Absolutely Pure.

A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—U. S. Government Report, Aug. 17, 1889.

The Daily Review.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 24, 1890.

STATE NEWS.

Raleigh News and Observer: News comes from all quarters that the whole of North Carolina will be represented at the State Convention of Democratic Clubs to-morrow. It is definitely certain that at least one hundred clubs will be represented.

Greensboro Patriot: An intelligent gentleman, who has just passed through going farther South, informed our reporter that at least $10,000,000 capital had been brought to Southwest Virginia within the past two weeks, and that this state of things would continue until North Carolina would get a large share.

Newbern Journal: Thomas Morris, an industrious, hard-working colored man, who for many years has acted as stevedore in Newbern, dropped dead from heart disease yesterday afternoon. — Mr. E. M. Foscoe, a well-known farmer of Jones county, was taken with a stroke of paralysis in the right side, about nine o'clock yesterday morning, while in his gin house attending to ginning cotton, and he continued very ill up to last night.

Greensboro Workman: A revival that has been going on at Lee's Chapel since Sunday, the 14th inst., closed last night. We hear that there were a great many conversions. — A call was made by the pastor, E. W. Smith, yesterday at the Westminster church for $1,000 for the support of a missionary in Japan, and though the congregation is not large, the amount subscribed footed up $1,310.48. The money will be applied to the support of missionary Bryan Grinan in Japan. — Dr. R. K. Gregory has obtained patents on his new treatment and bandages for wounds in this and several foreign countries. They are already in great demand. Dr. Gregory proposes to organize a stock company and erect a factory here for the manufacture of his medicines and bandages.

Robesonian: Mr. B. F. McLaughlin, of Fentel, fell from his loaded wagon and was killed by the wheel last Friday evening. He had been to Red Springs and was found dead by Mrs. D. P. McEachern, near Mill-prong we suppose, and the wheel of the wagon standing on his breast. — Last Saturday night, just after dark, several negroes entered the store of Mr. Jacob Rothz in Maxton, and acted in such a peculiar manner as to draw forth a protest from the proprietor. A difficulty ensued during which one of the negroes cut Mr. Rothz's throat in two places. One of the places was deep and made a very close call for his life. The negroes escaped. Mr. Rothz had a difficulty with a negro woman in the afternoon and it is reported slapped her. It is supposed that the night affair resulted from the quarrel with the woman. Mr. Rothz's life was evidently saved by his collar button, which has the appearance of having been cut with a chisel.

1890. Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED

A new Shakespeare—the Shakespeare of EDWIN A. ABBEY—will be presented in HARPER'S MAGAZINE for 1890. With comments by ANDREW LANG. HARPER'S MAGAZINE has also made special arrangements with ALPHONSE DAUBER, the greatest of living French novelists, for the exclusive publication, in serial form, of a humorous story, to be entitled "The Colonists of Tarascon: the Last Adventure of the famous Tartarin." The story will be translated by HENRY JAMES, and illustrated by ROSS and MYRBACK.

W. D. HOWELLS will contribute a novelette in three parts, and LAFORDIO HEARN a novelette in two parts, entitled "Youna," handsomely illustrated.

In illustrated papers, touching subjects of current interest, and in its short stories, poems, and timely articles, the MAGAZINE will maintain its well-known standard.

THE ONLY ILLUSTRATED RELIGIOUS WEEKLY WORTHY OF THE NAME.

The Illustrated Religious Weekly is a seven page, fresh, up-to-date, weekly paper, containing religious, moral, and political articles, and illustrations of the highest character and intellectual ability. It is as instructive as any religious paper published in the United States.

Associate Editors: The highest representatives of the leading bodies of the One Church of Our Lord Jesus Christ, each issue containing, as a rule, a signed, editorial by one of them, and an able exposition of the International Sunday School Lessons. All the departments will be reinforced by the First-Class Illustrations, made to explain and render more interesting and instructive the Sunday School or subject treated. These illustrations will always be an attractive feature of the paper, and made during the year a volume of over 300 First-Class Illustrations.

A magnificent Olograph Reproduction in Fourteen Oil Colors, Accurately Representing the Original of Munkesley's Great Painting.

"CHRIST BEFORE PILATE,"

So large as to require a special representation of the facial expression of each person, with all the details of the scene, is given to every subscriber, rendering it a valuable addition to the collection of religious pictures. Subscribers to the paper will gladly send specimen copies. Also descriptive circulars.

HE-NO TEA FREE.

"Exaggerated claims in many advertisements have made people tired."

This recent saying has the right ring and we accept its suggestion.

We are the importers of HE-NO TEA. We propose increasing its sale in Wilmington. Not by praising it, but by giving you, free of all cost, enough HE-NO TEA to last a week.

"The proof of the pudding is in the eating." An old adage which suggests another, "A word to the wise is sufficient."

Send us a postal card with your address, and, for a limited time, we will mail any one in Wilmington, free, a package of HE-NO TEA, and an interesting book about tea. You risk a postal card.

We risk your liking the tea so well that you will continue to use it. If you do not we make a loss. Thus we show our confidence in the merits of HE-NO TEA.
