M. B. Holmes, of Landerdale coun ty, Miss., made thirty five bales of cotton this year on twenty five acres of thin pineland on which he had put twelve tons of fertilizer, costing $420. The total cost of making the crop, including fertilizers, was $608 leaving a net profit of $820.48. The cost of picking was $215, but allow ing $100 for the cotton seed, there is still left a net profit of $705.48. Fifteen bales would have been a very good field without any fertili-

The Ladies' Hermitage Association, of Nashville, Tenn., having procured a charter from the Legis lature, granting to it the dwelling and tomb of Andrew Jackson, together with a tract of twenty-five acres which surround it, proposes to repair the house, which is in an extreme state of dilapidation, and to lay out the grounds in the form of a memorial park. With this ob ject in view the association has issued a public appeal for funds, which is endorsed by the Andrew Jackson League.

President Charlotte Smith, of the Woman's National Industrial League has addressed a memorial to Congress, in view of the World's Fair of 1892, asking for an appropriation to erect a monument at Washington to Queen Isabella of Spain, who was the friend and patron of Columbus. The petition suggests that the monument in question should be the work of a Spanish or American woman sculptor, and states that it is destined to commemorate the services rendered by a representative woman in connection with the discovery of American.

The Richmond Times, after mentioning the Democratic legislative caucus says: "The Republicans also Postage Free to all subscribers in the United held a caucas. Senator McDonald, a staunch Republican, said that he had almost broken himself down walking around to find some Republican members, but that they finally succeeded in getting a quo ram, and came to the conclusion, after mature deliberation, hat they would make no nominations for any offices, when the caucus in good humor adjourned sine die." This is at least a graceful acceptance of the decrees of the Democratic people of Virginia. Philosophic Mc is
