Mrs. Langtry is on her road to recovery. Her physicians brought her out of a state of collapse by informing her that she had lost her beauty.

Eleanor R. Calhoun, who has for some time been studying and acting in London, has gone to Paris, where she is playing in French with Coquelin.

F. Marion Crawford, the novelist, is proficient in ten languages—German, French, Italian, Latin, Greek, Sanscrit, Arabic, Persian, Russian and Turkish.

Queen Victoria, who annually gives away beef to the poor in Balmoral and adjoining royal estates, last week distributed a half ton of meat in that way.

Admiral Sir P. W. P. Wallis, who is nearly 99 years old, is the oldest flag officer on the active list of the British Navy, and not unlikely the oldest officer in any naval service at this time.

The unmarried women of Massachusetts do not seem to be an impecunious lot. Besides their real and personal property they have on deposit in the savings banks of the State $29,000,000.

Capt. Wm. Tryon, of New London, Conn., who followed the sea for forty years, says there are now only 88 American vessels, sail and steam, in the whole fishery. Twenty years ago New London alone had 100 vessels in the whaling trade, but now only seven sail from that port.

A Canadian legislator who wanted to inquire why so many Canadians removed to the United States has been promptly rebuked by Parliament, whose members refuse to believe that there are 2,500,000 Canadians in the United States, and that 28,000 came over the border last year.

Washington Post: Congress must hurry up with its proposed legislation against the gerrymandering of Congressional districts, or the gerrymanders will all get their work in. The Maryland Senate passed the redistricting bill for that State Wednesday, and Ohio is moving in the same direction.

Philadelphia Ledger: New Jersey is beginning to demonstrate that patent ballot-boxes are no proof against fraud. Honest election officers are of more importance than any mechanical guards that can be devised. In one precinct of Hudson county, out of 503 ballots found in the box 146 are said to have been "jokers" folded within the other ballots.

A good thing was got off on Senator Everts at a party in Washington about distinguishing between a canvas back and a red head. "An infallible test," he remarked, "is in the length of the bill." Just here he was completely broken up by a lady who leaned forward and interjected: "But, Senator, I never serve canvas backs or red heads at my table with bills."

Rochelle (Ill.) Herald (Rep): Wonder if Benjamin Harrison ever thought that the interest he is taking in Illinois politics would be the means of sending Gen. John M.
 Palmer to the United States Senate in the place of C. B. Farwell. Should that be the case he can mark Illinois down as between Benjamin Harrison and Grover Cleveland in 1892 that it would be Grover Cleveland every time.

Gen. Henry Heth, having occasion recently to unpack some boxes of family relics, discovered the dueling pistols which were used in the Deatur-Barron duel 72 years ago.
 They were the property of Gen.
 Heth's father, Lieut. Heth, of the old Navy, who was one of the lieutenants of the President under Decatur when that frigate was compelled to surrender to a British squadron, after having wrecked the Endymion, a British frigate of equal force, in a running fight.

Its Excellent Qualities Commend to public approval the California liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs. It is pleasing to the eye, and to the taste and by gently acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels, it cleanses the system effectually, thereby promoting the health and comfort of all who use it.

Many gates were lifted from their hinges last night in the Eastern part of the city by some mischievous boys and we notice that one gentleman living on Mulberry street had not succeeded in finding his gate up to noon to-day.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard will assist Rev.
 Dr. Holmes, pastor of the First

There is great complaint of the action of persons carrying out

For the Northeast River.
 Our suggestion as to a steamer on the Northeast Cape Fear seems to have borne some fruit. Mr. George L. Morton has bought the steam flat Enterprise which has heretofore run between Wilmington and Point Caswell, and will put her on the Northeast river, to run to Long get practise here. They ask the Wilmington Light Infantry to join will be a notable event.

 this year's work; also, information

A Gem of a House.

