has been of late.

A Christmas tree was given at the Brooklyn Baptist Church last night to the children of the Sunday school.
It was under the management of Mr. J. W. Taylor, the superintendent of the school, and many hearts were made glad at what they saw and received.

The Robert Portner Brewing Co. are now manufacturing a new brand of beer, called "Culmbacher," and some old beer drinkers pronounce it even better than the excellent Tivoli and Cabinet brands. It is made from imported hops and costs more to the manufacturer.

The girls will have their fireworks as well as the boys. They are to give a ball powder (now what does that mean but a powder ball?) at the Orton House on next Tuesday night, New Year's Eve. Mesdames Charles M. Stedman, Jno. W. Atkinson, James Sprunt and Pembroke Jones will chaperone the party.

Mr. Preston L. Bridgers gave a "rooster party" last night, to a number of his friends, at Mr. Pembroke Jones' place on Wrightsville. There were present some forty or fifty gentlemen. There was a fine spread and a genuine good time. A spec-brought the party back to the city about 1 o'clock this morning.

Christmas season here.

ed Wilmington but if this warm, dry, unseasonable weather continues there is no knowing what may happen.

olent Society was held this after-liver the address, and further arrangements will be announced hereafter.

Gladdening Their Young Hearts.
The hearts of the children of the McTyeire Mission School, in the Southern part of the city, were made glad and happy at a Christmas Tree festival given them in the City Hall last night. It was under the management of Mr. Jas. F. Post Jr., the Superintendent of the school, assisted by the King's Daughters of Grace M. E. Church.
The school consists of about 75 children and nearly all of these were present.

these installation exercises.

At the close of the exercises a collation will be served and at this only members and their ladies and invited guests will be present. In this connection we are requested to state that members of the fraternity who want extra tickets can procure them from the committee.

If you don't want to disgust every body with your offensive breath-cure your Catarrh upon which it depends, $500 reward is offered by the proprietors of Dr. Sage's Cat-soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, fair weather on Friday and Saturday and lower temperature.

Gratifying to All.
The high position attained and approval of the pleasant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

Put Them Out of Sight.
Mr. E. T. Coghill, superintendent of the Telephone Exchange here, has sent in a communication to the Board of Aldermen, for consideration at the regular meeting on the first Monday in January, calling attention to the rather indiscriminate way in which the telephone and electric light wires are getting mixed up here. We append an amendment and suggest that the Board take the bull by the horns, promptly and at once, and require all wires put under the ground. The necessity for this is already becoming apparent and in a few years' time, at recent rates of progression, it will be found absolutely necessary to do this.

Death of Rev. Joseph Wheeler.
His friends here have received a telegram announcing the death of this divine at King's Mountain, N.
C. He was a good man and had been a faithful and acceptable iterant Methodist preacher for at least 40 years past but was on account of his declining health placed upon the superannuated list by the last session of the North Carolina Annual Conference. In the earlier years of his ministry he served the Fifth Street Methodist Church in this city on two different occasions and for the past two years served the church at Fayetteville. His first wife was a native of this city and was a sister of Mrs. W. H. Shaw of this place, and Thos. H. Sutton, Esq., of Fayetteville.

Until the Resurrection Morn.
All that was mortal of the venerated Mrs. C. G. Kennedy was laid away to rest yesterday in Oakdale Cemetery. The funeral services took place at Grace M. E. Church and the spacious edifice was thronged to its utmost capacity. The church was appropriately and becomingly decorated in mourning.
The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Creasy and Rev. Mr.
Swindell, of the Methodist E. Church, and at the grave prayer was offered by Rev. Robert Strange, of St.
James' Episcopal Church. Mr.
Creasy presented a floral tribute from the Sunday school of Grace Church, and Mr. Swindell a similar offering from the Ladies' Missionary Society of that Church. The Ladies' Benevolent Society, of which Mrs.
Kennedy was President, attended the funeral in a body. The pallbearers were Col. Roger Moore, Mr. W. M. Poisson, Capt. A. L. De-Rosset, Dr. W. G. Thomas, Hon.
George Davis, Mr. James F. Post Jr., Capt. Chas. D. Myers and Col.
W. L. DeRosset.
