ONE ENJOYS

Over 18,000 pupils were flogged in the Boston schools last year. The Boston schools seem to be given mostly to "manual training."

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat thinks it "very evident" that the Republicans of Vermont understood the talk of tariff reform by the party speakers and newspapers in 1888 to mean tariff reduction.

Artisan wells have developed such an abundant supply of water in the Desert of Sahara that French engineers are confident of being able to extend their railroad to a week's journey from Algeria right through the desert.

It is proposed to start in London a system which will enable business men to call a messenger, a cab, a fire engine or a doctor, by simply pressing a button. A central office will supply all the requirements upon receiving the alarm.

It is estimated in Georgia that 80 per cent of the members of the next State Legislature will be Alliance men. The Savannah News says that "if they put the Democratic party before the Alliance there will be no occasion to find fault with them."

King Humbert's hair has become snow white, much to the distress of Queen Marguerite, who is most anxious that her husband should follow the example of his father and the fashion common among elder Piedmontese officers, and dye his hair. Her pleadings were, however, of no avail.

The Russian Government has ordered that all medical and pharmaceutical students shall be henceforth accustomed to the decimal system of weights and measures, with the view to making this system the only legal one for prescriptions to be written in after the lapse of five years.

Dr. Henry Muirhead, the late president of the Glasgow Philosophical Society, has bequeathed the sum of $125,000 for the erection and endowment of a college which shall be devoted entirely to the instruction of women in the theory and practice of medicine and surgery, dentistry, electricity and chemistry.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat, a Republican paper of intelligence and discretion, frankly admits that it would be useless as well as criminal to deny that the situation throughout the country is far from being encouraging to the Republicans. In all the elections held with in the past few weeks, it says, the party lost ground.

Sir Ambrose Shea, Governor of the Bahamas, has discovered that a species of cactus, which grows everywhere about the islands, and which the inhabitants were endeavoring to exterminate, regarding it as weed, contains a fibre which produces a substance closely resembling the finest hemp. The result has been that the crown lands in the colony have quadrupled in value.

Erastus Winan's plan for constructing a two track railway tunnel under New York bay between Staten Island and Brooklyn is said to be favored by New York capitalists and railway men. The entire cost is estimated at $5,000,000. Mr. Winan is quoted as saying that the transportation of coal alone would make the investment a paying one. Rosebank and Bay Ridge are the proposed termini of the tunnel.

Admiral Porter, who younger officers in the American navy may think as obsolete as one of his old wooden flag-ships, says that the mistakes of ten years in naval construction have given us a squadron of evolution that will not "evolute." He thinks it a great error "to build cruisers without sail power adequate for prolonged sea voyages, such as the Alabama took during the civil war. It was Capt. Semmes' custom to husband his fuel for action and a sharp run after or away from an enemy, but the various vessels of the "white" squadron would be almost helpless without their coal.

There were fine rains yesterday at Burgaw.

Capt. N. H. Sprunt, of Kenansville, is in the city on a brief visit.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day top up 1,054 bales.

Sweet potatoes sell here from carts at 75 to 80 cents a bushel. They are quoted at 50 to 60 cents in Newbern.

Delightfully cool and pleasant last night for sleeping. This is real September weather—warm days and cool nights.

Little Adolph Paul, the four-year-old son of Mr. Nathan Paul, died last evening of his injuries and was interred this morning.

Every tissue of the body, every nerve, bone and muscle is made stronger and more healthy by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

At Burgaw yesterday 103 acres of land were sold at public auction for $181. It was not the best land in Pender county, not by a long odds.

Mr. Harry C. James, of Biloxi, Miss., who with his mother and little son have been on a visit to relatives here for a week past, left on their return home last night.

With "Regal" Paint on your house and "Plastico" on your walls, your house will be beautiful and your family happy. Sold by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. factory agents.

All ladies who feel disposed to aid a most worthy object by contributing a cake to the Oxford Asylum excursion on Friday, are requested to send it in to-morrow to one of the committee.

A big excursion party from Mt. Airy came in this afternoon on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. They will go to the Hammocks and Ocean View to-morrow and will take in Carolina Beach on Friday.

Raleigh News and Observer: Mrs. George W. Kidder (Mrs. Florence Hill Kidder), of Wilmington, has been appointed as one of the two lady commissioners from North Carolina of the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago.

The new chairs in the parquette of the Opera House will seat 400 people. In the dress circle, above, there are seats for 300. The four boxes will seat 20. Outside estimate of seating capacity, exclusive of gallery, 750.

Tickets for the excursion to be given on Friday by the Masonic lodges in this city for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, are on sale at the book and drug stores, or may be had of the committee. The outlook is good for a large party.

We have it now. A Pump that is always primed, never requiring a tub of water to start it. It is the bright invention of a North Carolina genius and is pronounced by all to be the best pump on the market. See it and you will have no other. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

The Raleigh News and Observer says that cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Judge and Mrs. James C. MacRae, of Fayetteville, to Mr. Edmund J. Lilly, Jr., to take place Wednesday morning, September 17, at 8 o'clock, in St. John's Church.

Superior Court at Southport, which convened on Monday, will probably adjourn to-day. Col. Waddell, Mr. Ricard, Mr. Meares and Mr. Bellamy, who went down on Monday, have returned. Mr. Cutlar, Mr. Bellamy and Mr. Ricard went up to Burgaw this morning to attend Pender County Court.

Verily, people do read the REVIEW occasionally and some think that it pays to advertise therein. Mr. B. F. Swann got in a barrel of strained honey last Friday and advertised it in the REVIEW on that day. The advertisement appeared in no other paper and yesterday morning the honey had all been sold. He who runs may read.

Col. W. Foster French, of Lumberton, is in the city on a brief visit.

