Wilmington and Vicinity.
We thank Mr. W. L. DeRosset, Jr., the publisher, for a copy of an elegant little work just issued by him under the above title. It comprises a historical sketch of the city, carefully compiled and accurate in its statements and sixty-three views of prominent scenes in the city, public buildings, compresses, river fronts, churches, private residences, seaside resorts, &c. It is as handsome a specimen of the skillful engraver's art as can be seen in a month of Sundays and is well worthy of preservation. It will be on sale at the Festival to-night at 35 cents per copy. Elsewhere such things are sold at 50 cents.

The Wedding Last Night.
One of the most brilliant weddings that ever took place in Wilmington was that at St. James' Church last evening, when Mr. George Herbert Smith and Miss Carrie W. Strange were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity and many were compelled to stand throughout the service. The officiating priest was Rev. Robert Strange, Rector of the church and brother to the bride, assisted by Rev. W. J. Smith, of Scotland Neck, a relative of the groom. The bride was given away by Col. John W. Atkinson, her step-father. The attendants were Mr. Kirkland Huske and Miss Eliza Potter, of Wilmington; Mr. E. B. Engelhard, of Raleigh, and Miss Annie Meares, of Wilmington; Mr. Isaac Manning and Miss Augusta McPherson, of Wilmington; Mr. William Latimer, of Wilmington, and Miss Sallie Mayo, of Richmond; Mr. J. W. Atkinson, Jr., of Richmond, and Miss Carrie Cochrane, of Washington City; Mr. J. W. Bolles, of Wilmington, and Miss Nannie Smith, of Scotland Neck; Col. W. C. Jones and Miss Minnie Giles, of Wilmington; Capt. Benahan Cameron, of Hillsboro, and Miss Callie Reid French, of Wilmington; Mr. W. J. Andrews, of Raleigh, and Miss Lizzie Chadbourne, of Wilmington; Mr. Duval French and Miss Janie Strange, of Wilmington, the latter couple acting as best man and maid of honor. The ushers were Messrs. Devereux Lippitt, H. N. Parsley, T. Wright Meares, A. M. Waddell, Jr., H. H. McIlhenny and F. L. Meares.

At the conclusion of the wedding ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of Col. John W. Atkinson where a reception was held, which was very largely attended. At midnight they took the fast mail train for New York where they will remain until the latter part of next week when they will sail for an extensive tour of Great Britain and Continental Europe.

The wedding presents were very handsome and made up one of the richest, most beautiful and most extensive tributes ever offered to a bride in this city. They were but one of the many evidences of the tender and loving regard in which this lovely and amiable young lady is held by her large circle of friends and relatives in this city.

Lung Troubles, Rheumatism, Etc.
Frequently a person is supposed to have consumption when it is some other disease altogether that is reducing his flesh and making him look pale and thin.

J. W. Yates, Tullahoma, Tenn., writes: "It does me good to praise Botanic Blood Balm. It cured me of an abscess on the lungs and asthma that troubled me two years and that other remedies failed to benefit."

So you see it is sometimes well to try constitutional treatment. No remedy is so good as B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) for rebuilding wasted tissue, and giving health to every portion of the system reached by that great circulating stream of life, the human blood. Again, it is often supposed that colds and exposure are the only causes of sciatica, rheumatism, etc. Such is not always the case. It is frequently caused by impurities in the blood.

Wm. Price, Luttsville, Mo., writes: "I was afflicted with sciatica and had lost the use of one arm and one leg for nine years. I went to Hot Springs and also tried different doctors, but found no cure until I tried Botanic Blood Balm. It made me sound and well. I am well known in this vicinity."

Observe, even when the renowned Hot Springs failed, B. B. B. brought relief. Remember, no matter what blood remedy you have tried or intend to try, B. B. B. is the only one that will give you complete satisfaction.

Refreshing and Invigorating
Delicious Soda Water as drawn from Munds Brothers' magnificent new soda fountain at a temperature of 34°. Purest Fruit Syrup, Milk Shakes and Natural Mineral Water.

