A VOICE from Ohio. Here is a portrait of Mr. Garrison, Ohio. He writes: "Was at work on a farm for $20 a month. I now have an agent for the C. A. & Co. and am publishing a paper and a book for $20 a day." W. H. Garrison.

William Kilmer, Harrisburg, Pa., writes: "I have never known anything to sell like your pills. I have tried many others, but they do not do me any good. I have taken your pills and feel better than I have for many months. I can now do my work and feel like a new man." W. H. Garrison.

Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.
HARPER'S MAGAZINE is the most useful, entertaining and beautiful periodical in the world. Among the attractions for 1889 will be a new novel in a historical story, "The Light of the East," by Constance F. Woodson; illustrations of Shakespeare's Comedies by E. A. Abbey; a series of articles on Russia, illustrated by T. De Thulstrup; papers on the Dominion of Canada and a characteristic story by Charles Dudley Warner; three "Norwegian Studies," by Bjornstjerne Bjornson, illustrated; "Commodus," a historical play by the author of "Ben-Hur," illustrated by J. R. Weguelin, etc. The Editorial Departments are conducted by George William Curtis, William Dean Howells and Charles Dudley Warner.

1889.
Harper's Weekly.

ILLUSTRATED.
HARPER'S WEEKLY has a well-established place as the leading illustrated newspaper in America. The fairness of its editorial comments on current politics has earned for it the respect and confidence of all impartial readers, and the variety and excellence of its literary contents, which include serial and short stories by the best and most popular writers, fit it for the perusal of people of the widest range of tastes and pursuits. Supplements are frequently provided, and no expense is spared to bring the highest order of artistic ability to bear upon the illustration of the changeful phases of home and foreign history. A new work of fiction from the pen of William Dean Howells, and one by Charles King, will be among the leading features of the Weekly for 1889.

The Daily Review.
JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r.
WILMINGTON, N. C.
FRIDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1889.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N.C., as second-class matter.

Archdeacon Farrar has been interviewed on the subject of the proposed New Brotherhood in the Church of England; but, except that he has acknowledged its paternity, his utterances were wholly negative. The Brotherhood is to have nothing in common with monasticism. "An institution stamped by history with fierce and emphatic disapprobation," it is to be unconnected with any party in the Church, and equally acceptable to the Bishop of Liverpool and the Bishop of Lincoln; lastly, the vows are to be voluntary, temporary and dispensable—"they will never be undertaken for more than five years, and may at any time be laid aside."

Senator John J. Ingalls, of Kansas, has informed the Philadelphia Record that the statement that he had written a letter to a friend, in which he had urged his claims for reelection to the United States Senate in an immodest manner, "was contradicted by authority the morning after its appearance in a hostile newspaper in a neighboring State." The Record hastens to give publicity to the denial, and is pleased to be informed that Senator Ingalls is not guilty of one of the many grave political offences that have been charged against him in "hostile" newspapers.

Henry Collum, of White county, Ga., had a will drawn last week which will doubtless lead to litigation if not changed. He is the father of several children, and the will debars them of any right to his property, which amounts to about a thousand dollars, consisting of farming land and money. The entire estate is made over to the blind, one armed and one legged Confederate soldier of Hall and White counties. No soldier of such disability is included unless he voted the Democratic ticket ever since the party was reinstated since the war. Mr. Collum, who is 77 years of age, has always been considered a peculiar man, but upright in his dealings with his fellow men.

A special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun from New York says: "At the Democratic State headquarters it is announced that there will be no such thing as Hill or Cleveland Democrats in the State campaign this fall. The factional differences seem for the time being to be put aside entirely, and every man who calls is enthusiastic over the prospects for a big Democratic victory in November. Ex-President Cleveland will deliver a number of addresses in different parts of the State. Col. Dan Lamont called at the Hoffman House this morning and stayed two hours. He will give the campaign committee his valuable advice at all times."

Unlike most countries, China holds the suicide in honor, and by her laws extends to him the most lenient consideration, having regard in all cases to the motive that prompted self-slaughter. The motive is not unfrequently revenge, as the Chinese law requires the household on whose premises the dead body is found not only to provide the funeral expenses but to compensate the relatives of the deceased. As suicide is thus a means of rescuing one's relatives from poverty, it has been made in China a fine art. A curious development of it is the practice of offering one's self as a substitute for a person under sentence of death. This vicarious payment of legal penalties is, of course, much appreciated by rich criminals who are enamored of life.

Gathered Roses.
"We thought her dying when she slept,
And sleeping when she died."
But the bitter sting of such a sorrow is to think she might have been saved! They saw the rose fade on her cheek and the eye grow dim, and they but know of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, which can call her back to life with them, the sunshine of their home. Take the remedy in time, and you will find that consumption (which is scrofula of the lungs) can be cured. The "Discovery" is guaranteed to cure in all cases of diseases for which it is recommended, or money paid for it will be promptly refunded.

How oft the sight of means to do ill deeds makes ill deeds done.—Shakespeare.

