THE DAILY REVIEW.

VOL. XIV. WILMINGTON, N. C. WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12, 1890. NO 75.

There are 3,798 Episcopal Churches in the United States. Out of that number 2,874 have adopted the free pew system.

The New York Letter Carriers' Association has collected $3,000 toward the erection of a monument to the late S. S. Cox.

Over 2,000 shirt and pantaloons makers are on a strike in New York.
They demand 10 hours for a day's work, instead of 14.

The steady growth of business in Anniston, Ala., is shown by the recent establishment of two new banks with a capital of $100,000 each.

Minister Lincoln has suffered a severe loss in the death of his only son.
With the lad's death the male line of the Lincoln family is threatened with extinction.

Congressman Springer, of Illinois, is wiry of frame, and has a pointed gray beard and a stentorian voice.
He is 54 years old. He is seldom without a red rose in his button hole.

William T. Stead, the far famed English editor, is short as to his stature, amethyst as to eye, and brief as to manner. He is fanatically religious. He has interviewed every celebrity in Europe.

Gladstone has published 299 books and pamphlets. This does not include his magazine articles or any of his speeches. He has all his life been assimilating knowledge and giving out ideas.

The Democrats of Richmond, Va., will nominate municipal candidates by a primary election on the 3rd of April. Several of the Democratic clubs have already petitioned the Executive Committee to have the election conducted under the Australian ballot system.

At a late meeting of the Royal Botanic Society an interesting sweet-scented fern from the society's garden was exhibited. The perfume closely resembles that of fresh hay, and, like it, is retained after the frond is dry, and lasts for many months, if not years, imparting its fragrance to anything in contact with it.

The Democrats have invaded Maine, the home of Secretary Blaine and Speaker Reed, and the distinguished—and soon to be extinguished—gentleman was not on hand to count in those not present and not voting, which was a sad oversight on his part. In Biddeford, on Monday, the Democrats elected the Mayor and the Aldermen from every ward.

The battle of flowers, a sort of carnival celebration, took place at Nice just before Lent began. The occupants of more than two hundred carriages pelted each other and the bystanders with flowers. Minnie Hank, the prima donna, had 2,000 bouquets in and upon her carriage, and Colonel North, the "Nitrate King," was also conspicuous in the parade.

The fastest time on record, for the world, for a long distance, was made on the Pennsylvania R. R., between New York and Washington, on Monday last. The occasion was an entertainment to be given in the latter city for the benefit of the Actors' Fund, by the Madison Square Company. The object was to play in Washington City in the afternoon and at New York at the usual hour at night, and it was accomplished.
The distance between the two cities is 227 miles and this was accomplished in 4 hours and 17 minutes coming South and 4 hours and 18 minutes on the return. It was a special train consisting of three cars and a baggage car and it was pulled by the biggest engine on the road. There were 30 people on board. Flagmen were stationed within sight of each other all along the 227 miles of road, so that the engineer had a signal always in view. The average running time was 54 miles per hour for the 454 miles covered and at times the speed of the train reached 70 miles an hour. The receipts of the benefit amounted to $2,143.50. These facts are gathered from a very interesting report in the New York Star.

It seems to us that there are less persons afflicted with rheumatism, since our druggists sell Salvation Oil. Price twenty five cents a bottle.

improvement perceptible to day in Mr. R. B. Wood's condition.

We have seen, as yet, but two copies of the Raleigh State Chronicle.
What is the matter, Bro. Daniels?

The peach crop hereabouts is said to be safe, thus far, and strawberries are not hurt so much as was thought at first.

Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses curative powers exclusively its own, and which make it "peculiar to itself." Be sure to get Hood's.

When ready to build, paint or repair you will find it to your advantage to buy your material of the N.
Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Mr. J. A. Brown, of Chadbourne, was in the city yesterday. Mr.
Brown has just recovered from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

broke over Wilmington than was that of to-day, but it clouded up during the forenoon, with an outlook for rain.

new and improved White Wamsutta

For the benefit of several enquiring friends we will state that Easter Sunday falls this year on the first Sunday in April, the 6th of the month. Next Sunday will be Mid-Lent Sunday.

The Signal Service wires are down somewhere between this city and Southport. A party is now out to locate and repair the break and everything is expected to be all right again by to-night.

ton, hair and other) and make them

Evangelical Alliance.

The regular monthly meeting of the Evangelical Alliance was held last night at Grace M. E. Church.
Services were conducted by Rev. P.
H. Hoge, D. D., in the absence of Rev. J. W. Primrose, who was prevented by sickness from attending.
The subject, "How to Study the Scriptures," was discussed by Rev.
Mr. Swindell, Rev. Mr. Miller and others. There was a full attendance and much interest was taken in the proceedings by all present.

To Start Up To-morrow.

The Industrial Manufacturing Co. will commence operations to-morrow at their works in the Southern part of the city, formerly known as the Clarendon Iron Works, and which was purchased by them. The motive power has been up for some time and the working machinery is now in. As we have stated, they will start up to-morrow and turn out then the first of their manufacture, but they will not get fully under way till Monday next.

Forecast.
For North Carolina, light local rains and warmer weather; colder on Thursday.

