 DIVIDEND NOTICE—W. M. Cummings & Trust Co

We lose this month 64 minutes of daylight.

This month has five Mondays and five Tuesdays.

Dr. E. Porter, of Rocky Point, was in the city to-day.

The receipts of cotton at this port to day foot up 276 bales.

See ad. of Mr. Martin T. Davis of dwellings and offices for rent.

Mr. C. F. Hunter, at No. 4 North Water street, has now on draught both porter and ale.

Mr. C. I. Comfort will be on the Arion Quartette excursion to-night with his phonograph.

"Why, now I cannot get enough to eat," says one lady who formerly had no appetite, but took Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Harry C. James, of Biloxi, Miss., accompanied by his mother and his son, is here on a visit to his uncle, Mr. John S. James.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

The first day of Autumn was a characteristic one. The wind has been from the East and there was a decidedly "fallish" feeling in the atmosphere.

With "Regal" Paint on your house and "Plastico" on your walls, your house will be beautiful and your family happy. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co., factory agents.

New Push and Pull Blind Hinges. Locks the blind when opened or closed. Saves labor and cost of putting on inside fastenings, which are not needed with these hinges. Carpenters, it will pay you to examine and use same. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Mr. B. F. Penny, with his wife and daughter, left this morning for New York, where this enterprising clothier goes for the purpose of purchasing Fall and Winter goods for the double clothing store to be occupied by him, an improvement noted by us a week or so ago.

We have it now. A Pump that is always primed, never requiring a tub of water to start it. It is the bright invention of a North Carolina genius and is pronounced by all to be the best pump on the market. See it and you will have no other. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Forecasts.
 For North Carolina, fair weather followed by light rains in the south east portion and stationary temperature.

Local forecasts from 8 a. m. to day, for Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather and stationary temperature.

To Dispel Colds,
 Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

The Georgia, Carolina & Northern.
 The Georgia, Carolina & Northern Railway, of the Seaboard Air Line, is now open to Clinton, S. C., a distance of 91 miles from Monroe, and will be opened for business to Greenwood, 119 miles, by September 15th. At Greenwood this line will tap the Port Royal & Western Carolina Road of the Georgia-Central system which will give them a connection to Augusta, Ga.

A Good Showing.
 The Directors of the Wilmington Savings & Trust Co. have declared a semi-annual dividend of three per cent., payable on and after to-day. This means that the institution is paying now at the rate of a clear six per cent. a year. In half-yearly declarations. The company, we understand, is now on a very prosperous footing. There are 1,800 depositors at this date and the aggregate deposits amount to $400,000.

King Cotton.

The receipts of cotton for the crop year closing with yesterday foot up 134,916 bales, against 152,279 bales for the year 1889, a decrease of 17,363 bales. Receipts for other crop years are as follows: For 1888, 168,808 bales; for 1887, 134,307 bales; for 1886, 101,537 bales; for 1885, 94,054 bales; for 1884, 91,701 bales; for 1883, 128,621 bales; for 1882, 137,341 bales; for 1881, 115,316 bales; for 1880, 78,889 bales; for 1879, 108,518 bales; for 1878, 123,374 bales; for 1877, 113,461 bales; for 1876, 83,420 bales.

The Meeting at Masonboro.

There was very large congregations at all of the three services held yesterday in Masonboro Baptist Church. The first was the Mass Meeting of the Sunday School at 10 o'clock in the morning and at that the congregation was so large that the church could not hold the people and a great many stood outside. At this service many were present from the city and a great deal of interest and enthusiasm were manifested. The second meeting was held at 11 o'clock and an excellent sermon was delivered by Rev. Mr. Wooten. At the close of this service dinner was prepared. All who were present carried baskets and a table was filled with delightful viands. At 2 o'clock the bell again rang for service and Rev. Miles Walton preached a fine sermon. There was then an intermission until 7:30 o'clock, when Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of this city, preached one of his most excellent discourses. The services will be continued every night this week, by the Pastor, Rev. H. M. Croon, assisted by Rev. Dr. Pritchard, Rev. R. E. Peele and others.

