Senator Ingalls, who is straining every nerve to secure his reelection to the United States Senate, does not seem at all backward in recalling his past deeds in official life. "It is due me," said the Senator lately, "that the Legislature should return me to the Senate. Who has done more for Kansas than I? Where would Kansas stand in the conneils of the nation if I had not represent ed her in the Senate? I have brought her into prominence by my attacks on men and measures. The Senate never had a better presiding officer than I have been. I have given the State a standing at Washington and before the country which entitles me to a reelection, and I

There is a movement on foot among the officers of the army for raising the pay of certain classes of enlisted men. They hope thereby to decrease the number of deser-tions. A soldier said the other day that Col. Lawrdon, had, prepared a sergeants should receive $30, $40 and $50 a month respectively. They now receive $20, $36 and $39 after they from teething or other causes. have been in the service ten years. They start in at from $15 to $34. There is a remarkable difference between the pay of enlisted men and petty officers in the army and those of like rank in the navy. An able seaman gets over $20 to start with. There are a dozen or more petty ranks on every ship, such as carpenter's mate, boatswain's mate, etc.

where the pay is over $30, while there are several grades, such as master-at-arms, where the pay is $61.50. On top of these are the warrant offices to which enlisted men attain, such as boatswain, gunner and sailmaker, where the pay is $1,200 a year for the first year and $1,800 after twelve years' service. The army officers say that if enlist, ed men could hope to be promoted
