letters so long as another of her name remains therein. It is probable that Mrs. Cleveland will devote a good deal of study to oil painting this winter.

If Columbus were alive to day, says the New York Sun, and if his contract of April 17, 1492, with Ferdinand and Isabella were sustained by the American Courts, he would be enjoying an income of about $16,000,000 a year from the bullion product of the Western Hemisphere, to say nothing of his one-tenth claim for the pearls, precious stones and general merchandise of America.

An explanation of the profusion of colonels in Kentucky is to be found in part in the Governor's privilege to appoint colonels on his staff, ad libitum. Gov. Blackburn appointed sixty in Louisville alone, with proportionable numbers for the back counties. It is believed that no Governor of Kentucky ever had his entire staff together at one time. There is no public hall in Kentucky big enough to hold it.

One of the most active and useful organizations employed in philanthropic work in New York is the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. During the last fifteen years it has investigated 44,006 complaints, involving grievances of 122,018 children; has secured convictions in 14,877 out of 15,278 cases prosecuted; has rescued and relieved 24,895 children, and has sheltered, fed and clothed 6,977 children, furnishing 53,774 meals.

It has been shown by official reports that the sheep raising industry in Ohio is declining under the operation of the protective tariff. According to a report of the State Auditor there has been a decline of 134,579 in the number of sheep in Ohio in the last year. It is not profitable to raise sheep on land worth $150 an acre, in competition with wool-growers on the mountain ranges of the Pacific slope who get their land for next to nothing.

The carrier pigeon has just been turned to a curious use in Russia. It is to convey negatives of photographs taken in a balloon. The first experiment was made from the cupola of the Cathedral of Isaac, and the subject photographed was the Winter Palace. The plates were packed in envelopes impenetrable to the light, and then tied to the feet of the pigeons, who safely and quickly carried them to the station at Volkovo.

The great question of the day is: "How to keep the Irish dynamite excitement in a manageable condition." Easy enough. Give each man a bottle of Dr. Ball's Cough Syrup.

Messrs. Sikes & Fox, two well-known gentlemen of this city and thoroughly experienced in the meat business, are located now at stall No. 8, in Front Street Market. They made a fine display there this morning of all kinds of fresh meats, including two fine fat deer killed in Pender county.

At Rest in Oakdale. The remains of Mr. Carl M. Brown were interred this forenoon in Oakdale Cemetery. The funeral services took place at St. James' Church. The pall-bearers were Messrs. E. H. Freeman, R. D. Cronly, Geo. S. Letrand, N. H. Quince, O. P. Cazaux and Richard Melhenny.

Some Disagreeable Delays. We don't like to complain of the deficient postal service and it isn't often that we do it. But however patient we have its limits. Saturday's Sanford Express gets here now generally on Wednesday morning, last Monday's and Tuesday's Charlotte News has not yet been received and a letter from Raleigh took three days to get to Wilmington. A night's ride was sufficient for either of these. In addition we got a letter this morning postmarked New York, Oct. 14th. This is the 17th.

Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently, on the kidneys, liver and bowels effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

Marriage at Burgaw. At the residence of Mr. R. M. Croom, in Burgaw, on the 15th inst. Miss Eva, his daughter, was led to the hymeneal altar by Mr. Willie Rivenbark, of South Washington, the Rev. Mr. Sandlin, of Harrell's Store, officiating.

The following were the attendants: Mr. Jno. F. Moore and Miss Janie Rivenbark. Mr. M. D. Croom and Miss Mattie Taylor. Mr. T. J. Joyner and Miss Ella Croom. There was quite a number of friends of the contracting parties present, among them Mr. M. F. Croom, of Wilmington, Mr. W. J. Boney, of Duplin Roads, and Mr. Milledge, of Canada.

Mr. Rivenbark has taken from the society of Burgaw one of its brightest jewels and her circle of friends will miss her sweet countenance and genial smiles. Mr. Rivenbark is one of the most prosperous and energetic young merchants of Pender.

May their journey through life be one of bliss and happiness. We tender our most sincere congratulations.

About Chrysanthemums. The chrysanthemum is now in bloom. It is the fashionable flower of the Fall. Although of comparatively recent introduction into America it has been known and esteemed in some other countries for centuries past.

The chrysanthemum is a wonderful flower, and has many varieties. It has yellow, white, red, purple, variously colored flowers. The native horticulturists have found it comparatively easy to modify its appearance and color. There is an old statement that the Soochow gardeners take it when it is a foot above the ground and pluck off the terminal bud at the top. After a few days one bud originates two. These again are decapitated and a similar result follows: so that when the autumn arrives the number of flowers on one stalk is very great, and they grow into a sort of round hemisphere like a cart covering.

The chrysanthemum flower is fabled by the Chinese to have the power of conferring immortality. To obtain the result it must be eaten with the fruit of the wutung by the believing. In Szechuan there is in the Confucian temple of the capital of the province an image of the genius of the chrysanthemum. The being represented is said to be a girl who drank the wine of the chrysanthemum flower in the Han palace, and thus became immortal. Those students who pray to her are successful in the examinations. In a cave of the same city there is a painting, drawn upon the wall, of a woman holding a chrysanthemum in her hand. Before her is represented a monkey. She is called "The Lady of the Chrysanthemum," and students who pray to her have remarkable dreams; the intimations conveyed in these dreams are wonderful to relate, sure to come true, say the native accounts. The Chrysanthemum Sinesse has probably for two centuries been well known in Europe. The florets, whether of the ray or disk, are never blue, but they appear with almost every other possible color. The books say that the Chinese must for long ages have been carefully improving the plant, and that their great richness in development in a variety of properties has risen from sporadic peculiarity and intermixture with allied species unknown in Europe. This last effort would be caused by insects bringing with them in their visits to the flowers, the pollen of neighboring plants.

Do Not Think for a Moment that catarrh will in time wear out. The theory is false. Men try to believe it because it would be pleasant if true, but it is not, as all know. Do not let an acute attack of cold in the head remain unsubsided. It is liable to develop into catarrh. You can rid yourself of the cold and avoid all chance of catarrh by using Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. If already afflicted rid yourself of this troublesome disease speedily by the same means. At all druggists.

"A Night Off."

Daly's delightful comedy drama, "A Night Off," will be presented at the Opera House on Monday night. The plot is full of humor, the dialogue bright and fine, and the situations of the most comical character. It was given with the full strength of a first-class New York company in Raleigh last Saturday night. The News and Observer says that the performance was one of the best ever witnessed at the theatre there for a long time. Mr. Augustin Daly, the owner of the Night Off Company, is a native North Carolinian, and is a brother of Judge Daly, of New York, both of whom were born at Plymouth. Mr. Daly has been in the theatre business for many years and has been one of the most successful managers in America. The company will appear here on Monday and Tuesday nights in the "Night Off" and "An Arabian Night." Mr. Daly has adapted these plays from the German. They are both high class comedies and are the best in tone and purity now on the road. Some of the handsomest costumes ever seen here will be presented. The gowns of the lady members are particularly elegant and the personnel of the troupe includes several beautiful ladies. Tickets will be on sale Saturday morning at Yates'.

"Let observation with extended view, survey good things from China to Peru" and he will not find anything of such astonishing merit in killing all the pains that flesh is heir to, as he will know in Salvation Oil, when he has given it a fair trial.