Gallant and Heroic Rescue.

A narrow escape from drowning occurred late last Saturday afternoon at Ocean View. Two ladies, Mrs. J. J. Hayes and her sister, Miss Irene Jackson, were bathing in the surf and were caught in the undertow and carried out. Both are expert swimmers but the scuffle against the action of the water was too much for their strength and they called for assistance. Mr. Thos. M. Webb, of this city, who had just come out from the surf, heard the cries and rushed to their assistance. He carried with him a life preserver and placed it around Miss Jackson, who was first reached by him. Mrs. Hayes had sunk by this time but Mr. Webb, who was then almost completely exhausted, caught at her skirt and held her up. At this time Mr. E. E. Turlington, Manager of the Ocean View Hotel, came to the rescue and caught Mrs. Hayes just as she was again sinking. He was aided soon after by Mr. C. J. Terrell, Train Dispatcher of the C. C. R. R., who assisted him in bringing the lady to the shore. Messrs. Turlington and Terrell went in with their clothes on, only waiting to divest themselves of their coats and shoes. Mrs. Hayes was unconscious when brought to the shore, Miss Jackson was prostrated and Mr. Webb was utterly exhausted, but soon all had recovered. It was a gallant, chivalrous rescue on the part of each and every gentleman and some fitting public acknowledgement should be made of the fact.

Strong Men.

Women love strong men. A weak man may excite their sympathy and a woman's careful tenderness soothe and soften the anguish of a weak man's soul, but the laughing, joyous, warm, exuberant love of women dear, belongs to the men that are strong and noble and kind. Then why will a man continue weak, and men and peevish?
 An old gentleman writes: "B. B. B. gives me new life and strength. If there is anything that will make an old man young, it is B. B. B." Some men say, and women too, they never feel weak and mean except in the spring. Why then feel weak and mean and nervous and prostrated in the spring time when life and spirit awakens with thrilling buoyancy even the vegetable world? Must you allow sluggish blood, inactive organic functions, rusty joints and general weakness to make your life miserable simply because the long winter has restrained your natural activity? It need not be. If only you will use that pleasant and incomparable tonic blood purifier known as B. B. B. or Botanic Blood Balm your health in spring time will be all that you can wish. Try it this spring. Try it now.
 P. A. Shephard, Norfolk, Va., August 10, 1888, writes: "I depend on B. B. B. for the preservation of my health. I have had it in my family nearly two years, and in all that time have not had to have a doctor."

First of the Season.

The theatrical season will open here on Thursday night at the Opera House with the delightful absurdity, "McCarthy's Mishaps," which we all remember so well as presented last Winter. It is a real, rollicking, knock down comedy with but little plot but with lots of laugh in it. It abounds in ludicrous situations and with opportunities for introducing songs, dances and other specialties. The box sheet will be open at Yates' on Wednesday morning.

Meteorological.

Mr. F. P. Chaffee, Signal Corps Observer at this point, reports as follows for the month of August:
 Mean barometer, 30.09; highest, 30.29, on the 17th; lowest, 29.88, on the 29th. Mean temperature, 76 degrees; highest, 89, on 27th; lowest, 60, on 24th; greatest daily range, 20, on 30th; least daily range, 9, on 18th; total deficiency for month, 62; total excess since January 1st, 483. Prevailing direction of wind, S. W.; total movement, 4,573 miles; greatest velocity, 30 miles, N. W., on 2nd. Total precipitation, 6.48 inches; number of days on which rain fell, 17; total precipitation in August, 1889, 7.81; in 1888, 4.61; in 1887, 9.88; in 1886, 1.38; in 1885, 5.87; in 1884, 9.58; in 1883, 5.19; in 1882, 8.09; in 1881, 4.99; total excess in precipitation during the month, 1.21 inches; total excess since January 1, 10.17. There were 6 cloudless days, 15 partly cloudy and 10 cloudy. There were thunder storms on the 8th, 10th, 22d, 27th and 29th.

Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin.

