There were 56 deaths in Boston on Sunday last, the largest record for any one day in 17 years.

A decision has been rendered in the Superior Court of California declaring the sugar trust strictly unlawful.

The death rate in Chicago has increased between 30 and 40 per cent in the last two weeks, all due to the influenza.

The Dowager Empress Augusta, of Germany, died yesterday, from the effects of the Russian gripe, with pneumonia superadded.

The Central Pacific R. R. has decreased a semi-annual dividend of one per cent, on the common stock. How much it pays on the uncommon stock we are not told.

And this is the anniversary of the Battle of New Orleans, famous for hickory and cotton bales. The hickory has played out but the cotton bales still cut a very important figure in the levees at New Orleans.

And now it is said that the Republicans in Iowa are planning to steal the lower house in the legislature from the Democrats. Is there anything in heaven or on earth or in the sea that they will not steal if they can get their hands on it, provided they can carry it off?

There are hopes that the Russian Gripe has lost its hold in New York. This is based on the fact that there were 146 deaths there on Monday, against 207 on Sunday. The physicians think that the declining point has been reached. Still, there are 40,000 cases now under treatment in the city.

No preparation could have made such a reputation as Salvation Oil has (in so short a time) without intrinsic merit of the highest order.
 It kills pain. Price 25 cents a bottle.

This is pretty warm weather for March.

We now have the best Pocket Scissor made. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. + Shot, Cartridges, Loaded Shells and ammunition of all kinds for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. +

At 11 a. m. to-day the thermometer registered 76 degrees in the open air, which is precisely Summer heat.

You will find a nice assortment of Rifles at the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.
 Just the article to make your boy happy.

Mr. J. W. S. Robinson, of the Black River section of Sampson county, was in the city to-day for a few hours.

A few weeks more of such weather and we will have strawberries on the market, cheek by jole with cranberry sauce.

Last night was as pretty as they generally make 'em. There was a full moon, a clear sky and a balmy breeze from the Southwest.

You can get all sizes in good and heavy Canton Flannel Drawers at 50 cents at the Wilmington Shirt Factory, No. 122 Market street. +

Mr. B. F. Keith, Jr., who has had a very severe attack of influenza, has recovered and we are glad to see him at work again.

We are very sorry to hear that Mr. Lord is in an extremely critical condition to-day, and it is feared that the end is not far off.

A few benighted New River oysters, that ought to have been in market in January, when the weather is generally supposed to be cold, were sold here to-day as low as 50 cents a gallon.

Cutlery. Our stock of Standard Cutlery is very complete. We keep The skies above us to-day were as blue as Summer skies ever are.

The grand jury at the Criminal Court were discharged to-day for the term.

Beautiful weather this. But oh, for something a little more seasonable and not quite so beautiful.

Everybody wants to take a ride these beautiful afternoons and the livery stables are taxed to meet the demand.

A large number took advantage of the fine weather and the low fare to take a trip over the Seacoast R. R. to-day.

It used to be said that "virtue alone outbuilds the Pyramids" but if it goes on conquering and to conquer, Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will out cure and out live them all. = ed to-day for Kingston, with 91,923 feet lumber and 250,000 shingles, valued at $3,033,29, shipped by Mr.

 E. Kidder's Son.

At the regular monthly meeting of Wilmington S. F. E. Co. No. 1, held last night, Mr. James D. Smith was elected Second Assistant Foreman of the Company, to serve until the annual election of officers in March next.

A Real Attraction.

The children's concert, at Luther Memorial Building, next Friday night, promises to be an affair of usual attractiveness to music-loving people and especially to those who take an interest in the musical development of the young people.
 Rev. F. W. E. Peschau, who is a thorough musician and has a remarkable tact for cultivating the musical powers of the young, is training the singers for their work, and will make the concert a complete success, so far as the music is concerned. The programme is somewhat varied from that of New Year's, and it is nearly interesting to listen to the almost perfect time, tune and sweetness with which the songs and choruses are sung. From what we know of the programme and the manner in which the several pieces, both sentimental and comic, are sung the entertainment will be a highly enjoyable affair.

Some More About the Fire.

The fire is all out now at the Clarendon mills and this morning Capt.
 W. E. Mayo, the machinist, had nearly all of the large force of mill hands at work, clearing away the debris. As stated by us yesterday the mills are to be rebuilt at once.
 The sawing and planing machinery is all ruined and will have to be replaced. There were three planers and every one of them is worthless.
 New ones, of improved design, have been ordered by telegraph from New York and will be at once shipped.
 It is expected that the mills will be running again, on full time, in two weeks from to-day.

