Inherited Blood Poison. How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison. Bad blood passes from parent to child, and it is therefore the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.

James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes: "My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend."
J. R. Wilson, Glen Alpine Station, N. C., Feb. 12, 1889, writes: "Bone and blood poison forced me to have my leg amputated, and on the stump there came a large ulcer, which grew worse every day until doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before."

Who would have thought that 10 cents on every barrel of beer brewed in New York in one year would aggregate $446,000? There are, it seems, 4,460,000 barrels of beer sold by the New York brewers every year, or about three barrels for each man, woman and child living in the city.

Experiments are now being made in Italy upon this year's vintage in the electrification of wine. Fifty different sorts of wine have already been experimented upon, and the results have been very satisfactory. The wine is clarified, acquires a "bouquet," and is said to stand equally well transported by land or long journeys by sea.

"There is a slave, whom we have put in prison." "Aye and we'll keep him there, he was a tyrant once, but his reign is over, his sceptre lies in the dust. His name is Pain, and his conqueror is the far-famed and world-renowned Salvation Oil.

Children Enjoy

Death of a Good Woman.
Mrs. J. W. Bordeaux, who lived about three miles from Burgaw, Pender county, died at 7 o'clock on the evening of the 20th inst., aged about 60 years. She had been sick with consumption about a year, and was a most estimable lady. Her husband, five children and nineteen grand children survive her. She was a member of Herring's Chapel M. E. Church and had been a consistent professing Christian woman for more than a quarter of a century.

Personal.
We had the pleasure of a visit this afternoon from Mr. Joe E. Corl, advertising agent of "Andress' New Colossal Shows," which will put in an appearance here on the 29th inst. We found Mr. Corl a very pleasant gentleman, and from all the accounts we have heard thus far, he represents an excellent show, which, while it does not pretend to the gilt-edged gorgeousness of some of the more pretentious companies which visit us, has every real attraction of any organization that travels.

Storm at Burgaw.
Mr. J. T. Collins, of Burgaw, gave us the pleasure of a call to day and informed us that the heaviest storm of wind and rain he ever witnessed visited that town this morning. The gale lasted about an hour and in that time it destroyed much fencing, blew down several shanties occupied by colored people and drove in the windows of Mr. J. F. Moore's store, drowning out the interior of the building by the deluge of rain and causing serious damage to the stock of goods. The wind was almost a hurricane in magnitude and force.

A Lucky Couple.
In the case of John and Phillis Holt, who have been on trial before the Criminal Court, the defendants plead guilty of concealing the birth of a child, and were sentenced to imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for three years each. There were two indictments found against them; one charging them with murder (infanticide) and the other of the crime of which they were convicted. In the first charge Solicitor Moore consented to a nolle proes, and would consent to a plea of guilty on the second charge. Holt had just returned from the penitentiary, where he had served two year's imprisonment for perjury.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, rains and warmer weather. For Wilmington and vicinity, rains to-day, clearing to-morrow.

Duplin Dots.
The farmers through this section are about through gathering their crops. They turned out much better than was expected. The farmers that got supplies on time the past summer are paying up very promptly. I heard one of the merchants of our village say to-day he let out lots of guano on crop time last spring and he had not lost one dollar—every man had paid up.

Work on the warehouse at this place commenced on the 18th inst., under the supervision of Capt. John Hanby, who has a force of 12 experienced workmen. When it is finished it will be a handsome and commodious building. It will not be many years ere Wallace will be one of the most flourishing villages on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

The young people of the village, aided by some of the old folks, will give an entertainment and concert some time during the coming holidays. We will assure all those from a distance that will honor us with their presence on that occasion they will be highly pleased. There will be an oyster supper given after the entertainment is over. The net proceeds will be given to the Oxford Orphan Asylum to make some little orphan feel good on New Year's day.