A DUTY TO YOURSELF.
It is surprising that people will use a common, ordinary pill when they can secure a valuable English one for the same money. Dr. Acker's English pills are a positive cure for sick headache and all liver troubles. They are small, sweet, easily taken and do not gripe. Sold by Munds Bros., druggists.

The New Discovery.
You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any Throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. Trial Bottles Free at Robt. R. Bellamy's drug store.

OCTOBER ODDS.
Judge—"Describe the man whom you saw assaulting the complainant." Policeman—"He was a little, insignificant looking creature, about your size, your Honor."
"Healthy in our town? I should think so! We have only had one funeral for ten years, and that was the doctor, who literally starved to death."—Fliegende Blaetter.
Mrs. Winks—"Well, I declare! The weather forecasts are right once at last." Mr. Winks (looking over her shoulder)—"Humph! That paper is a week old."

Teacher—"If you had three oranges and ate two, how many would be left?" Scholar (positively)—"None." Teacher—"Yes, one would be left." Scholar (doggedly)—"No, it wouldn't. I'd eat that, too."
The latest medical pronouncement, says the Pittsburg Dispatch, is that smoking after meals is injurious. Since it is already established that smoking before meals is injurious, the only refuge is to stop eating.—Oil City Blizzard.
"Been on your vacation?" "No, Why?" "I saw you riding home in a hack the other day, and thought likely you had just returned." "Do you suppose I could have afforded to ride home in a hack if I had been on my vacation?"—Lo'ell Citizen.

MAKE NO MISTAKE.—If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion and preparation, curative power superior to any other article of the kind before the people. For all affections arising from impure blood or low state of the system it is unequalled. Be sure to get Hood's.
Heaven gives its favorites early death.—Byron.

Have You a Cough?
Attend to it in time—do not neglect it—for it may become serious and end in Consumption. Young's Cough Balm will cure all Diseases of the Throat and Lungs. For sale by Munds Brothers.

Grief treads upon the heels of pleasure.—Congreve.

CAUTION TO MOTHERS.
Every mother is cautioned against giving her child laudanum or paregoric; it creates an unnatural craving for stimulants which kills the mind or the child. Acker's Baby Soother is specially prepared to benefit children and cure their pains. It is harmless and contains no opium or morphine. Sold by Munds Bros., druggists.

He makes no friends who never make a foe.—Tennyson.

Consumption Surely Cured.
TO THE EDITOR—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully, T. A. SLOCUM, M.C., 181 Pearl St., New York.

Take Hood's Sarsaparilla 100 Doses One Dollar

The Chief Reason for the great success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in the article itself. It is merit that wins, and the fact that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually accomplishes what is claimed for it, is what has given to this medicine a popularity and sale greater than that of any other sarsaparilla or blood purifier before the public. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum and all Humors, Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, Biliousness, overcomes that Tired Feeling, creates an Appetite, strengthens the Nerves, builds up the Whole System. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass. Jan 1 1/2 doz mws; 21

Harper's Bazar.
ILLUSTRATED.
HARPER'S BAZAR will continue to maintain its reputation as an unequalled family journal. Its art illustrations are of the highest order, its literature is of the choicest kind, and its Fashion and Household departments of the most practical and economical character. Its pattern-sheet supplements and fashion plates alone will save its readers ten times the cost of the subscription, and its articles on decorative art, social etiquette, house-keeping, cooking, etc., make it indispensable to every household. Its bright short stories and timely essays are among the best published; and not a line is admitted to its columns that could offend the most fastidious taste. Among the attractions of the new volume will be serial stories by Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett, Mrs. Alexander, William Black and Thomas Harter, and a series of papers on nursery management by Mrs. Christine Terhune Herrick.

THE REPUTATION OF OUR FERTILIZERS
The ACME and GEM is now established, and the results of three years' use in the hands of the best farmers of this and other States will attest their value as a high grade manure. The MATTING, made from the leaves of our native pine, is conceded to be equal to any wool carpet for comfort and durability and its demand for it is daily increasing. It has virtues not found in any other fabric.
The FIBRE or WOOL is extensively used for upholstering purposes, and a filling for Mattresses is almost equal to hair, being light elastic and proof against insects.
Certificates from reliable parties using our goods can be seen at our office, or will be mailed upon application. Jan 4

1,500 ACRES OF LAND IN THE one leaf pine region. For sale on easy terms in lots to suit purchasers. Four acres for $4. Larger tracts $5 per acre. In monthly payments of $10. This land adjoins the "South Sea Pine" and is a healthy, fertile, health resort (or sanitarium), and is specially adapted for Fruit Culture, as well as all the cereals. A number of New England people have bought lots in the town of "Southern Pine," and it is the desire of the owners of this land to induce small farmers, mechanics and others from the New England and Middle States, as well as elsewhere, to locate here. No State in the Union offers greater inducements to settlers than North Carolina. Nowhere can better farming country or as fine a climate be found. This is the opinion of Northern men who have settled in North Carolina. This is a bona fide offer, and is limited.
