JOSH. T. JAMES, Editor & Prop'r. WILMINGTON, N. C.

THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 1890.

Entered at the Postoffice at Wilmington, N. as second-class matter.

The Democrats of Pennsylvania candidates for Governor. They are ex-Senator Wallace, ex-Governor Pattison and Hon. Chauncey F. Black. Each of these sterling Democrats is in thorough accord with the party on all leading questions, and each enjoys a large personal popularity,

The Czar of Russia has issued an mperial ukase prohibiting Jews from renting or cultivating land. from mortgaging it, or from having any dealings whatever in real estate. The Jews of Russia number 6,000,, 000, and are the most industrious May 3 and 4. frugal and well-to-do portion of the rural population. In one way and another their wealth is mostly invested in land. The Czar's ukase, therefore, means great distress to Emperor William has been spending a good deal of his time in his study, engaged, it is understood. upon the preparation of the speech which he has decided to deliver in person at the opening of the new Reichstag. The speech is to be the finest ever delivered from the German throne, and, according to current report, is to contain, among bowels, and is the best known remeother things, yet another essay upon capital and labor. The Kaiser is also credited with the authorship of a sensational pamphlet just published anonymously in Berlin, in which imperial socialism is fully explained and justified. The pamphleteer at the head of a secret society which numbers among its members Gen. and which has for its chief object cratic parties alienated by Prince great cause of all fatal diseases 50 Under New Management, the monarchical principle is gradually sinking, but the fact simply stimulates him to daring deeds. He will "snatch the reins from the hands of the Democracy and under tine seized Christendom and made it his own to save a throne endangered by the new doctrine." The Washington Post says that Senator Vance and a number of tion. other Southern men have collectively written and will soon publish a book entitled, "Why the South; Solid or, Reconstruction and its Results." It undertakes to narrate, fairly and dispassionately, in concise and popular form, the history of the reconstructed governments in each State, showing how the Republicans obtained control and how they lost it, the figures and facts as to shrinkage of values and increase of debt and taxation under these governments, and the prosperity of the South under present auspices. The book speaks of Abraham Lincoln's death as an appalling calamity to the South; argues that Andrew Johnson followed strictly Lincoln's plan of reconstruction; and contends that if Lincoln had lived he would have been able to defend that plan against the assaults of Congress. Each chapter is signed by its author, who thus becomes directly responsible for the truth of his statements; and the claim of the book in its preface (written by Gen eral Herbert, its editor), is that in all the chapters the facts are understated rather than overstated. The race question and race troubles are extensively discussed, the statement made that there is no intention to agitate for the repeal of the Fifteenth amendment or the deportation of the negroes. Educational Shelf and Heavy Hardware and material statistics of many The Paper for the People, kinds are given in support of the contention that the negro is prosand presents in its columns matter to interest and instruct all ages, classes and conditions pering, and that the South is solving for itself the negro question. The book is dedicated to the business men of the North, with a statement that they are interested in continuing the prosperity of the South. ----The Best Result.
