It rains every day now.

The August moon fills on the 29th. Fully 1,000 people were at Carolina Beach to-day.

Mr. E. Sullivan, of Goldsboro, was in the city this morning.

Another big excursion from Rutherfordton is on the cards for September.

Mr. R. A. Hines leaves to night for Princeton on a two weeks' visit to his mother.

Officer White, of the police force, is enjoying his week of well-deserved vacation.

The Seacoast trains continue to carry large numbers to the Hammocks and Ocean View.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is in favor with all classes because it combines economy and strength. 100 Doses One Dollar.

Fifty first-class hands wanted to make Pants, by the day, or piece. Apply at 122 Market street.

Mr. A. H. Merritt, a prominent farmer of Taylor's Bridge township, Sampson county, is in the city to-day.

Keep dry and you will keep healthy. Umbrellas, rubber coats, &c., at I. Shrier's, S. E. corner Front and Princess streets.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

The State Democratic Convention was to have met to-day in Raleigh and Col. B. R. Moore is the lone fisherman who represents the New Hanover delegation.

With "Regal" Paint on your house and "Plastico" on your walls, your house will be beautiful and your family happy. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. factory agents.

An excursion train, made up of nine car-loads of excursionists, came in this morning from Rocky Mount and went directly to the Hammocks, where they passed the day, returning this evening.

The old shanties on the site of the new Y. M. C. A. buildings, near the foot of Mulberry street, were sold at auction this morning by Messrs. Cronly & Morriss and bought by a hardware man for $75.

The dispute between the Market Committee and the Clerk of Front Street Market House waxed warm and it is thought that it will be necessary to call a meeting of the Board of Aldermen to adjudicate the matter.

New Push and Pull Blind Hinges. Locks the blind when opened or closed. Saves labor and cost of putting on inside fastenings, which are not needed with these hinges. Carpenters, it will pay you to examine and use same. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

We have it now. A Pump that is always primed, never requiring a tub of water to start it. It is the bright invention of a North Carolina genius and is pronounced by all to be the best pump on the market. See it and you will have no other. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

There will be a good time at Carolina Beach to-morrow on the occasion of the excursion to the Golden Eagle. The committee have labored faithfully to make it pleasant to all who may attend and we hope that the beach will be alive with people on that occasion.

A Fire and a Fight.
There was almost a fire at Ocean View yesterday. The roof of Capt. Sasser's house caught by a spark from the chimney and there was big excitement for a time. The fire was put out with but slight damage to the building and then two well-known residents of the beach got up a little fistfight display, in which some hard knocking was done and lots of claret stained the sands of the beach. It was too hot yesterday afternoon for either a fire or a fight.

ROUGH ON TOOTHACHE. 15c. At Druggists. ROUGH ON CORNS. Hard or soft corns. 15c.

Knights of Pythias Day.

In all, eight lodges of Knights of Pythias have arrived here to-day, many of the members accompanied by their wives and other members of the family. Cumberland Lodge, of Fayetteville, and the Bennettsville Lodge, from Bennettsville, came in on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. at 10 o'clock. They were met at Point Peter by a delegation of the lodges from this city and taken directly on board the Grove, which then steamed down the river for Carolina Beach, accompanied by many members of the lodges in this city and others. At 3 o'clock six more lodges arrived here and were taken directly down on the Passport. These were from Charlotte, Monroe, Wadesboro, Laurinburg, Rockingham, Maxton and Lumberton. The address of welcome was not delivered at Point Peter but was appointed for Carolina Beach, Mr. Iredell Meares being the orator.

Since the above was written it has been ascertained that the excursion train on which the six lodges from Charlotte and other points along the line of the C. C. R. R. were to arrive was delayed and would not get here until nearly 5 o'clock and hence the Passport did not wait but went on down to the Beach with a crowd from the city.

Befooling His Own Nest.