Mr. Ed. A. Hawes, of Black River, Pender county, was in the city yesterday.

The tide was unusually high at the sounds yesterday, caused by the Easterly winds.

The beautiful golden rod, the flower of the Fall, is blooming freely now in the woods around the city.

We understand that the Pilots' Association, at Southport, is to be dissolved on the 19th inst. There are 42 pilots at the mouth of the river.

We are very sorry to hear that there is no improvement in Mr. W. S. Warrock's condition. He is very sick at his residence on Masonboro.

There have been frosts up in the Northwest and a cold wave but we get nothing of the kind down here; only a slight coolness—a very slight one—between the earth and the sky.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Pulliam left here last night for Chicago. Mr. Pulliam goes there to attend a convention of trace and chain agents. He represents the W. & W. and W. C. & A. Railroads.

Col. John Wilder Atkinson, of this city, has been appointed by Gov. Fowle as one of the delegates from this State to the Trades Convention of the Southern States, to be held at Atlanta September 10th.

Mr. Geo. S. LeGrand, Chief Clerk in the Auditor's office, A. C. Line, has returned from a short jaunt to the mountains. His family, who have spending some time in the West, returned with him.

Not all of the cottagers at Carolina Beach will return to the city this week, as stated by us yesterday. Some will remain there until cold weather. There will be daily communication with the beach and September and October are delightful months at the seaside.

The new chairs are all up now in the Opera House as the last of them were expected to be in position this afternoon. They are of the most improved design and are quite handsome, admirably setting off and greatly adding to the appearance of the parquette. The frames of the chairs are bronzed iron and the seats and backs are mahogany, upholstered in broadened crimson plush. The seats fold up and the backs are adjustable, being automatically thrown into the proper position when the seats are let down for use. They are arranged in semi circular rows around the house, and space has been so well economized in placing them in position that a hundred and fifty more people can now be seated than when the old chairs were in use. The front chairs are also somewhat higher than the old ones, thus affording a much better view of the stage than heretofore.

Another Fatal Accident.
A colored train hand by the name of Thos. Hays, who hails from Magnolia, was knocked from a freight train early this morning and fatally injured. He was on top of a box car on the freight which left here on the W. & W. R. R. at 6 o'clock this morning and was struck by Sixth street bridge, as the train passed under it. At least this is the supposition as he was found shortly after the train passed lying on the track between the rails, and unconscious. The poor fellow was terribly mangled. His left arm was cut off at the shoulder, his left leg was crushed almost to a jelly, there were severe bruises on his left side and his right hand was cut off. It is thought that he was at the end of a car, at the brake, when he was struck by the bridge and that he must have fallen between the cars. He was carried to the hospital and received every care and attention, but it was impossible for him to recover and he died about 2 o'clock to-day. Coroner Jacobs was notified and will hold an inquest.

Headaches and Fevers, to cleanse the system effectually, yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, use Syrup of Figs.

Aground on Cape Fear.
A dispatch from Mr. Demain, the Signal Observer at Southport, says that the steam yacht Mignon, Capt. J. H. Pugh, bound from New York to Savannah, grounded last night, at 8 o'clock, on the extreme point of Cape Fear. The vessel is a total loss. The crew of five, including the captain, were saved by the Cape Fear Life Saving crew.

Very Late in the Season.
Mr. T. Donlan, Superintendent of Oakdale Cemetery, has sent us a magnolia blossom, in full bloom. We have never before seen one as late as this. They usually blossom in May and June and disappear about the first of July and here is one in bloom on the 10th day of September. It has been a wonderful year, in more respects than one.

The Old and the New.
There was a fine time last night at the banks party given by the Carolina Yacht Club at the Club House on Wrightsville Beach. There was music, dancing and refreshments and a good time generally. To the anti-bellumites these things are reminders of the old days when parties would assemble at Wrightsville or Masonboro on some beautiful moonlight night, start out half dozen boats or so, take along a little music and make the rafters of the banks house ring with fun and jollity all night long, and then go home with the girls in the morning, sailing over to the main with the grey dawn, and get back to town about sun up, tired and sleepy, weary and worn, but as happy as a clam. Such things were more rare in those days than they are now and more difficult of achievement and hence, for this reason alone, if for no other, they were really more enjoyable than those of to-day. At least, so it seems to one old-timer, looking back through a mist of years, and mayhap of tears.

Belford's Magazine.
The September issue of Belford's Magazine is decidedly a gem. It is the best we have yet seen of this excellent monthly. There are 29 articles in the number, counting in each of the departments, (which cover a variety of subjects), as one, Thomas Fortune, the well known colored newspaper man of New York, leads off with a decidedly sensible article, relative to the race problem, followed by J. T. Searcy, M. D., on the same subject. "Winning a Wife in Louisiana" is a charming sketch of the old days; Julian Hawthorne discusses "Gymnastic Systems"; "The Recent English Impress on American Life" is a thoughtful and timely paper; General Gordon, "the Hero and the Man," is the subject of an excellent article from the pen of Col. Chaille-Long. Alexander White has some pleasant reminiscences under the head of "Editors I Have Known." E. N. Val landigham puts in a "Strong Plea for State Rights." H. H. Ballard asks "Is the Earth a Snowball," and proceeds to answer the question himself; Admiral Porter has a very pretty little romance (which he does not dignify as such, however), on "President Lincoln's Entrance into Richmond." John Moran discusses "Intellectual Cave Dwellers" and Donn Piatt gives us the first part of an exceedingly interesting paper on "Memoirs and Memories of John C. Fremont." There are other excellent papers which we cannot mention here in detail, the departments are full and unusually interesting and here and there the number is punctuated with a pretty poem. Belford Co., New York, at $3.50 a year.
