French labor has increased its savings banks deposits since 1878 from $120,000,000 to $600,000,000, an increase nearly equal to the two milliards paid to Germany.

Tennyson still occasionally smokes the pipe, which has always been his favorite style of using the weed. All great writers seem to prefer the pipe to the cigar. We prefer it.

The Norfolk Virginian says that "General Grant's declaration that he would not give a dollar to able-bodied ex-soldiers will not help the Service Pension bill." It certainly will not hurt it.

More than 2,000 farmers have applied to the agricultural department for seeds for the sugar beet, of which the department has imported several tons. This looks as if the farmers were going to try the beet sugar experiment on a scale large enough to give it a thorough test.

Durant Island, in this State, has been sold to a Northern capitalist, who will convert it into a hunting resort. There are upwards of 4,000 acres on it and it was sold at $1 an acre. It was the property of the State and the money will be turned over to the school fund. Why it should be sold at all at this time we do not understand. It can hardly ever be worth less than its present value.

The New York Sun has made a most disgraceful attack on Mr. Cleveland. We will not soil our columns with it. It is in full keeping with Mr. Dana's disgraceful course for years past. Not one word that he says against Grover Cleveland but will return upon himself, for that gentleman stands as far above the plane upon which the nasty, vulgar, traitorous Dana stands as the stars are above a dunghill. Only we hope that some one of Mr. Cleveland's friends will put on his gloves and pull Dana's dirty nose.

Old Crump Sherman was wine and dined at the Union League Club in New York recently and the pious Col. Shephard aspirates as follows: "May he live to have his hundredth birthday celebrated by a Union League Club constituted entirely of straight Republicans." And herein lieth the milk in the coconut.
Democrats and crooked Republicans are ruled out. Had Sherman been a Democrat he would not have been wine and dined by such Republicans and Mr. Vanderbilt's son-in-law and Mr. Vanderbilt's brother-in-law might have missed an opportunity to flop his ears.

The New York Mail and Express rises to "congratulate Major Mc-Kinley and the majority of the House Committee of Ways and Means on the symmetrical tariff bill that has been reported" which reminds us of the compliment bestowed by the owl on the toad, for his "beautiful and symmetrical legs." In view of the protest made to the committee by thirteen Republican members of the House, against reporting the bill in its present shape, and the numerous objections of manufacturers from all parts of the country, we are also reminded of the drunken orator at a political gathering who forgot which side of the question he was on and began to plead for the opposition candidate but was "brought up all standing" by some one pulling his coat tails from behind and hissing into his ear: "Sit down, you d-d fool! sit down." Mr. McKinley's bill promises to be a splendid campaign document for the Democrats.

new government building are being used for a roadway on South Fifth street.
Keep dry and you will keep healthy. Umbrellas, rubber coats, county, who has been here on a visit to his brother, Mr. B. G. Worth, returned home to day.

sen, cleared to-day for Bristol with 4,074 barrels rosin, valued at $6,137,

Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of in this court to day: James W. Tufts vs. A. F. Lucas, et al. continued.
Martha E. Hodges vs. the New Hanover Transit Co., on trial at our close.

Something Fine Ahead.

The Wilmington Light Infantry, aided, assisted, advised and applauded by a number of their lady friends will give a pleasant and unique entertainment in the large hall of the Champion Compress Co. the latter part of next week. Mr. Don. Mac-Rae, Jr., is Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements. The exact nature of the entertainment has not yet been divulged but it will be something unusually unique and interesting. The hall is to be left as it is now, with the exception of the removal of the tables, and the same adornments and the same electric lights used at the banquet last week will be utilized in the entertainment.

A Sorrowful Disaster.

We have a melancholy circumstance to record. A DAILY REVIEW subscriber who lives in the country was in town on Saturday last and was dunned for a settlement of account. He swore that he did not have a cent then but remarked: "I'll be damned if I don't call at your office and pay you $5 before sunset to-day." As he did not call and pay the money the melancholy assumption is that the alternative he invoked has indeed come to pass. We are sorry for it as he was a very clever fellow and will never be able to read the REVIEW again for of course there is no male connection between Wilmington and the place of his new abode. At all events it isn't a star route. Our respectful sympathies are extended the bereaved family who indeed sorrow as those without hope. May his example be a terrible warning to some of the other of our delinquent subscribers.

Look Ahead a Little.

There are some people who will go to the Germania Band Concert on Wednesday night with their wives or sweethearts and who will find nice seats awaiting them in a good part of the auditorium, where they can see and hear everything that takes place, and there are others who with pretty little girls on their arms will sit way back and envy those in front, who are not any more fortunate than their brothers in the rear, only a little less dilatory.
It is well enough to understand that the seats are being rapidly disposed of. The concert will be a charming entertainment—of this there can be no doubt. The preparations for its presentation are active and the rehearsals are frequent.
Mr. William Ortmann, the famous young violinist, will certainly take part. He will bring with him from Charleston his own accompanist, Mr. A. Huguélet.

An Important Movement by the Univer- sity Alumni.

A very important movement is on foot to secure hearty and practical cooperation between the University and its alumni. The University is necessarily dependent mainly upon its alumni for friendship, counsel and criticism; and the alumni have shown themselves by no means regardless of the interest and claims of their alma mater. But there has been hitherto no systematic, organized, practical working connection between the University and her graduates. There is a movement on foot to remedy this. Wednesday of Commencement Week has been set apart as alumni day, and besides the alumni banquet and reunion there will be a regular business meeting for the discussion of plans and methods of increasing the patronage, enlarging the endowment, strengthening the spirit and exalting the work of the institution.
This year a memorial address will be delivered by R. H. Battle, Esq., on Dr. Charles Phillips, and the alumni oration will be by Col. W.
H. S. Burgwyn, of Henderson.
The best results should attend this movement; and in order to make it efficient it is earnestly desired that every alumnus of the University, who can possibly do so, attend the approaching commencement.
Branch alumni associations are now in process of organization in
