LOCAL NEWS.

INDEX TO NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
P. CHRIST—Removal
F. W. BROWN—Furniture
MUNDS BROTHERS—Druggists
MRS. B. H. BENJAMIN—At auction
C. W. YATES—Sam Jones Song Books
H. A. TUCKER—Granite, marble, etc.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,748 bales.

Hot Bed Sash and Glass for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

There is very little good wood in market now. It is needed.

Many of the visitors here go down to the coast on the Seacoast R. R. every day.

The heavy rains of Saturday last extended nearly 150 miles West of Wilmington.

Mulberry street sidewalks, between Front and Third, were badly washed during the recent rains.

The peculiar enervating effect of summer weather is driven off by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which "makes the weak strong."

Visitors to our city should certainly not fail to call on the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. for anything wanting in their line.

Mrs. B. R. Benjamin, at 208 North Front street, will sell at auction to-morrow her entire household and kitchen furniture.

Use Regal Ready-mixed Paint, and have no other, if you want a good, durable article; for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

Mr. Council Frazier Scott, of the Atlantic Coast Line, running between this city and Charleston, died at his home near Goldsboro on Saturday morning, aged 36 years.

We have in stock an immense variety of Cook Stoves, all styles and sizes. Prices away down and Stoves guaranteed to give satisfaction. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

A large line of Breech and Muzzle-loading Shot Guns, Air Rifles and Pistols; all grades at lowest prices. Wood Powder and sportsmen's supplies just received. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Steve Jacobs, the Croatan desperado and outlaw of Robeson county, was to have been hanged Friday, but for good reasons the Governor respited him until October 10th.

Our clever neighbor, Mr. P. Christ, is removing his bakery and fruit store to South Front street, nearly opposite Front Street Market, from whence he will hereafter supply his customers.

We were all forcibly reminded yesterday of the fact that the Summer is dead and gone. Fires and overcoats and blankets were comfortable companions last night and this morning.

Messrs. H. A. Tucker and Co. are now ready to estimate on all kinds of monuments and stone work. Those in want of anything in their line would do well to consult them at once. See ad.

Mr. John D. Bellamy, Jr., returned to the city last night after an absence of several months in Europe, during which he visited a large portion of Great Britain and Ireland, France, Germany, Switzerland and Belgium.

Mrs. Wilkins, Miss Wilkins and two children, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are here on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Tienken, of this city. They were passengers on the steamship Benefactor, which arrived here yesterday.

There are a great many strangers in the city. They come and go by every train. A great many left on Saturday night, having ridden a hundred miles or more to see Sam Jones and then having to return home without achieving that distinguished honor.

We hear that the collections at the Tabernacle are not satisfactory. It is said that it costs $200 a day to keep up the meetings and that the receipts are not much more than half that amount. Nickles seem to be as big as dollars in the eyes of many in the congregation.

Forecasts.
For North Carolina, rain and stationary temperature.

Local forecasts from 8 a. m. to-day, for Wilmington and vicinity, threatening weather, occasional rains and stationary temperature.

Syrup of Figs.
Produced from the laxative and nutritious juice of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

They Favor Wilmington.
A gentleman who has recently travelled over the Carolina Central and the C. F. & Y. V. roads tell us that Wilmington is running Richmond pretty close now in the way of selling heavy groceries. The people of Mount Airy and that section, in especial, seem particularly desirous of doing all their trading here and all things being equal they will do it. It is for our merchants to see that they can buy to as good advantage here as anywhere else.

Will Tender His Resignation.
We regret very much to learn that Rev. Mr. Arnold will probably leave Wilmington for a new field of labor. He notified his congregation last night that he would to-morrow hand in his resignation of the pastoral charge of St. Paul's Church. He may, or may not, accept the charge of St. Stephen's, in Goldsboro.

We will be sorry to see Mr. Arnold leave Wilmington. He has worked faithfully and untiringly here and has accomplished a great deal of good.

Grading Camp Latimer.
Yesterday's Goldsboro Argus says: Mr. A. P. Holland was in town to-day looking for teams to use in his work of grading the parade ground at Camp Latimer on Wrightsville Sound, the contract for which was awarded him. He could only get six teams at Wrightsville and needs as many more. He says the job will last him three months and he is going to sink all his money in it. But that may be a joke! There is some very heavy grading to be done; hills levelled and ravines filled and it will cost the State $25,000 to put the ground in such shape as it should be. Not more than $10,000 will be expended at this time.

Superior Court.
The Fall term of the New Hanover Superior Court convened here this morning for the trial of cases on the docket. His Honor, Judge Armfield, presides, and Solicitor Allen represents the State. The following cases were disposed of to-day:

Alonso Smith vs. The Bladen Steamboat Co., non suit.

Hattie Lind vs. A. B. Lind, judgment for divorce.

Richard Godfrey vs. Lether Godfrey, judgment for divorce.

James E. Clark vs. Mary Eliza Clark, judgment for divorce.

R. W. Hicks, senior partner, vs. K. Pennington & Co., continued.

W. M. Latimer, guardian, vs. Fannie E. Latimer, et al., judgment for defendants.

G. W. Linder vs. H. C. Rosenham, judgment.

The Tabernacle.

