Railroad passes to legislators will play an important part in the Georgia campaign. Some of the counties propose to exact pledges from their representatives that they will advocate a law probibting the acceptance by members of the little pasteboards which enable them to run off so frequently from their sworn duties.

that Mr. Roswell P. Flower will be nominated by acciamation as the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York next year, and that Mr. Cleveland will be the Democratic candidate for the Presidency in 1892. He emphatically repeats his former declaration that he is not a candidate either for Gubernatorial or Presidential honors.

An English woman resident in Syria reports the discovery near Beyroot of a bedstead made of gold and silver and inlaid with precious stones. An inscription upon it in English characters states that it belonged to Eleanor, Queen of England. The bedstead was discovered in a cave, and is supposed to have been placed there for security when Edward I left the East.

I is stated that some of the Rothschild family have purchased, at the high figure of 840,000 franss, or about £34,600 sterling, the identical clock manufactured by the royal hands of the ill-fated Louis XVI in the days when he was more actively and congenially employed in his workship than in his counsel chamber. This curious timepiece for a long time was an historical heirloom in the possession of an English family, and it has been bought at St. Petersburg.

Owing to the fact that the lands of the West are being rapidly taken up, a Denver paper predicts the abdication of the cattle king and the extinction of the cowboy. Of the latter is said: "The cowboy, with rattling spurs, his leather trousers, his broad brimmed hat and his defiant swagger will soon join the stage driver, the hunter, the scout, the trapper and The North Carolina Presbyterian the mountain explorer in the prosession that moves reluctantly to the quiet, peaceable common place ways of life."

The new ballot reform law of New York State is going to be an expensive luxury. Under the old law only $90,875 was appropriated in Brooklyn to defray the annual expenses of the bureau of elections.
