Inherited Blood Poison.
How many people there are whose distress from sores, aches, pains and eruptive tendencies are due to inherited blood poison.
Bad blood passes from parent to child, and it is therefore the duty of husband and wife to keep their blood pure. This is easily accomplished by a timely use of B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm). Send to Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, for book of most convincing proof.
James Hill, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "My two sons were afflicted with blood poison, which doctors said was hereditary. They both broke out in sores and eruptions which B. B. B. promptly controlled and finally cured completely."
Mrs. S. M. Williams, Sandy, Texas, writes:
"My three poor afflicted children, who inherited blood poison, have improved rapidly after a use of B. B. B. It is a Godsend." J. R. Wilson, Glen Alpine Station, N. C., Feb. 13, 1888, writes: "Bone and blood poison forced me to have my leg amputated, and on the stump there came a large ulcer, which grew worse every day until doctors gave me up to die. I only weighed 120 pounds when I began to take B. B. B., and 12 bottles increased my weight to 180 pounds and made me sound and well. I never knew what good health was before."

THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XIV. WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1889. NO. 7.

Ex-Minister Phelps will locate in New Haven, Conn., soon after Christmas.

It is announced that Emin Pasha will recover from the recent severe accident he sustained.

Amelia Bloomer rises to remark that she didn't invent the "Bloomer" costume, and hasn't worn it for thirty years.

Jules Millet, a nephew of the great painter of "The Angelus," is a maker of brierwood pipes in New York, it is said.

There are a dozen cases of influenza in Boston now and there are fears that it may become epidemic and spread over the entire city.

Mr. Davis' first wife was Miss Sarah, daughter of General Zachary Taylor. In less than a year the young wife died, leaving no child.

There are only a few cases of the influenza in New York. Two patients got well in two days and went back to work at the end of that time.

The newspapers now are full of crimes committed in this country.
Not more than one in ten is reported as South of Mason and Dixon's line.

Some of the Canadian newspapers insist that it is doubtful whether there is any law in Canada for the punishment of the practice of polygamy.

Tennyson's new volume of poems is dedicated to James Russell Lowell.
All the dailies declare that many of the poems are equal to any of Tennyson's former efforts.

The Brazilian "rebels" and "traitors" have resolved themselves into vandals. They broke into the royal palace the other day and disfigured the pictures of the royal family.

Eva Hamilton, wife of Robert Ray Hamilton, divides her time in the New Jersey State prison between sewing buttons on shirts, reading the Bible and scheming for a new trial.

Wilson Barrett has just finished the first act of the new play with which he will open his new theatre in London next September. It is founded on the story of "The Bond-man," an English novel.

Senator Quay wants a pension of $72 per month for such old soldiers as are permanently disabled.
There are lots of people in this world who would consent to permanent disability for less money than that.

The Albany (N. Y.) Argus, which has had the State printing for the last 75 years, has at last been dumped. It has been given to the Times this year. It is worth now about $10,000 or $13,000. Both papers are Democratic.

Gustave Dore, the celebrated painter, was a man of medium size, but with the head of a poet and the frame of an athlete. Although he was very rich, he was one of the worst dressed men in Paris. He was so devoted to his art that, even in company, when not napping and fiddling, he was making sketches.

Mrs. Fairfax, of Washington, who draped her house in mourning for the late Jefferson Davis, received a notice, decorated with the regulation skull and cross bones, that if she did not remove the emblems of grief at once her home and all in it "would be blown to perdition with dynamite." She didn't scare worth a cent.

For all derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels take Dr.
Pierce's Pellets, or Anti-bilious Granules.

Cash vs. Credit.
My unparalleled success since I have inaugurated my cash system and my increase in patronage proves beyond doubt that the public appreciate low cash prices and that a party who sells for cash can undersell his competitors who credit. I shall offer extra inducements from now until after the holidays to all purchasers of Clothing, Furnishing Goods, Hats and Caps.

Such weather as this in December is really distressing.

It is scarcely broad day now at 7 o'clock in the morning.

Laundry Ironing Stoves are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

We now have the best Pocket Scissor made. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

Mr. A. Weill, who has been quite sick for a few days past, is again at his office.

Shot, Cartridges, Loaded Shells and ammunition of all kinds for sale
by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

Quite a large number of visitors from Southport are in the city today, making Christmas purchases.

There isn't much Christmas feeling in the atmosphere yet. Money is scarce and the weather is depressing.

Heating Stoves of all kinds and sizes. We will give you substantial goods and low prices. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

You can get all sizes in good and heavy Canton Flannel Drawers at 50 cents, at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 122 Market street. ††

Mr. John H. Clark, of Clarkton, one of the most prominent and esteemed citizens of Bladen county, is here to-day on a short visit.

Mr. E. V. Richards, of this city, has been awarded the contract for making the stained glass windows for Fifth Street M. E. Church. It is in good hands.

