VERY POOR POLITICS.

The Southern States have had,

Northern capital is flowing into the Southern States by millions; my's wholesale and retaildrug store. Vance, Oct. 14; Wilson, Oct. 28; Northern skilled labor of the highest grades is drawn to and welcomed in the South to help in the de velopment of Southern resources. It is not extravagant, but the simplest truth, to say that the South is just now the most prosperous of the most rapidly and richly developing part ner.-Life. of the Union.

We think it very poor politics, therefore, in Senators Gibson, Mor gan and Butler, representing Louisana, Alabama and South Carolina, to bring forward at the very begineiug of a long session of Congress people from the Southern States. What they propose is plainly im-

The Gibson-Morgan-Butler bills Munds Bros., druggists. are therefore a mere shot in the air, so far as practical results can come from them. But they are fatally well calculated to inflict serious injury on real Southern interests. They offer an occasion for Northern haters of the South. like Senators Chandler, Hoar and Sherman, and for the whole tribe of Republican demagogues, to get up a prolonged and bitter and exciting sectional debate. This is in fact what the new year is to see in the Senate. Repubcan extremists have welcomed with unconcealed joy these Southern bills, because they need the opportunity which Messrs. Gibson, Morgan and Butler have given them to 'fire the Northern heart." Every sensible Northern man feels that the race problem in the South is a difficult one; which requires time and patience for its settlemen+. But why, then, do Southern men-Southern Senators-do that which is sure to make it much more difficult? Why is it that in this case, as in too many others, Southern public men are found playing into the hands of Northern extremists and sectionalists, to the great injury of their own section and of the whole country? Why not let well enough alone? When the South is prosperous, and in the midst of a wonderful development, how is it that Southern men rush forward with silly and impracticable propositions, the only use of which is to give occasion for a new and mischievons sectional agitation?
