John Wanamaker remarks that he doesn't talk politics on Sunday.
 No, he gives Sunday to the Sunday School but the balance of the week is the devil's.

It is a great pity that the old war-horse, Samuel J. Randall, is on his back in bed and unable to take a part in the contest against tyranny now being waged in the House. His advice is good, however, and should be followed.

The pious Shepard, of the New York Mail and Express, remarks unctuously that "the patriotic citizens of a republic are Republicans." Just now the patriotic citizens of whom Bro. Shepard speaks are anarchists.

"The United States of America welcome Brazil to the brotherhood of American republics," remarks the Mail and Express. There is an error here, mister. Your political grammar is bad. You have made a plural out of the United States. This is Democratic doctrine. The Republican belief is that there are no States, but a sort of pluribus unum packed together in ice and frozen into one conglomeration. We will forgive the oversight this time but you must do it again.

"The Democrats in the House, led by Mr. Carlisle, made a desperate effort yesterday to carry out their policy of obstructionism and resistance to the speaker and the new rules," says the Mail and Express.
 Indeed, but they are new rules, never heard of before in the history of any parliamentary body; rules carried around under one man's bald pate and produced only as party emergency requires. But why will the M. C. E. slip up so often and so persistently? There is no resistance to the new rules because there are no new rules to resist. There is a ruler, though, and his name is Reed, botanically classed as phragmites communis, which means that he is a very common reed and one easily broken. He will be ground to powder in due course, for a whirlwind of public sentiment will lay low his bald head.

This is to express my sincere thanks for the benefit I have experienced from the use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. I had a severe and aggravating cough so that I could scarcely talk—after using one small bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, it not only cured my cough but strengthened my sore chest. I take great pleasure in testifying to the efficacy of the Syrup and heartily recommend it.

 W. E. Peschau is recovering from her severe attack of la grippe and are also glad that little Cora is up again, but sorry that Miss Maggie is now confined to the bed with the dreaded disease. This will satisfy her friends that la grippe is no respector of persons or this young lady, who has been sick so long, would certainly have been exempt from it.

Doomed to die, and oh, so young.
 Is there nothing that can save This poor, hopeless sufferer From the dark and cruel grave?
 Comes an answer: "Yes, there is:

 It has saved the lives of thousands Who were given up to die."
 For all "female" diseases," Dr.
 Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the standard remedy, and no woman should despair of recovery until she has given it a trial.

NORTH CAROLINA

Car Service Association,
 RALEIGH, N. C., January 15th, 1890.

To all Consignors and Consignees of Freight:

A serious loss and much inconvenience have been caused, both to shippers and railroad companies, by the unnecessary detention of cars in loading and unloading freights.
 Shippers are often unable to procure cars, tracks are encumbered, and the speedy movement of freight is impossible under the practices that have prevailed. The railroad companies feel obliged, therefore, to endeavor to correct this evil, and have issued the notice printed below.

The system thus established has been in force at a number of important points during the past year, with advantageous results in every instance. The amount charged is not sufficient to recompense the companies for the use of their cars, tracks, etc., for warehouse purposes, and is not collected for the purpose of revenue, but for the prevention of abuses which affect both the public and the transportation lines.

The rules will be enforced without discrimination by the North Carolina Car Service Association, which will act for all interests alike.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that on and after March 1st, 1890, cars remaining unloaded forty-eight (48) hours, after being placed for delivery, shall be subject to a charge of one dollar ($1.00) per day, or fraction thereof, for detention of cars and use of tracks.

If cars be consigned to private sidings, and such sidings be already full, or if consigned to general delivery tracks, and the prompt placing of cars be prevented by the presence of cars belonging to the same consignee held under load for more than forty-eight (48) hours, it shall be considered that they have been placed for delivery at the time of arrival at the yard or siding where held.

Forty-eight (48) hours will be allowed for loading empty cars after being placed in position, after which time the Car Service rate of one dollar ($1.00) per day, or fraction thereof, for detention and use of tracks will apply.

Sundays and legal holidays are excepted in the computation of time of detention of cars and use of tracks.