Commendable.
All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the California Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

Little Lord Fauntleroy (Suit) Can be Seen at T. Shrier's.

I. Shrier, who is always ahead in introducing new novelties, will sell this week the Lord Fauntleroy and Alfonso (King of Spain) suit. Also a full line of children's Kilt Suits at the lowest price for cash only. I.
Shrier, corner Front and Princess streets. †

Southport to the Front.

A cornet band has been organized at Southport, with eleven pieces.
They will go at once into practice and expect to turn out some good music next Summer. They will meet next Tuesday night to adopt a name and to elect a leader. Prof. Sim Schloss, of this city, will be the instructor.

Lots of Fun In It.

A "coon club" is to be organized in this city very shortly. It will start with seven members—perhaps with more. The fun in hunting coons consists in wading through miles of woods and swamps at night, sometimes sinking in the mire up to the seat of your breeches, getting your hat carried away by the briars and not getting any coons after all. It is popularly supposed that an all-night's experience of this kind is peculiarly stimulating and freshens a young man up wonderfully for his next day's duties, but this may be a mistake.

St. Patrick's Day.

Mr. Timothy Donlan, Chief Marshal for the parade on next Monday of the Hibernian Benevolent Society, has issued a programme of the observances on that day, which is the 24th anniversary of the organization of the Society. The members will assemble at 9 o'clock and at 10.10 the procession will be formed, and march to St. Thomas' Church where an address will be delivered by the Rt. Rev. Leo Haid, Bishop of the diocese. All are invited to attend the services at the church. The Reunion Ball will take place on Easter Monday night.

In the Interest of Seamen.

The Rev. W. C. Stitt, D. D., Corresponding Secretary of the American Seamen's Friend Society of New York, will deliver an address in the First Presbyterian Church, corner Third and Orange streets, to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at 8 o'clock, in the interest of seamen.

All persons who feel any interest in the moral and religious progress of this useful class of citizens are earnestly and cordially invited to be present.

This information is furnished us by Mr. George R. French, Secretary of the Seamen's Friend Society of the Port of Wilmington.

Peterson's Magazine.

Peterson for April offers special attractions for ladies. The colored fashion plate and other engravings show the newest and most effective spring styles. Mrs. Lucy H. Hooper's Paris letter gives full information in regard to the latest French fashions. By the aid of "Peterson" any lady can prepare her own and her children's wardrobes at far less expense than by any other means. The other departments of the magazine are at their very best.
The steel engraving of Queen Louise, of Prussia, and her sons, is not only a beautiful picture, but especially valuable for giving the portrait of the late Emperor William when a lad of ten. "The Story of Dagmar" is one of the best novelets we have met this year. It is no wonder that "Peterson" preserves its popularity.
Its fiction, historical sketches, fashions, music and household suggestions exactly meet home needs.
Terms $2 a year. Address Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

State Convention.

The coming State Convention of the Y. M. C. A. at Goldsboro, beginning to-morrow, promises to be the largest and most profitable gathering of the kind ever held in North Carolina. It has back of it what no other convention has ever had—a full year's work with a State Secretary, a year of organized District work, and more financial support than ever before.

At the last Convention the State was divided into five districts, with Charlotte, Winston, Durham, Goldsboro and Wilmington as the centres, respectively. Committees were appointed in each district to have charge of the work in it. Each district has, during the year, held a Convention, and in several of the districts much more has been done by inter-visitation of the active workers, to spread the interest in the work. The State Secretary, Mr.
Coulter, has visited a large part of the towns in the State with the special purpose of awakening new interest in the Convention, and securing the attendance of large delegations.

Picked Up at Sea.

A dispatch from Signal Service Observer Demain, at Southport, received at the Signal Office here at 8 o'clock last night, says: "A pilot just in from outside reports that this afternoon the revenue cutter Colfax picked up about twelve miles at sea the Italian barquentine Antonio, loaded with sulphur and bound to Wilmington. Her foremast and main and mizzen-topmasts had been carried away. She is otherwise in good condition, and her cargo is safe.
She is now off the bar. The cutter is with her, and the tug Jones has just gone out."

Mr. Demain telegraphs to-day the following additional news:

"Particulars concerning the barque entine were sent in at 10 o'clock last night by the officers of the cutter Colfax. The revenue cutter has just arrived at the bar with the dismasted Italian barquentine Antonio in tow. The cutter fell in with her about twelve miles off shore. It appears that she left Sicily, Sicily, with a cargo of brimstone for Wilmington on December 23rd. On January 29th, in lat. 24°, 31' north, and longitude 53°, 50' west, during a furious northwest gale, with a high and dangerous sea, she was taken back and lost her foremast, with all attached, together with the main topmasts. At the same time she was boarded by a heavy sea and one of her crew, Dominico Spagna, was swept overboard and lost. She was furnished with provisions and water on March 4th by the British steamer Miranda, from New York for Jamaica, and this supply had about given out when the Colfax took her in tow."

"How shall I sleep?" asks a correspondent. "Try to stay awake to catch some train, or if you have a bad cold take a dose of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

The procession will be formed in front of the Hall promptly at 10.10 o'clock and march to Saint Thomas' Church. The Right Reverend Leo Haid, of St. Mary's College, Gaston county, and Bishop of North Carolina, has kindly