The engine and boiler, which were in a brick building adjoining the mill, and with a brick wall between, are wholly uninjured. Ten thousand feet will cover the amount of lumber destroyed, although there was a great deal on the yard at the time.

It is certain that the fire was well worked. The firemen did their full measure of duty. Capt. Edgar Williams, with the steam tug Marie, did a great deal of valuable and effective work in saving the slide and the lumber on the wharf. He worked from the river, which the firemen could not reach.

It is undeniable, though, that a probably much greater disaster was averted by the fact that the wind was from the Southwest. Had it come out of the North we think it would have been extremely difficult, if not impossible, to save the compress near the mill as it is very vulnerable to fire on its Northern front.

Wanted to be Heard From.

If any person has ever given Dr.
 Sage's Catarrh Remedy a fair trial, and has not been perfectly and permanently cured, that person should write the proprietors of that wonderful remedy, for they are in dead earnest and "mean business" when they offer $500 reward for a case of nasal catarrh, no matter how bad, or of how long standing, which they cannot cure. The remedy is sold by druggists, at only 50 cents. It is mild, soothing, deodorizing, antiseptic, cleansing and healing.

A Sad and Sorrowful Story.

Information has been received here to the effect that Rev. Carson L. Powell, an independent missionary to Africa, from this State, had while insane killed his little daughter. Mr. Powell is a native of Columbus county and was at one time pastor of the Baptist Church at Fair Bluff. The particulars are meagre.
 From the Raleigh Call we learn the following relative to Mr. Powell:

In 1868 or '69 he was a student at Wake Forest College, in this county, and was a class-mate of Rev. C.
 Furham. While there, certain things indicated an unsoundness of mind, and the faculty advised him to leave the institution, which he did. About a year later he came to Raleigh to attend a session of the Baptist State Convention. He was strongly imbued with a notion that he should go to Africa as a missionary, and made application to the various Baptist Boards of the Southern Convention to be sent to that country to do missionary work. These applications were invariably refused by all the Boards on account of the condition of Powell's mind. While attending the Convention here, he did something which positively confirmed its unsoundness. When the Convention was in session, he went to a dry goods store and bought some colored calico, some ribbons and a lot of brass pins. He then went back to the church, went into the basement and stripped himself of his clothing. Then he wrapped the calico and ribbons about him, fastening them to his body by sticking the pins deep into his flesh. In this condition he walked into the main audience room when the Convention was in session and transacting business. Friends quickly took him in charge and carried him away and clothed him properly. Though the Board would not appoint him a missionary to a foreign country, they gave him some State missionary work to do. While carrying on this work, he traveled in the State generally and met Miss Hoge, of Cleveland county. He addressed her and they became engaged. He ordered a wedding suit from Wanamaker's, of Philadelphia, with instructions to send it to Shelby, in this State. He went to Shelby on the day preceding the one set for the marriage and found the suit awaiting him. He took it, tried it on and found the coat too small.
 He regarded this as "an indication from the Lord" that he should not marry and positively refused to fulfill the engagement. Miss Hoge became insane over the action, and afterwards died in the insane asylum of this city.

Powell continued his work in this State and about 1875 met Miss Hadley, of Williamston, whom he soon afterwards married. Soon after this the idea that he must go to Africa as a missionary took possession of Powell with redoubled force. He tried again to get an appointment from the Baptist Mission Boards, but failed. This failure, however, did not check his ardor. He continued work here, with the Africa notion still prevalent, till about three years ago when he left for Algiers, in Africa, as an independent missionary. His church at Fair Bluff, in this State, organized a society for his support in that work and with the funds it raised and some help received from outside sources, they have paid the missionary's expenses. Powell was here about a year ago and delivered lectures in the Baptist Churches of the city. When he returned to Africa, two splendid young men of New York, Doctors Leach and Maynard, accompanied him.

Mrs. Powell is bowed down with grief. She cannot see her husband unless he is strongly guarded, and her life in Africa is now miserable and wretched. She will return to North Carolina and will be accompanied by Dr. Maynard who will lecture in this country for a few months. Mrs. Powell has four little children to bring with her, ranging in age from twelve to five years.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair weather, followed by local showers. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

Catarrh originates in septiculous taint. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies the blood, and thus permanently cures catarrh.
