Inherited Blood Poison.
 How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison.
 Bad blood passes from parent to child, and it is therefore the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.
 James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
 Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes:
 "My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend!" J. E. Wilson, Jien Alpine Station, N. C., Feb. 13, 1885, writes: "Bone and blood poison forced me to have my leg amputated, and on the stump there came a large ulcer, which grew worse every day until doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before."

Messrs. Williams, Rankin & Co., and the New York and Wilmington Steamship Co. made the first shipment on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. from this city. The steamer Compton got up steam this forenoon and took on the freight and carried it over to the depot at Point Peter. It is all of merchandise and is for Mr. W. J.
 Parker, who will open a store at Parkersburg, about 37 miles above the city, and the present terminus of the road. The first train will pull out to-morrow morning and return in the afternoon. It is not yet announced when the regular schedule will be run.

From the Southwest.

Col. John L. Cantwell and Mrs.
 Cantwell returned on Saturday night from a visit to the Southwest, Col. Cantwell went to New Orleans as the representative of the Wilmington Light Infantry, of which Mr. Davis was a member, to attend the funeral of our deceased chieftain. He speaks in the highest terms of the reception accorded him and the courtesies of which he was the recipient while there. Full honors were accorded to the name of North Carolina wherever it was mentioned.
 Mrs. Cantwell took advantage of the opportunity to pay a short visit to friends and relatives in Mississippi, at her childhood's home.

The City's Bonded Debt.

We have received from Mr. R. J.
 Jones, chairman of the Board of Audit and Finance, an interesting statement relative to the bonded debt of this city. The total amount of old bonds is stated at $400,000, of which $100,000 will mature in 1892; $49,800 in 1897; $50,000 in 1899; $50,- 000 in 1901; $50,000 in 1904; $50,000 in 1910, and $30,000 in 1913. The first named are designated as the gold bonds and bear 8 per cent. interest; the last named are the market bonds and the others the funding bonds.
 All but the gold bonds bear 6 per cent. interest. The new bonded debt amounts to $400,000, bearing 5 and 6 per cent. to mature 1912, 1918, and 1919. Mr. Jones suggests that the old indebtedness of $480,000 ought to be consolidated into new bonds to bear a rate of interest not to exceed 5 per cent. which would insure a saving of $6,000 a year in interest.

An Eloquent Sermon.

Rev. Robert Strange preached a memorial discourse yesterday in honor of the memory of Ex-President Davis. It was a very eloquent discourse. A correspondent writes us of it:
 "It was a memorial service to the memory of the dead President of the Confederate States and was as truthful as eloquent. It was pure, chaste, refined and classical, and did honor to the head and heart of the reverend gentleman who is so highly esteemed by all classes of our people. In portraying the characteristics of Mr. Davis, he dwelt particularly upon his integrity, his love for truth and his faith in the Redeemer, and argued that it mattered not how exalted the station, there could be no true honor save in virtue, and it was the possession of those qualities which gave Mr. Davis such a hold upon the people of the South, as was shown in the honors paid to him while living, and the grief with which they mourned him dead.
 They know him to be honest, faithful and true and though elevated by his people to the highest office in their gift he yet clad himself in the humble garb of the true Christian and died, as he had lived in that blessed faith which he had embraced in his early manhood.
 Such a character was worthy of imitation by all, but particularly by the young, for "the rank is but the guinea's stamp, the man's the man for a' that," and character makes the man. I do not pretend to give a synopsis of the discourse but simply to express my pleasure and to add that it was one of the occasions when I felt that it was "good to be there."

Our Public Building.

The Congressional Record reports that Senator Ransom has introduced a bill to increase the appropriation for the public building in this city, which was read twice by its title and referred to the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds.
 The amount asked for, and which it is expected to obtain, is $150,000.
 The present structure is too small and the necessity for its enlargement is absolute. It can only be extended, however, by adding another story.

We feel sure that Senator Ransom will succeed in getting the amount asked for. He has done much for this section in the past and he will relax no effort to secure for us this much needed appropriation. It is not out of place here to mention the fact that he has always been deeply interested in the success and prosperity of the Cape Fear section.
 He expressed himself to us very heartily to this effect on a recent interview we had with him during the progress of the Fayetteville Centennial and remarked, further, that he held himself always in the future, as in the past, at the service of the people of Wilmington whenever he could do anything whatever to advance their interests. That this was not idle talk is evidenced by the fact that the Cape Fear item in the River and Harbor bill has always emerged from the Senate for a much larger amount than it called for when it went there. Sometimes, indeed, it has been doubled. Senator Ransom has always been a member of the Senate Committee on Commerce, to which the River and Harbor bill is invariably referred, and when the Senate was Democratic he was chairman of that committee.

When old Judge Jowler was tucked in his little bed by Mrs. Mouser he couldn't sleep a wink until the excellent woman had bought a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. Then he crossed his little hands and sunk in sweet repose.

Confirmed.

The favorable impression produced on the first appearance of the agreeable liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs a few years ago has been more than confirmed by the pleasant experience of all who have used it, and the success of the proprietors and manufacturers, the California Fig Syrup Company.

This Morning's Fire.

The alarm of fire this morning, at 1.25 o'clock, turned in from box 25, was caused by the burning of a one-story frame store on the corner of Nixon and Sixth streets, owned and occupied by N. Sanders, colored.
 The store and stock of goods were completely consumed. There was insurance on the building to the amount of $150, with Messrs. Smith & Boatwright, and on the stock for $550, with Messrs. Northrop, Hodges & Taylor.

Cash vs. Credit.

My unparalleled success since I have inaugurated my cash system and my increase in patronage proves beyond doubt that the public appreciate low cash prices and that a party who sells for cash can undersell his competitors who credit. I shall offer extra inducements from now until after the holidays to all purchasers of Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps.

City Court.

Mayor Fowler disposed of the following cases to-day:

Edward Green, charged with disorderly conduct, was found guilty and fined $5 and costs.

Louisa Waddell, disorderly, $10 and costs.

William Trimble, charged with running a gambling house, was bound over to the next term of the Criminal Court in a justified bond of $100.

William Knox was found guilty of betting at a gambling game but was discharged with an admonition to go and sin no more.

Ed. Broadhurst was found guilty of disorderly conduct and fined $20
 and costs.

Richard Furgerson, charged with larceny, was found not guilty and discharged.

Charles Morris, a colored boy, was found guilty of larceny, but judgment was suspended on the promise of his parents to give a sound thrashing.