Dr. E. Grissom, who has been out West to attend a Masonic meeting has been interviewed by the Denver Republican and it seems has not hesitated to abuse, vilify and malign his own State, that wherein he was born and where he was for many years, notwithstanding his treason to the people of his own section, held in esteem by many and kept in office by a Democratic legislature, when he ought to have been turned out. If Grissom's statements were true we would not say a word but as there is not a particle of truth in them a protest is surely in order. Dr. Grissom is reminded that it is a dirty bird that will defile its own nest but we do not think that this reflection will have much influence with a man of his stamp. Before publishing some of his remarks we will state that the majority against convention in the Spring of 1860 was only 194 and not 75,000; that North Carolina was not a Whig State but a Democratic State in 1860, with John W. Ellis, Democrat, as its Governor; that South Carolina, Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Virginia and Arkansas all seceded before North Carolina did, showing the conservative sentiment of the State, and that this secession was not "a little while later" than June, 1860, but that it was nearly a year later, on May 20th, 1861, that the ordinance was adopted.

The charge against our "commercial stagnation" is so foolishly ridiculous that it actually disproves itself.

Among other things Dr. Grissom says: "North Carolina is one of the old original thirteen colonies. It is practically in a state of commercial stagnation, due largely to the political prejudice that exists there. The depression is certainly largely attributable to the conduct of the Democrats there. If a Republican goes there with no political ambition he is treated decently. The moment, however, he aspires to political favor, an antagonism to himself and his business is at once developed. I do want to wave the bloody shirt, but if you desire facts concerning the mode in which Democrats carry on politics in North Carolina, I can give them to you, because I have lived there all my life and am posted. Previous to the war and for forty years, North Carolina was a Whig State and followed Clay and Webster's banner. It was the only Southern Whig State. When Lincoln was elected to the Presidency of the United States, there was then immediately a feeling stirred up in the State. When other Southern States talked of secession, North Carolina, in June, 1860, decided by a majority of 75,000 votes not to secede. A little while later a convention was suddenly called, and before the people at large knew what was going on, the members of that convention declared that North Carolina would secede and follow the example of Virginia and South Carolina."

Rubber Hose, Lawn Mowers and Rakes of the latest and most improved makes are sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

To Go To Clinton.

A number of Odd Fellows from the Cape Fear Lodge No. 62, I. O. O. F., of this city, will go up to Clinton at 4 o'clock on next Friday afternoon for the purpose of justifying degrees with the lodge at Clinton. It is expected that there will be at least twenty-five members from this city. They will meet at the lodge room at 2 o'clock and march to the depot in a body. They will return to the city on Saturday morning.

Sunday School Convention.

A convention of the Sunday School workers of the Eastern portion of the State is called at Edenton, Thursday and Friday, September 18th and 19th next. The Convention will be attended by William Reynolds, the President of the Fifth International Sunday School Convention and probably one or more specialists. A programme is being prepared, embracing some of the best Sunday school talent in the State. The programme will be published as soon as completed. It is the desire and intention of the Executive Committee to make this one of the best conventions ever held in the State.

Wide Awake for September.

In taking up the September Wide Awake, both the juveniles and the elders will turn at once to Mr. Ward's Andover serial; the chapters in this issue ought to be read in every college in the land. C. E. Garland has a capital story in this number, "The Last Baseball of the Season." Preston Lee Otis gives a strong story, too, of Southern life entitled "Rijane." "My Friend, Ah Gieg," a San Francisco story, will interest the boys. "The Quest of the Whipping-Boy" ends in this number. "Four Fire-Buckets," is a good lesson for officious little girls. "She did not go to Cook-School," will be sure to be in demand for entertainments. There are several unusually fine illustrated papers in the number. "Helen's Tower," "Capturing a Sea-Cow," and "An Obscure Hero," giving an account of Mr. Hadley's work for the Indians. "Business" paper for young women, "Margaret-Patty Letter," "The English Cowlip," "The Little Hohenzollerns," with its beautiful picture, "Summer Evening Diversions" and the original anecdotes and short talks in "Men and Things" complete the prose miscellany. The poems are by Mrs. Thomas Sargeant Perry, Mrs. Clara Doty Bates and Ellen V. Talbot; the number includes also a beautiful "Motion Song," words and music both by Mrs. Ormiston Chant, and an amusing Puk-Wudjie chapter, "The Cone Dance." Wide Awake is $2.40 a year. D. Lothrop Company, Publishers, Boston, Mass.

