THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL XIII WILMINGTON, N. C. SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1889. NO 278.

PLEASE NOTICE
 We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects general interest, but The name of the writer must always be placed to the editor.
 Communications must be written on but one side of the paper.
 Personalities must be avoided.
 And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

There are rumors of an uprising in Cuba but it is found impossible to certify them.
 The Fayetteville Centennial has gone out in a blaze of glory. It was the most notable gathering ever held within the borders of the State.

The Old Dominion steamship Manhattan, plying between New York, West Point, Richmond and Norfolk was sunk in a collision at sea off the coast of Maryland, on Wednesday morning. She had 35 passengers on board. It is thought that 15 lives have been lost. She was valued at $150,000 and was uninsured.

The Princess of Wales wears a very small bustle, yet the whole of England is in an awful bustle about it; one would suppose they had run short of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, which is largely used in that country for asthma, sore throat, coughs, and colds.

 mingtonians at Fayetteville yesterday we are sorry to hear that a distinguished gentleman of this city was robbed of his watch there yesterday.

The W. L. I. returned here to day There is some little soreness felt over the fact that the first prize was awarded to the Raleigh company and not to the W. L. I. Never mind, boys; you were lucky to get anything. You must remember that Raleigh gets all of the prizes now.

Revs. Messrs. Creasy, Ricard and Beaman, close their labors for the present ecclesiastical year to-morrow and will leave for Conference early next week. They have all done a faithful year's work and each of their respective charges would rejoice if they were returned for another year.

It is with great regret that we learn of the death of Hon. W. T.
 Dortch, of Goldsboro, one of the foremost men of the State for a generation past. He had been sick for a long time and his death was not unexpected. He has held a number of offices of trust under the State and was a member of the Confederate Congress.

The Show Next Week.
 We all recollect the Bell Ellis Combination which was here last Winter. They gave us a good show and will be welcomed here again.
 They play all of next week at the Opera House and they have many new and interesting features to present this season. They will give a number of valuable presents every night.

Fair and Festival.
 The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will give a Festival and Bazaar in the City Hall on next Pellets. Gentle and effective; one a dose.

 SANTA CLAUS IS HERE WITH A FULL LINE OF EVERYTHING. COME AND BUY YOUR
TOYS
 BEFORE THE RUSH.

If you wait until just before Christmas to buy your Toys you will hardly have time to show us anything. We can sell them to you cheaper now than we can near Xmas.
 Our reason for this is: if we sell out now, we will have time to order again before Xmas, but if you wait until nearly Xmas we will not have time to order again and will be compelled to have our full price.

Notice!
 We have just bought out a Milliner that was going out of business, and we only paid 50 per cent, which enables us to sell at less than one-half what the

Birds, Hats and Tips
 WOULD COST YOU ELSEWHERE.
 Come soon, now is your chance. They are going fast.
