Inherited Blood Poison.
How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison.
Bad blood passes from parent to child, and it is therefore the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.
James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes:
"My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend." J. B. Wilson, Allen Station, N. C., Feb. 13, 1889, writes: "Bone and blood poison forced me to have my leg amputated, and on the stump there came a large ulcer, which grew worse every day until doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before."

NOVEMBER 1ST, 1889.

We begin the month with a magnificent stock of Dry Goods, to which we invite an examination. Our stock covers every department in the Dry Goods line, and every department is complete. We would call especial attention to our stock of Dress Goods. We have the best and cheapest stock of Mourning Goods in the city. Time and space will not permit us to enumerate the great number of special bargains we have to offer. It is sufficient to say that we are willing and anxious to show our stock and that we are able to offer superior goods at lowest prices.
The immensity of our sales and extent of our stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods enable us to offer inducements in that line, and a class of goods not to be found in any other store in the State. We have in reserve for the Holidays the handsomest stock of Embroidered Handkerchiefs ever opened in the South.
These goods will be exhibited to persons desirous of seeing them.
Respectfully,
JNO. J. HEDRICK.

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XIII WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1889. NO 263.

GLORY ENOUGH

For One Short Day!
MAHONE SNOWED UNDER
IN VIRGINIA.

30,000 MAJORITY!

NEW YORK IS WITH US.

Abbott Surely Elected in New Jersey.

OHIO, DOUBTFUL AND
MAYBE DEMOCRATIC.

Maryland and Mississippi Still Solid.

Yesterday was a good day for our Democratic friends everywhere.
There were elections in thirteen States, Mississippi, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Nebraska, Iowa, Colorado, Illinois and Ohio. The Democrats have carried only five of these, possibly six, but they have done even better than they expected at the outset. New York, New Jersey, Maryland, Virginia and Mississippi are all Democratic, with strong hopes of Ohio. Full returns will not be received, however, until to night.

There never was a more gallant fight than that made in Virginia yesterday. The organization was almost perfect. Our friends there went in to win, and they came out with the fruits of a glorious victory in their grasp.

Meagre reports reach here of a difficulty between Mahone and a man named Harrison, at Petersburg yesterday, in which the latter was shot by Mahone. It is reported here to day that William is reposing in jail at Petersburg.

The latest information from Virginia is a conservative estimate of 30,000 for McKinney. This may be carried over several thousands larger.
We are figuring on an approximation of 40,000. Mahone is completely snowed under.

The result in Virginia has developed at least one self-evident truth: The harder the Republicans push the fight the larger the Democratic majority will be.

Mahone up a tree, to McKinney:
"Is that you, Boss? Don't shoot, I'll come right down."

The very latest is that Ohio has gone Democratic without a doubt.
Three times three!

Blood is thicker than water and blood will tell every time.

That was a big coon hunt yesterday in Virginia.

Ole Virginny never tires!

Sic semper tyrannis!

"Disease is very various," was Mrs. Partington's remark as she wiped her spectacles for the 90th time that day. "Some people die of hermitage of the lungs and other brown creatures." Disease may vary, but there is only one reliable remedy for coughs and colds and that is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup.

The Australian system of voting was tried yesterday in Massachusetts and is said to have worked admirably. Very few understand what this method is. It simply means a free and unrestricted ballot and a fair count. Two long lists are furnished by the government, one with all of the names of the Democratic nominees thereon and the other those of the Republican candidates.
None but officials are allowed to stand within 100 feet of the polling place. The voting is done in a large room, filled with small recesses on one side. The voters pass up singly and if not already with a ticket prepared, can enter one of the alcoves and there erase any name he desires and substitute any he may please, on a blank space at the bottom. He then places this ticket in an envelope and deposits it in the poll, after having had his name duly certified on the registration books. He can vote but once, for the presence of two tickets in the envelope would lose both, and there is for him no danger of intimadation, for no one but himself need know how his vote was cast. It is also an effectual bar to bribery as the man who pays for the vote can never have any positive evidence that the vote was cast as promised.

Adam might have been the "goodliest man of men since born" but it doesn't appear that he ever did anything especially good for his large family. What a lasting blessing he might have left behind if he could have made Salvation Oil and kill pain.

The first german of the season, complimentary to visiting young ladies and gentlemen, was given at the Orton House last evening and it was in every way one of the most delightful affairs of the kind ever known here.

The mercantile business in Wilmington is said to be splendid. A good way in which to ascertain this fact is to take a stroll on Water street. Every man you meet is "on the go" with a pleasing horizontal crack in his face.

Messrs. John E. Hewett & George W. Light are soon to begin the publication here of a new weekly paper, to be called the Examiner. It is to be issued every Saturday. Both gentleman are practical printers and hard workers and we wish them success.

"Man wants but little here below." This is particularly true of medicine, and he really needs a very small amount, provided it be of the right kind. Dr. Pierce's Pe-tlets fill the bill in respect of size and are stupendous in point of effectiveness. If you desire immediate relief from headache, "liver complaint," indigestion, and constipation, they will not fail you.

Children Enjoy

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

Complimentary Conjugal Ball.

The ball given last night at Adrian Hall, complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. John G. Oldenbittel, was a brilliant occasion. Many friends of the happy couple were present, whose pleasing faces will live long in the memory of the worthy pair to whom they tendered the enjoyable event.

Married Last Night.

Mr. William Savage was happily married last night at the residence of Mr. G. W. Mills, in this city, by Rev. Mr. Beaman, to Miss M. E.
Nichols. After the ceremony a reception was held and the many friends of the happy young couple tendered their congratulations. The Review wishes them many years of wedded happiness and bliss.

Rev. Dr. Conrad's Lecture.

The date of the lecture of the celebrated Rev. Dr. Conrad has been fixed for next Wednesday, the 13th. It has been decided that the lecture be delivered in St. Paul's Lutheran Church, and there will be no charge for admission. Dr. Conrad has not only a national reputation as a scholar, theologian, writer and orator, but his reputation extends also to Continental Europe.
His lectures have pleased and charmed thousands.

Everything New.

Mrs. E. B. Wiggins has been busy for a week past in opening and arranging the stock of beautiful millinery and fancy goods purchased by her on her recent visit North and her doors will be thrown open to the public to-morrow. Everything in the store is new and of the latest designs. She will be assisted by Miss Wooten, who is an accomplished and artistic adept in the business. The grand opening is to take place hereafter and will be announced in a few days.

Last of the Series.

The last of a series of meetings at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, at which the subjects discussed were some of the young men of the Bible, was held last night. The meeting was led by Rev. P. H. Hoge, D. D., and the subject was "Christ as a Young Man." Mr. Hoge described the life and occupation of Christ at different times, showing that he was a young man during the whole of his ministry. He went on further to show that the first Young Men's Christian Association was composed of Christ and His followers, who were all, except one, without doubt young men.

A Treat in Store.

The well known and well-equipped MacCollin Opera Co. are to play here two nights this week and a veritable treat is therefore in store for our people. They will appear on Friday and Saturday nights, the piece to be presented being "Falka," an opera of German origin, otherwise known as "The Brigands." The company consists of 38 artists, well equipped with leading actors and with a chorus well trained and richly costumed. They carry their own orchestra and this means, as every opera goer knows, pure harmony between voice and instrument.
The box sheet will be open at Mr.
Yates' to-morrow and we look for large houses on both nights.

The most remarkable cures of scrofula on record have been accomplished by Hood's Sarsaparilla.
Try it. Sold by all druggists.
