Inherited Blood Poison.
How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison.
The blood passes from parent to child, and it is therefore the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.
James H. Allen, Ga., writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes:
"My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend." J. H. Wilson, Allen, Ala., writes: "My son, Feb. 10, 1885, writes: 'Bone and blood poison forced me to have my leg amputated, and on the stump there came a large ulcer, which grew worse every day and doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before.'"

When the Trains Will Run.

It is likely now that the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad authorities will not start out their trains from this city until about the 10th or 15th of November. The gap between Black River and Fayetteville is being rapidly laid with iron and it is still hoped to get this completed by the first of next January. It is probable that the road will be open for through traffic not later than the middle of that month.

The Old Craighill.

The little steam tug W. P. Craig hill, which was purchased from the government by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, has been almost entirely rebuilt at the dock foot of Red Cross street. The wood work above the water line is all new and the boiler is new but the engine will be the same as that formerly in the boat, as it was found to be good and serviceable. The repairs will probably be completed this week when the tug will be rechristened and put to work.

First Class Concert in November.

While the Christian Association of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church have made arrangements to have a grand lecture by the distinguished Rev. Dr. Conrad, of Philadelphia, about the middle of November, the Young People's Association are making arrangements to give on Thanksgiving Day night, in Luther Memorial Building, a concert that promises to be of unusual excellence. Besides having some of the best talent in the city to take part Prof. Wm. Ortmann and Prof.
A. Hugel, two of Charleston's finest musicians, are also to assist.

Storm Signals Yesterday.

The cautionary Northwest storm signal was raised here and at Morehead yesterday afternoon. There was a storm off the Virginia coast and off-shore gales with clearing and colder weather were expected.
There was, however, but little wind here and not much change in the temperature. At 10:35 last night the signals were ordered down, both here and at Morehead.

Found in the River.

The body of a drowned man was found floating in the river at Hilton to-day. The body was very much decomposed, so much so, in fact, that it could not be ascertained whether it was that of a white man or a colored man. It is supposed to be that of the colored man who fell overboard from a raft some distance up the river a month or more ago.
Coroner Jacobs was notified and will hold an inquest.

Not Here Yet.

It was reported here this morning that the new C. F. & Y. V. transfer steamer had arrived here yesterday and was at one of the Compresses, and we took a tramp this morning all up the river front as far as the Wilmington Compress but of course did not find her as she was not here.
At 4 o'clock this afternoon she had not arrived in below and was not in sight off the bar. We think, though, that she will surely be here to-morrow.

The Fire Last Night.

The alarm of fire was sounded last night about half-past 8 o'clock. It came from box 35, Eighth and Market streets, and was caused by ignition of the roof of a two story frame dwelling on Eighth, between Orange and Ann streets, owned by Jesse McDonald and occupied by George Franklin, colored. The family were all out at church at the time. The flames were first seen on the roof, near the Southeast corner of the building, and probably caught from a spark or from a defective chimney. Nearly all of the furniture was saved. The house was not entirely destroyed, the firemen having saved the lower half.
House and furniture were both insured.

Duplin Roads Items.
(Reported for the Review.)

Mr. James Wells, a very reliable gentleman who resides near this village, told me that two of his sons went 'possum hunting on Tuesday night of last week and their dogs trod eleven 'possums up one large gum tree. They bagged them all.
A good night for 'possums.

On Thursday of last week the Masons of this vicinity held a meeting at their lodge at Teachey's for the purpose of transacting some important business. There was a large crowd in attendance. At 1 o'clock, in the grove near the lodge room, there was a table filled with the choicest viands. All present were invited to come up and take dinner with them.

On Thursday night of last week, in company with some of my young friends of the village, I went to an old-fashioned corn-shucking on the farm of Capt. W. N. Ellsworth, near this place. Angola Dew was plentiful and there was a good time generally. It reminded me of the days "befo' de wah." The Captain had 112 barrels shucked out.

Mrs. Duncan McNair, of Lumberton, with her two little nephews, is visiting our village, the guests of Mrs. W. J. Boney.

On Friday evening of the past week the citizens of the village and surrounding country had the pleasure of hearing one of the finest addresses that the people of this community have ever been treated to, by that old-fashioned gentleman and scholar, Dr. S. S. Satchwell, who came here by invitation from the pupils of Prof. Clement's school.
The Doctor kept his audience spellbound for an hour and a half. At the conclusion of Dr. Satchwell's address Prof. Milledge, a native of Canada but at present teaching school at Burgaw, gave us a short but highly appreciated lecture on short-hand writing.

I have used Salvation Oil in our stables and heartily recommend it.
It does wonderful work with horses with cuts, bruises, sprains, stains, sores, &c.

Children Enjoy

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

Personal.

The wife of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. J. H. Thees, continues quite ill. She has been seriously sick for nearly six weeks.

We are glad to learn that Mr. J.
H. Rehder, the popular leader of the Germania Cornet Band, who has been ill for several days, is very much better and will possibly soon be able to leave the house to attend to his business as usual.

Cotton Bales and Cotton Presses.

