Died of the Wound.

Clara New died yesterday morning, about half past 10 o'clock, from the wound received by her at the hands of Julius Bloodworth on Wednesday last. The fact of her death was not known down town until late in the afternoon. Coroner Jacobs at once empaneled a jury of inquest and last night held an inquest over the remains. The jury rendered a verdict that "the deceased, Clara New, came to her death from a pistol-shot at the hands of Julius Bloodworth." The murderer is still at large and there seems but little hope now of apprehending him.

Blood Diseases.

Blood diseases are terrible on account of their loathsome nature, and the fact that they wreck the constitution so completely unless the proper antidote is applied. B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) is composed of the true antidote for blood poison. Its use never fails to give satisfaction.

Mrs. Laura Hart, Beaufort, S. C., writes: "A loathsome form of blood poison was killing me. My appetite was lost, my bones ached, and parts of my flesh seemed as if it would come off my bones. A friend brought me a bottle of B. B. B. The sores began healing at once, and when I had taken two bottles I surprised my friends at my rapid recovery."

W. A. Bryant, Moody, Tex., writes: "I had an agonizing case of Salt Rheum for four years, which medicine I took only seemed to aggravate until I found B. B. B. It cured my hand, which resembles a burnt surface. It also cured my two children of Itch, which had resisted previous treatment."

The Shelter Dedicated.

The new seaside home for sick and needy children, so beautifully and appropriately entitled "The Shelter of the Silver Cross," was formally dedicated yesterday afternoon, in the presence of a large number of ladies and gentlemen, to the noble purposes for which it was designed. Rev. Robert Strange, Rector of St. James' Church, conducted the services, which were beautiful and interesting in the extreme. They were opened with that touching and pathetic psalm of the Shepherd King, "The Lord is My Shepherd," rendered by the choir under the direction of Mr. Chas. H. Robinson. Rev. Mr. Strange then read a portion of the 8th chapter of 1st Kings, giving an account of the dedication of the temple by King Solomon; then came other hymns, "Of Thine Own Have We Given Thee," then the dedicatory prayers were made, "the Lord's Prayer being the first of all, then another hymn was sung, a beautiful, exquisite thing, telling the story of Christ's love for children, the services concluding with the Apostolic benediction by Mr. Strange.

The Shelter is non-sectarian but is not self-supporting and relies upon the kind hearted to furnish means of carrying out its beneficent plans. It relies upon the charitable people of this community for aid and this is something which has never yet failed. It is now fully open, under the kindly ministrations of the matron, Mrs. Fannie Hays. There are six little ones there now. They rise at 6:30, breakfast at 7, dinner at 1, supper at 6:30 and after prayers retire at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Hays will conduct a Sunday School there every Sunday morning.

The New Y. M. C. Building.

The property on Mulberry street, North side, running from Front to Nutt, is now in the hands of the Young Men's Christian Association and arrangements will be made at once for the erection of the proposed new buildings. The buildings now on the place will be sold at auction next Wednesday and will be immediately removed preparatory to the erection of a handsome structure of pressed brick or brown stone. Mr. S. W. Faulk, architect, of New castle, Pa., will be here on Monday to secure the data necessary to enable him to execute the final plans and detailed specifications.

The building, as intended, will be first class in every particular and an ornament to the city. Twenty-five or thirty thousand dollars will be expended in its construction. It will be three stories on Front and four stories on Nutt. On Nutt street the first and second floors (seventy five feet deep) will be fitted for store room and offices, and under the terms of sale, will be occupied by Messrs. Hall & Pearsall for their business. The first floor on Front street will be occupied by two stores 30x65 feet, between which will be a commodious entrance to the Association rooms on the second floor. On the same level as the first floor, on Nutt street, in rear of Hall & Pearsall's store, and extending partly underneath the stores on Front street, will be the gymnasium.

The third and fourth floors on Nutt street will be fitted for a handsome lecture and music hall, with a seating capacity of over one thousand.

The second and third stories on the Front street end will be used exclusively for the Association rooms.

Through the past twelve months the committee on the purchase of a lot have worked earnestly and faithfully in behalf of this movement for the young men of Wilmington, and should be unstintingly commended for their success in securing the present eligible site. Plan after plan have they canvassed, and have never flagged in their determination to procure a good and desirable place for this important building. The place has many advantages. It has a splendid southern exposure and will get the breeze from that quarter, making it comfortable and securing ample ventilation. Every visitor to the city must pass right by it, by whatever road he comes, except the Onslow road. Owing to the large number of young men employed in the railroad offices and shops it is very nearly in the centre of population of that class of the community. There will be an assured income from both Nutt and Front street ends. Already one of the stores on Front has been spoken for, and, as before stated, the entire Nutt street end has been leased.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair weather, except local showers in the southwest portion, warmer in the west and stationary temperature in the east.

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is "pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels."

Big Day at the Beach.

Yesterday was a gala day at Carolina Beach. In the forenoon a large party went down on the excursion given by the ladies of Bladen Street M. E. Church—and we are glad to learn, by the way, that it was a very successful affair—and the crowd was reinforced by many on the afternoon boats. The Passport started down in the morning with a very large crowd of excursionists who wanted to undergo the novel experience of a sail on the briny deep but when she got to the pier opposite the beach Capt. Harper wisely transferred the crowd to his own boat, the "Sylvan Grove," and sent the Passport back to Wilmington to fill out the regular schedule. The Grove then took the party to Southport and a few miles to sea. Fortunately, the water was smooth and no one suffered from mal de mer. They were then taken back up the river and landed at Carolina Beach. As soon as the train reached the beach our country cousins broke for the water with a yell and many of them donned bathing suits and took a dip in the waves. They had a good time, and no mistake.

In all there were probably 1,000 persons at Carolina Beach yesterday, the last installment of whom arrived here safe last night at 10:30 o'clock.
