Charleston News and Courier: There is no doubt that the race problem will cause a wild debate in Congress, and while probably little will be accomplished at this session oward its practical and satisfactory solution, it is as certain as anything can be that the present agitation will finally result in the emigation of the negroes from the United States. It will be the highest triumph of American statesmanship gende Blaetter. and American honor if, at the end of another forty years, the United States Government shall have restored to the land of their fathers

It and to whom plenty of money will be supplied, perfectly honorable and indicative of "simply a patriotic interest in elections." This is nearer a confession than anything we have had from a source so near the President. Had District Attorney Chambers permitted Colonel Dudley to be arrested and tried the information which he says is possessed by all Indiana politicians might be shared by the public at large. But Dudley elected Harrison, and Harrison appointed Chambers and Chambers protects Dudley from prosecution. The Chambers interview incites the Indianapolis News to remark: "What does Mr. Chambers know?

Who are his associates? Certainly this standard of public morals make his incumbency of public office a shame and disgrace. President Harrison oves it no less to himself than to the public service and to this community to promptly relieve Mr. Chambers. The knobs of Crawford country might approve as "honorable" and as "indicating a patriotic interest in elections" ad-vice to "divide floaters into blocks of five" and to put a "trusted man" with the "necessary funds" in charge of each block, and "make him responsible" that "none gets away," but civilized society doesn't.
