The Body Found.

The body of George Law, mate on the schooner James Ponder, who was drowned off the C. C. R. R. depot on Wednesday night, was recovered this morning, at 7 o'clock. Larry Lowe was dragging for it when he saw it rise, not far from the spot where Mr. Law had disappeared. Coroner Jacobs viewed the body and deemed an inquest unnecessary. Capt. Calhoun took charge of the body, which will be interred this afternoon in Bellevue Cemetery.

Music by the Band.

The Lumberton Cornet Band, un deterred by the unpleasant weather. came up to the city last night and gave their promised concert in the City Hall Park. It is an excellent band, with 18 pieces, and although recently organized, they yet got some most delightful music out of their instruments. An excellent programme was presented last night and they scored a magnificent success. After the performance Mr. M. P. Taylor, Jr., drum major of the Second Regiment, drilled the band on the lawn and the precision with which they went through the different movements was highly creditable and showed thorough training.
