The latest new disease is "sleepi ness." It seems that those who have had a severe attack of Russian influenza are liable to an attack of 'La Nona," as it is called by the 10 and 11. country folks of Italy and South Germany. That conditions of the human subject known as "trance" are peculiar and not infrequent is matter of common experience; but the new trance or lethargy seems to be something entirely out of the common, and is more psychological than pathological.

Frances Folsom Cleveland is still the first lady of the land in the hearts of the American people, says the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph. The fact is abundantly proven by the respectful but eager public interest which follows all the movements of this fair woman. A day spent at the seaside was made one of added enjoyment to hundreds of rest seekers because of her presence, Mr. Cleveland may well feel like resenting the impertinence of reckless journalistic quill drivers, but he need have no fear but what the American people will always jealously guard the fair fame of his and lung diseases, take Lemon Hot wife. It is one of their highest pleasures to pay homage to her beauty and goodness whenever occasion fittingly offers.

It is stated that the new German Chancellor, Gen. von Caprivi, is of Italian origin, as his name reveals. The family of Caprivi during the Middle Ages inhabited the ancient Duchy of Friuli. In the history of Goritz the noble family of "De Caprive" is spoken of, and on the banks Is Open from 1 o'clock a, m. Mo day Until of the Serra, near Goritz, was the birthplace in the thirteenth century of many members of that ancient family. They were thus called by the name "Kopriva," which means "nettle," and in their arms was a branch of that plant. Later on [the Caprivis moved northward to Carinthia. Styria and Hungary, and received the rank of Austrian nobles, with the property and estates of Nessenthal, and in the Austrian army many members of the family distinguished themselves in the wars against the Turlis. The Caprivis came into Prussia for the first time when one of them married a
