NOVEMBER 1ST, 1889.

We begin the month with a magnificent stock of Dry Goods, to which we invite an examination. Our stock covers every department in the Dry Goods line, and every department is complete. We would call especial attention to our stock of Dress Goods. We have the best and cheapest stock of Mourning Goods in the city. Time and space will not permit us to enumerate the great number of special bargains we have to offer. It is sufficient to say that we are willing and anxious to show our stock and that we are able to offer Superior Goods at lowest prices. The immensity of our sales and extent of our stock of Gents' Furnishing Goods enable us to offer inducements in that line, and a class of goods not to be found in any other store in the State. We have in reserve for the Holidays the handsomest stock of Embroidered Handkerchiefs ever opened in the South. These goods will be exhibited to persons desirous of seeing them. Respectfully,

JNO. J. HEDRICK, NOV 4 11

BURNETT'S
Standard Purely Vegetable Flavoring EXTRACTS
HOUSEKEEPERS can prove by a single trial that these Extracts are the cheapest; they are true to their names, full measure, and highly concentrated.

Bon-Ton Hair Curler.
SURPASSES ALL SIMILAR DEVICES IN neatness, beauty, and finish. The most practical curling Comb in use. Made of polished metal, plated with Perforated brass, the most artistic curls, bangs and tresses. Price 25c. For sale by JAMES D. NUTT, The Druggist, 230 North Front St.

A company has laid a main in Fulton street, New York, and will begin this week to supply the butchers of Washington market with cold air. The supply may be regulated by a cock. The air is made frigid by the ammonia system. The butchers will use the space formerly occupied by ice to put meat in. The company intends to supply restaurants and saloons, and possibly summer resorts in the city, just as soon as it gets its pipes laid.

Mrs. Kendal, by extraction, is a Jewess. The actress' mother was a Jewish and her mother's father was a Jewish Rabbi. Her mother's name was Elizabeth Merinus. The family came originally from Holland, where their ancestry had migrated from Spain and, like Rachel, Bernhardt, and other great stars, her Jewish blood has been no mean factor in making her so fine an artist. Some of the greatest actors have been either of Hebraic or Celtic origin, for some of the most finished actors and orators in the world have been Irishmen as well as Jews.

"The tree of deepest root is found, least willing still to leave the ground" and this could once have been most truly said of chronic pain of any sort. But after the lapse of so many ages, a sovereign remedy has been found in Salvation Oil; every provident householder should keep it.

A Happy Woman.
Happy is the woman without bodily ills, but happier is the woman who having them knows of the saving properties of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When relieved, as she surely will be upon a trial of it, she can contrast her condition with her former one of suffering and appreciate health as none can who have not for a time been deprived of it. The "Favorite Prescription" corrects unnatural discharges and cures all "weakness" and irregularities.

Their parlors were thronged during the evening, and until a late hour, by the many friends who called to tender their congratulations. A sumptuous repast was spread, to which all were invited. They were the recipient of a great many handsome, useful and valuable presents.