Fire at Durham.
Mr. A. F. Lucas received a brief despatch this morning from Durham, saying that his plant there had been burned. There were no particulars, and it is therefore impossible as yet to tell the exact amount of damage done. It is hoped, however, that it is not very great, as the same despatch called for the shipment by express of a lot of soda, so that operations could be at once resumed. By this it is supposed that the machinery escaped uninjured, although nothing is yet known as to this fact. Mr. Lucas had $3,500 insurance, and it is hoped that this will cover the loss. He will go up to Durham to-morrow to look into the matter.

The Military Festival.
The ladies have done wonders in preparing for the W. L. I. Festival, which opens this week. The dry and barren Champion Compress smiles as a rose, in fact as a great many roses, and the prosaic interior of the rooms allotted there has been transformed into bowers of beauty. Art and nature have combined to render it a real region of beauty and romance. The art room is crowded with gems of almost inestimable value. The old world has contributed to the new. Ancient tapestry and rugs, Florentine mosaics, Sevres china, Satsuma ware, Egyptian marbles, paintings of great value, the product of old masters as well as new, coats of mail, bronze shields with figures worked in bas relief and bric-a-brac of every description and objects of rare value are to be met with on every side.

In the main hall there are numerous booths arranged on either side of a broad passage way which extends the length of the compartment and will be kept open for the fancy drills by the Light Infantry, and other displays.

Booth No. 1, near the entrance, is for fruit and fancy work. It is beautifully draped with pink and green, and is under the management of Mrs. Corbett, Mrs. Vollers, Mrs. Kelley, with Misses Bagg, Weill, Rosenthal, Love and Stoller as assistants.

Booth No. 2 is a candy pagoda, gracefully draped in white and gold. The managers are Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Calder and Mrs. Rhein-stein, assisted by Misses Jeannie Allen, Carrie Myers and Nellie Draper.

The Flower Booth comes next. It is draped in green and white, with lace curtains, and is presided over by Mrs. H. H. Smith and Mrs. H. P. West, assisted by six "butterflies"—Misses Annie B. DeRosset, Maggie D. Smith, Bessie Cole Davis, Bessie Johnson, Emma West and Carrie May VonGlahn.

Booth No. 4 is the "Package Booth," managed by Miss Sophie Campbell, Mrs. J. R. Giles and Mrs. Carmichael, assisted by a bevy of young ladies.

No. 5 is the "Ice Cream Garden," presided over by Mrs. Emerson, Mrs. W. R. Kenan, Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Chadbourne. It is trimmed with yellow and black drapery and bamboo vines. A host of young ladies, as yellow and black butterflies, will be prepared to serve everybody with ice cream and strawberries here.

No. 6 is the "Chocolate and Cake" booth, presided over by Mrs. Hodges, Mrs. VonGlabn and Mrs. Moore, assisted by Misses Annie VonGlabn, Lillian Bowden and Bella Heinsberger.

No. 7 is another "Ice Cream and Strawberry Garden," elaborately trimmed with crystalized and flowered moss, palms and flags. This booth is managed by Mrs. Hines, Mrs. Hederick, Mrs. C. Brown and Mrs. Burbank, who will be assisted by a number of "blue and white butterflies."

No. 9 is the "Lemonade Booth." It is artistically decorated in lemon colored drapery and vines. It is presided over by Mrs. Daggett, Mrs. C. H. Robinson and Mrs. S. H. Northrop, assisted by Misses Lizzie Chadbourne, Rose Smith and Bettie Creasy.

The Japanese Booth is sheltered by an enormous parti-colored umbrella, and is filled with a variety of Oriental goods and wares. It is presided over by Mrs. Branch, Miss Hattie Taylor and Miss Alice Holmes.

The Art section is something marvelous. It will reveal a wonderful collection of articles of rare and

This department is in charge of Mrs. James Sprunt, Mrs. George W. Kidder and Mrs. James H. Chadbourne.

Huggins, Miss Mary Reed and Miss Mollie French, who will be assisted by a number of young ladies. Supper will be served this and to-morrow evening, and lunch on Saturday—on the European plan.