The warehouses at the cotton compresses are full of the fleecy staple now. The Champion press was in full blast to-day but those at the Wilmington Compress were not running to-day. It is a noticeable fact that, notwithstanding the war on jute bagging, a large proportion of the bales is still covered with that material. Gunny bagging seems next in favor.

The Merchants' Carnival.

The preparations for the giving of the Merchants' Carnival by the ladies of the Lutheran Church are going on with all of the vigor that promises success, and even those who take part are becoming more and more interested in it and pleased with it. It will certainly be quite an enjoyable affair, and as it is the first ever given in our city, and possibly the first in North Carolina, it will no doubt be greeted with a large audience on next Thursday night in the Opera House. Tickets are only 25 cents, reserved seats 35 cents. The Germania band will appear in full uniform.

The Postal Telegraph.

The Postal Telegraph line will come to Wilmington. This has been definitely determined upon. Mr.
W. J. Kirkham has just returned from a selection of the route. The poles are to be erected and the wires strung just as soon as the former can be got out. By the route selected the wires will cross the Cape Fear at Market Dock, cross Eagle's Island and Brunswick river and will then take up the West side of the North East Cape Fear to Fayetteville, where they will connect with the system already established. It is thought that the work will be completed by the first of February.

Married in New York.

Mr. R. M. Dix, of this city, who has recently removed to New York, was married in that city on last Wednesday night to Miss Estelle, only daughter of Mr. Wm. R. Utley, who was for many years a resident of Wilmington. Mrs. Gabriel Holmes was present at the marriage and returned here on Saturday night. It was a home wedding, a quiet, old North Carolina affair.
The presents were numerous, handsome and costly. Mr. Utley's present to his daughter was a check for an amount so large that it is said the interest on that alone would suffice to support her handsomely. Mr. Dix has gone into business with Mr. Utley, who is a prosperous merchant in New York.

The Athenian Literary Society.

A number of young men interested in the organization of a literary society, met on Saturday night at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association. The meeting was called to order with Mr. A.
J. Howell presiding and Mr. J. W.
Keene acting as secretary.

A permanent organization was then effected under the name of the "Athenian Society," and a constitution was adopted. The following officers were elected for the ensuing term:

President—R. J. Price.
Vice President—R. H. Sikes.
Secretary—George Howell.
Treasurer—Thos. O. Bunting, Jr.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, fair and mington and vicinity, fair weather.

The President's coat pocket protruded so much at the recent Florida fishing that some one asked the reason why. "Its only a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup," the handsome gentleman explained. "I never travel a mile without it."

Gorton's Minstrels.

Gorton's New Orleans Minstrels will appear in this city on Wednesday, one night only, and reserved seats will be on sale tomorrow at Yates'. The troupe is composed of first-class material and includes the Japanese juggler, "Prince Tanaka." It is a good show and one well worth seeing. The Minstrels played in Raleigh on Saturday night and the News and Observer warmly commends them. In its yesterday's issue it says: Gorton's minstrels appeared in Metropolitan Hall last night and played to a good house. It is safe to say that this is the best minstrel troupe that has been to the city in the past year. The gags were all crisp, new and sparkling and kept the audience in an uproar. The clog dancing was especially fine and was universally pronounced the best ever seen here. The troupe carries with it a magnificent band which in itself is equal to an ordinary show.

There are Giants in These Days Too.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Oct. 25.— Several citizens were knocked down and some of them badly bitten by an umbrella-mender's dog last Monday while Policeman Grant was trying to arrest a negro giant, who is as crazy as he is powerful. Jack Outlaw, the maniac, came here from Darlington, S. C., last Friday and has been loading around the streets ever since. He is seven feet two, with legs like telegraph poles and arms like windmills. When the officer attempted to arrest him the giant twisted his club from his hands and as fast as citizens came to the officer's assistance Outlaw knocked them down. In the excitement the dog bit several of the prostrate men. The brawny colored man looked into the muzzle of a revolver with utter unconcern, and finally started down the street, twirling the policeman's club jauntily.
The crowd at his heels alarmed him somewhat and he turned into the auditor's office at the railroad building, scattering the clerks like chaff before the wind. The maniac was finally captured.

Of course this is from the New York World; who the author of the thing is has not transpired. The facts are these: Officer Grant arrested for vagrancy a colored man, apparently under six feet in height.
The prisoner went quietly for about thirty yards when he wheeled on the officer and hit him on the arm.
A scuffle ensued and the man got possession of the officer's club. Mr.
Grant stepped back a few paces, and leveled his revolver at the fellow, commanding him to drop the club.
The man stood still for a few minutes holding the club but made no efforts to use it. One of the employes, the of Atlantic Coast Line ran out to the policeman, telling him not to shoot, that the man was evidently crazy and walked to him when he handed him the club. The man then walked into the Auditor's office and was allowed to remain there at the request of the officer until assistance could be gotten from the City Hall. The man's demeanor was quiet; he offered no violence to any one; not one of the eighteen men employed in the Auditor's office left the room. Most of them stood talking to him until he was quietly taken off by two officers.