Is Mr. Arnold to Leave Us?

Rev. C. L. Arnold, Rector of St. Paul's Church, in this city, who conducted a mission in Goldsboro last week, has gone to Pennsylvania for a week. The members of St. Stephen's Church have fallen in love with him and are anxious to have him accept the charge of their parish. The Dispatch says that he is the unanimous choice of the congregation and that a call would have been extended to him but for his earnest request that it be not done. It also says that Mr. Arnold is well pleased with Goldsboro and that it is the general opinion that he will accept the charge of the Church. The Argus says:

"The mission services that have been in vogue for a week, daily, at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in this city, under the conduct of Rev. C. L. Arnold, of Wilmington, closed last night with, perhaps, the most powerful of all the truly excellent sermons of the series that the above learned, eloquent and convincingly earnest divine had preached during the mission. The enthusiasm in church work that he has engendered among the members of the above congregation and the interest he has aroused generally in the cause of religion is indeed wonderful, preaching as he does without ostentation, but with a fervor that is eloquent and irresistible in drawing hearers and winning souls to Christ. He has taken a hold on our good people, and especially among the members of St. Stephen's congregation, who, we learn, have extended him a call, which he is now considering. Should he accept, he may be assured of a warm welcome in Goldsboro. He leaves to-day to fill an engagement with a church in Pennsylvania for a week."

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasing to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Pender County Institute.

A friend at Burgaw contributes the following relative to the Teachers' Institute held there last week: "Notwithstanding we have a sprightly and excellent paper published in our county we have been so long accustomed to the use of the columns of your most generous and highly appreciated paper, which has always been so zealous an advocate of the good people of Pender, we find it quite natural to continue our communications to the REVIEW.

This has been quite an interesting, instructive and gala week for the people of Burgaw. The Teachers' Institute opened here on the 11th inst., under the supervision of that progressive and proficient educator, Prof. J. Y. Joyner, of Goldsboro, assisted by our worthy Superintendent, Mr. James F. Moore, who is always found at his post of duty, pleasant and agreeable to all. The attendance was full, both of teachers and spectators, and everybody appeared to take a deep interest in the proceedings, which were instructive and advantageous to all. The teachers of Pender have received some valuable instruction in the way of methods and principles of teaching. In fact, the whole proceedings was a school of inestimable value to all and those who did not feel edified and encouraged at the result failed to comprehend some of the most explicit and simple illustrations, methods and analyses produced in the catalogue of public school exhibitions in North Carolina. Prof. Joyner certainly ingratiated himself in the good graces of the people of Pender and they all love and admire him. His exercises were all pleasant and agreeable. The recesses were spent in dispensing vocal and instrumental music, which was very enjoyable, and at night there were lectures from Drs. Sanders, Satchwell and Buie and Mr. Bruce Williams. They were all good and appropriate and delivered in the happiest style.

"We are not having so much rain this week as we have had. Crops are good and fodder-pulling is the order of the day."

Reputation.

The reputation of a man is made up of what people say of him. In like manner the reputation of a medicine depends on what they who have used it say. No remedy in existence has so good a reputation as a blood remedy as B B B (Botanic Blood Balm). It is a successful physician's prescription and quickly cures both mild and terrible cases of bad blood.

Dr. L. A. Guild, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "Wm. Sealock, living on my place, had an ugly running ulcer on his arm which ordinary remedies failed to control. As a last resort I placed him on a use of B B B and the ulcer began to heal at once, and effected an entire cure. It is a remedy well worthy of confidence."

Dr. J. E. Hall, Druggist at Americus, Ga., writes: "A planter near this place had several of his best laborers effected with Syphilis. He got them B B B and pronounced them all well. A gang of A. P. & L. Railroad hands use B B B with great benefit to counteract the effects of swamp malaria."