EDITOR DAILY REVIEW—In going through this city to-day and looking at the improvements going on, my attention was directed to the dwelling now nearly completed on Fourth street, between Dock and Orange, and owned by our most worthy townsman, Mr. George W. Williams.
 The writer of this has lately returned from the City of Washington, where he visited hundreds of dwellings, built after the latest and most improved styles, and will not hesitate to say that this dwelling, for convenience, beauty of architecture and handsome finish is faultless throughout. The architect is our townsman, Mr. James F. Post, and he deserves every praise for this perfect gem of a dwelling, to which he has given his personal su-pervisance while building and Wilmington should congratulate herself that she has an architect who is so thoroughly up in his profession.

Sunday School Convention.

The Convention met last night in its second session at the Lutheran church, President Geo. Chadbourn in the chair and Mr. W. C. Peterson, the newly elected secretary, in his place.

Devotional exercises were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Anderson, and the Convention was led in prayer by Dr. Pritchard, after which the reports of the various Sunday schools, constituents of the Convention, were called for, each superintendent reading from a written form the statistics of his school.

 dance 165; missionary contributions $87; expenses, $97.

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, T. D. Love Superintendent, 30 teachers and officers, 180 scholars, with sionary collections $22, expenses $145.77.

 ian Church, Samuel Northrop, Superintendent, 16 teachers and officers, 93 scholars, with an average atten-

 A. French Superintendent, 13 teachers and officers, 77 scholars.

The reports from the schools were followed by addresses from Dr.
 Hoge and Rev. Mr. Creasy.

Delegates, five in number, were then chosen to represent this Convention in the State Convention to meet here the last of this month, which resulted in the selection of Messrs. C. H. Robinson, S. G. Hall, W. H. Strauss, J. W. King, J. C.
 Davis and Elijah Hewlett.

In closing the services the President called attention to the fact that at least 150 delegates would have to be entertained by the good people of Wilmington, and requested all who were willing to entertain to report to the committee, of whom there are seven, with Mr. Chadbourn as the chairman.

PLEASE NOTICE.
 We will be glad to receive communications from our friends on any and all subjects general interest, but The name of the writer must always be furnished to the Editor.
 Communications must be written on one side of the paper.
 Personalities must be avoided.
 And it is especially and particularly understood that the Editor does not always endorse the views of correspondents unless so stated in the editorial columns.

Forecasts.
 For North Carolina, fair and slightly cooler and fair on Sunday. For Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather.

Exchange of Pulpits.
 Services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Rev. Mr. Duboc, of Southport, will officiate, having exchanged with the rector for the day.
 Rev. Mr. Arnold will officiate at St. Philip's Church, Southport, tomorrow, morning and evening.

Cotton.
 The receipts of cotton at this port for the week ending yesterday foot up 1,259 bales, against 2,416 bales for corresponding week of last year, a decrease of 1,157 bales. The receipts of the crop year to date foot up 127,773 bales, against 144,078 to same date last year, a decrease of 16,305 bales.

Strong Men.
 Women love strong men. A weak man may excite their sympathy and a woman's careful tenderness soothe and soften the anguish of a weak man's soul, but the laughing, joyous, warm, exuberant love of women dear, belongs to the men that are strong and noble and kind. Then why will a man continue weak, and mean and peevish?

An old gentleman writes: "B. B.
 B. gives me new life and strength.
 If there is anything that will make an old man young, it is B. B. B."

Some men say, and women too, they never feel weak and mean except in the spring. Why then feel weak and mean and nervous and prostrated in the spring time when life and spirit awakens with thrilling buoyancy even the vegetable world? Must you allow sluggish blood, inactive organic functions, rusty joints and general weakness to make your life miserable simply because the long winter has restrained your natural activity? It need not be. If only you will use that pleasant and incomparable tonic blood purifier known as B. B. B. or Botanic Blood Balm your health in spring time will be all that you can wish. Try it this spring. Try it now!

J. A. Shepherd, Norfolk, Va., August 10, 1888, writes: "I depend on B. B. B. for the preservation of my health. I have had it in my family now nearly two years, and in all that time have not had to have a doctor."