Mr. Jones arrived here on Saturday evening and preached that night at the Tabernacle. He also preached on yesterday morning, in the afternoon and at night, the latter sermon being for men only. The attendance during the day was large but doubtless a great many more would have attended but for the inclement weather. Last night's meeting was for men only. There was not a lady in the house, but the masculine persuasion was out in force. It was by far the largest congregation yet in the tabernacle and the estimate is that there were 6,000 persons there. The service opened with prayer by Mr. Jones, after which he preached from Gen. 19c, 47v. He preached for an hour and a half. The closing prayer was by Rev. Dr. Creasy, Mr. Jones pronouncing the benediction.

Services were held also to-day at 6:30 a. m. and 3 p. m. and Mr. Jones will preach again to-night at 7:30.

LEAURELLE OIL.
Prevents tendency to wrinkles or ageing of the skin. Prevents withering of the skin or drying up of the flesh. Nature's wonder for preserving youth and freshness. $1.00, large bottles, at druggists.

Use of Water and Salt.

Salt is an absolute essential to the diet of man. It promotes health in various ways. Many of the functions of the body go on better under its influence, and without it the blood becomes impoverished. While a complete deprivation of salt would produce disastrous results, an excessive use of it would scarcely be less harmful. In large doses it acts as an emetic; in quantities beyond the requirements of health it irritates the stomach and intestines and sometimes purges. Those who use salt unusually freely almost always suffer more or less from constipation.

To drink large quantities of water daily should be the rule with those who suffer from constipation. Each day the system needs at least two quarts of water, as about that quantity is used up or thrown out of it every 24 hours. Fruit and vegetable foods contain much water, and in tea, coffee, soups, &c., considerable is taken habitually. In all ways, as stated, about two quarts of water should enter the stomach daily. It is a good plan to drink one or two glasses of water from half an hour to an hour before eating breakfast, and it may be either hot or cold as preferred. Whichever is used, the water should be slowly sipped. To deluge the stomach with cold water would be to invite dyspeptic troubles.

Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin.

The reports of correspondents of the Weekly Weather Crop Bulletin, issued by the North Carolina Experiment Station and State Weather Service, co-operating with the United States Signal Service, show that the past week has been favorable for farm work except in the Southern portion of the State where there has been insufficient sunshine and continual light showers, which, though doing no great damage to crops, prevented their being gathered. In the Northern portion of the State the weather was favorable for picking cotton and cutting tobacco, the temperature and sunshine being about the average. A general rain prevailed on the 25th and was especially heavy in the Southeastern portion of the Eastern District. Wilmington, New Hanover county, reports total rainfall for the week of 4.83 inches, of which about 3.50 fell on the 25th; Rocky Point, Pender county, 4.10 inches. Cotton is being picked as rapidly as the weather will permit; and corn is being gathered. Within the next week the tobacco crop will probably be secured. The wet weather has hindered the saving of fodder and damaged much of it. Farmers are preparing land for winter wheat. Reports indicate that the smaller crops, turnips, peas and potatoes will give an abundant yield. The average date of the first killing frost is October 10th, and farmers should be prepared for it.

"Don't Give up the Ship!"

Don't surrender, although the fight be long and bitter, and results thus far but dismal failures. Old Bad Blood may yet be conquered and disease driven from the citadel of life. You have not used the proper remedy, or long ago you would have felt a change. You have tried this and that, a hundred bottles of this specific and fifty bottles of that sarsaparilla, and feel you might as well have used so much rain water for all the good effect they had. Why have you not tried B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) made in Atlanta, Ga.? Because it isn't advertised so conspicuously as other remedies? Well, that's a poor reason. The greatest humbugs can afford the largest advertisements. As for B. B. B. try it, and if six bottles don't do you more good than all the other blood medicine you have ever taken, call it a humbug, a name that has never yet been applied to it by any one.

Walter Bridges, Athens, Tenn., writes: "For six years I had been afflicted with running sores and an enlargement of the bone in my leg. I tried everything I heard of without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood Balm was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed, and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited, because I want others to be benefited."

The office of the DAILY REVIEW and the WILMINGTON JOURNAL is being removed to No. 2 in the Currie building, on North Second street, near Princesses. It will take several days to get there and get in shape and we therefore apologize in advance for all errors, short comings, oversights, etc., that may happen this week.

Magazine of American History.
The contributors to the October number present a rare combination of eminence in the scholarly world. The number opens with an incomparable paper on the "Sources and Guarantees of National Progress," by Rev. Dr. R. S. Storrs, of Brooklyn. This is prefaced by an admirable portrait of the distinguished author. The second valuable paper, "The American Flag and John Paul Jones," is from the pen of Professor Dwight, of the Columbia Law School, New York. "Southold and her Homes and Memories," one of Mrs. Lamb's bright and entertaining articles, is illustrated with antique dwellings of one of the oldest towns on the continent. "The Historic Temple at New Windsor, 1783," together with a curious picture recently discovered, comes from the well known jurist, Hon. J. O. Dykman. "About Some Public Characters in 1786," we have a readable group of extracts from the private diary of Sir Frederick Haldimand. The "General Characteristics of the French Canadian Peasantry" furnishes much exceedingly interesting data on a theme of great present interest. "The Mountains and Mountaineers of Craddock's Flection," "Anecdotes of General Grenville M. Dodge," "The Story of Roger Williams Retold," "Antiquarian Riches of Tennessee," and the several departments of miscellany are excellent. This important magazine is in close sympathy with current affairs, and ahead of all its great contemporaries in stories of varied information worth preserving for all time. Price, $5.