The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin, issued by the North Carolina Experiment Station and State Weather Service, co-operating with the United States Signal Service, show that the week ending Saturday last has been generally favorable for the maturing of crops. The temperature has been about the average during the day time but the nights have been too cool. The temperature ranged during the week from 94 to 52 degrees. The weather was rather dry until the 28th, on which day copious rains fell. Some very heavy showers occurred Thursday night at a number of places. The average rainfall for the week was 1.65 inches, which is .25 of an inch above the normal. September is generally a dryer month than August. The cotton crop is still above the average. It is opening rapidly and picking is in progress. New cotton is already in market. The tobacco crop also will be a fine one. Cutting and curing is going on, and the curings are generally reported good. The rains during August have, however, made in the lowlands a rank growth and there will be some rough, coarse tobacco which is too big for treatment. The crop of corn, rice and potatoes is good.

Music on Water.

An excellent programme has been arranged for the excursion to be given to-night to Carolina Beach by the Arion Quartette Club. There will be a regular concert on board the boat and this alone will be worth the cost of the trip. The Grove will leave at 8 o'clock and return to the city at 12. The selections for the concert are as follows:

- Quartette—"Rowing Swiftly Down the Stream;" Toomer, Mitchell, Welsh and Manning.
- Solo—"Tars Farewell;" G. P. Welsh.
- Quartette—"The Huntsman's Farewell;" Arion Quartette.
- Song and Chorus—"Some Day I'll Wander Back;" G. P. Welsh and chorus.
- Quartette—"Where Would I Be;" Arion Quartette.
- Duo—"Lonely Bird;" French and Welsh.
- Quartette—"Shine Softly;" Arion Quartette.
- Song and Chorus—"Drifting;" Manning and chorus.
- Quartette—"Champagne Song;" Arion Quartette.
- Quartette—"Artillerist's Oats;" Arion Quartette.
- Song and chorus—"Call Me Your Darling;" French and chorus.
- Quartette—"Wanderer's Return;" Arion Quartette.
- Solo—"Midshipmite;" G. P. Welsh.
- Quartette—"Speed Away;" Arion Quartette.
- Quartette—"Moonlight on the Lake;" Arion Quartette.
- Quartette—"March;" Arion Quartette.
- Quartette—"Good Night;" Arion Quartette.
- I. H. Greenwald—Pianist.

NO ONE of any consequence would be caught using any other than Rough on Dirt Family Soap.

Big Fresh in the River.

Capt. Tomlinson, of the Cape Fear, reports a big freshet in the Cape Fear. The water was very high when he left there Saturday morning. It will be a 40-foot freshet and the water may go even higher than that mark. It is almost certain that the fine crops in the Bladen county lowlands will be ruined. Up to this time they have escaped and it is said that some few of the farmers are even now cutting the corn and carting it off. The fodder crop will probably all be saved but the corn is as yet too green and will be fit for nothing after a few days. It is possible, however, that some of the corn left in the fields will be saved. It is a great pity as the Bladen county river lands are very prolific. They are like Mississippi bottom lands—fertilized every winter by the washings from the interior. But they are subject to the same overflow in the summer and not more than one crop in three is saved.

Found Dead in Bed.

An old white man by the name of R. N. Eagles was found dead in his room this morning in the Wessell building, on Front street, nearly opposite the market. He had not been seen since Saturday and Officer Kunold was notified and failing to obtain response to repeated knocks on the door burst it open and found him lying dead in bed. The old man was perfectly nude, excepting a small piece of cloth across his chest. It was thus, it is said, that he always slept. Coroner Jacobs was notified and called on Dr. Potter to examine the body. He did so and pronounced that death resulted from natural causes. The verdict of the jury was in accordance and the remains were interred to-day in Oak Grove Cemetery.

But little is known of the man or his past history. It is said that he hailed from Texas and fought in the Mexican war and as a Confederate soldier in the late war and had seen service on the frontier. For several years he had spent the Summer in this city, leaving here in the Fall. His tall, slim figure was often seen of late on South Front street. He left but little in the way of personal effects, part of these being $20 in money. He was about 75 years old.