Don't forget the meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, called to meet at the City Hall to-night by the President, Mr. A. S. Heide.

Hon. C. W. McClammy arrived here last night from Washington City and spent a few hours here this morning. We acknowledge the courtesy of a visit from him.

Capt. J. W. Fry, General Superintendent of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., is expected here on the first of January and it is probable that the road will then be opened to its terminus.

The incandescent lights were turned on last night in many of the buildings where the burners had been put in. The effect was very pretty but it did not strike us as being particularly brilliant.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society to the Young Men's Christian Association is arranging an elaborate programme for the New Year's reception which they propose to hold at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

Cutlery. Our stock of Standard Cutlery is very complete. We keep everything in this line that you can possibly desire, and our prices are the lowest. Drop in and look at our assortment. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. †

The Wilmington Fox Club were out yesterday and they had a fine run. Reynard was started not far from Capt. Nobles' place and finally captured beyond Col. Moore's brick yard. Capt. Phil Thomas got the brush.

It is just one month since we have had rain here. If we are not mistaken the last we had was on November 21st, while the Fayetteville Centennial was in progress. Not a drop in December and the month is two-thirds gone.

On account of the preparations for the holiday season the lecture of Dr. Wood at the Young Men's Christian Association Rooms, which has been announced for to-night, will be postponed to a date in January, to be announced later.

The Fayetteville Farmer says that Capt. John M. Walker has been appointed Yard Master at this place for the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. We had understood that Capt. Walker is to be a passenger conductor on the road. For some time past he has been running in this capacity on the Wilson & Fayetteville road.

The prettiest sight in the world is a pretty woman's foot in a Jersey Lily boot, and since Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures all sorts of colds all women can wear them.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Rountree, of Kinston, are here on a visit for the holidays, the guests of Mrs. Roun-tree's father, Hon. George Davis.

After diphtheria, scarlet fever, or phlegmonia, Hood's Sarsaparilla will give strength to the system, and expel all poison from the blood.

May Brothers, nurserymen, of Rochester, New York, are in need of three good men to sell for them, on salary or commission. See ad. in this issue.

There will be preaching at the Seaman's Bethel on Sunday evening at 4 o'clock. The public generally and seamen in particular are invited to attend.

Mayor Fowler left here yesterday afternoon for Charlotte. We wonder what is the especial attraction in that locality for our handsome young Mayor.

The President yesterday sent in to the Senate the nomination of Capt. E. J. Pennypacker, Collector of Customs at this port, who was appointed during the recess.

Mr. John Munson, formerly of this city has been appointed General Passenger Agent of the Knoxville, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad, with headquarters at Knoxville, Tenn.

Capt. J. T. Harper will give an excursion to-morrow to the Black-fish Grounds, on the steam tug *Alex.
Jones*, complimentary to the employes of Messrs. Boney & Harper's mills in this city.

Don't forget the entertainment, "A Puritan Evening," to be given by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church this evening, at the City Hall. It will be something unique and pleasing.

Salvation Oil is an infallible cure for headache, backache; pain in the side and limbs, and all rheumatic and neuralgic affections. It relieves pain and restores the system. Price twenty five cents a bottle.

— They'll Get There.

Tracklaying on the C. F. & Y. V.
R. R., towards Fayetteville, is being pushed forward as rapidly as possible. Contractor Wright was here yesterday. He says that he will get to Fayetteville in six weeks, and making some allowances we will say that the road will be completed by the first of February. Mr. Wright says that the only interruptions will be a suspension of one day for Christmas; of course no work will be done on Sundays. Recently three miles and several hundred yards of track were laid in three days, which shows how rapidly the work is being pushed forward.

In Congress.

On Wednesday last, on the call of States, Hon. C. W. McClammy, Representative in Congress from our neighboring district, the Third, introduced the following bills:

A bill appropriating $75,000 for the erection of a public building at Fayetteville.

A bill to refund and pay for captured and abandoned property.

A bill for the construction of a macadamized road from Wilmington to the National Cemetery, appropriating $15,000 for that purpose.

A bill to provide an inland waterway from New York to Florida, asking for an appropriation of $1,- 000,000 for this purpose.

Yesterday Afternoon's Accident.

Coroner Jacobs held an inquest last evening over the remains of the little son of Mr. W. S. Walker, who was run over and killed by a street car yesterday afternoon at the corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets, a report of which we published in our last issue. The jury was composed of S. H. Terry, foreman, W. F. Hewitt, Samuel Bennett, Andrew Halsey, George Pea-nan, S. G. Skipper.

The evidence went to prove that it was a pure accident and that the driver of the car, Mr. Rowan, did all he could to prevent it. The verdict was to the effect that the death was accidental. Mr. Rowan, who as reported by us, was very much prostrated, has not yet been able to return to duty.
