The receipts of cotton at this port

Hot Bed Sash and Glass for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Edwin W. Kerr, Esq., of the Clinton bar, is in the city to-day in attendance on the Superior Court.

The city has been billed for Washburn & Arlington's circus, which is to appear here on Monday next.

Somebody cut down last night the bill boards which covered a part of the front of the old Lord property, on Market street.

The declining powers of old age may be wonderfully recuperated and sustained by the daily use of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Visitors to our city should certainly not fail to call on the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. for anything wanting in their line.

Use Regal Ready-mixed Paint, and have no other, if you want a good, durable article; for sale by the N.
Jacobi Hdw. Co.

It is a good time now to buy new furniture. Housekeepers are invited to read the ad. of Messrs. Sneed & Co. in this issue.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

We have in stock an immense variety of Cook Stoves, all styles and sizes. Prices away down and Stoves guaranteed to give satisfaction. N.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of this city, is to preach the sermon at the dedication of the beautiful Memorial Baptist Church of Greenville, N. C., on the 10th of October.

The Mt. Airy excursionists all left on the return home last night. The train, which was a special, left here at 10:30, after the close of the services at the Tabernacle.

A large line of Breech and Muzzle-loading Shot Guns, Air Rifles and Pistols; all grades at lowest prices.
Wood Powder and sportsmen's supplies just received. N. Jacobi Hdw.

To-morrow is the big moving day here. The first of October is always a dreadful day to many housekeepers. Some were moving to-day, some moved yesterday and all will get settled before the close of the week.

A meeting of the Democratic Congressional Committee of the 6th District will be held at the Orton House in this city, on the 6th inst. Some very important matters in relation to the campaign are to be discussed at this meeting.

There are a great many strangers in the city, all come to hear Sam Jones. They arrive and depart on every train. As there are eleven incoming trains here each day there is every facility for reaching the city and leaving it. The Fayetteville steamers also bring many.

Syrup of Figs.
Produced from the laxative and nutritious juices of California figs, combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, acts gently, on the kidneys, liver and bowels, effectually cleansing the system, dissolving colds and headaches, and curing habitual constipation.

No Collector As Yet.
The first of October is at hand and as yet there is no Collector of Castoms for this port. It is time that some action should be taken in this matter. As yet there is only surmise. Mr. Geo. Z. French, Postmaster here, who stopped in Washington last week on his return home from an outing in Maine, says that all is in the dark as yet. He thinks, however, that some one in Wilmington will surely be named for the place and that neither Raleigh or any other outside town will furnish the man. Mr. French is himself not now a candidate for the place. The possibilities seem therefore narrowed down to three or four candidates.
Messrs. Chadbourne, VanAmringe, Foster and perhaps one or two others.

Forecasts.]

For North Carolina, rain and stationary temperature.

Local forecasts from 8 a. m. today, for Wilmington and vicinity, threatening weather, occasional sprinkles of rain and slightly cooler.

Colored Fire Parade.

The Phoenix Hose Reel Co. celebrated their eighth anniversary yesterday by a parade through the city in the afternoon and a festival at night at the City Hall. They were accompanied on the parade by the Dread Naughts and the Bannaker Hose Reel companies and were preceded by the Convivial Cornet Band.
The fire apparatus was also in line, handsomely decorated with flowers and evergreens. Col. Hall, Chief of Police, made them a very pretty speech at the City Hall and Thos.
Knight, of the Phoenix, responded heartily to Col. Hall's words of encouragement and cheer.

The Tabernacle.

Mr. Jones preached to a large congregation last night and also this morning and it is fair to presume that from this time out, until the close of his engagement here, the spacious building will be well filled. The congregation last night was the largest yet had. The estimate is that there were nearly 7,000 persons present as nearly every seat was occupied. It is thought that more than half of these were visitors to the city. It is noticed there are many ladies among these latter. The city ladies have been out in force ever since the meetings began.

The Sampson Democrats.

We regret to learn that there are some strong indications of a split among the Democrats of good old Sampson county. Considerable dissatisfaction has been expressed with the recent convention, on account of claims of irregularities, and we hear that another county convention has been called and that it will meet on Monday next, at Clinton.
Some of the best people in the county, it is said, are interested in this movement. We sincerely hope that all differences may be healed and that the staunch Democracy of Sampson county may march on harmoniously to a grand victory in November.

In a Terrible Stew.

For the first time in eight years we have had to "git up and git." The REVIEW has had an office on Market street ever since October, 1882. We are becoming domiciled on Second street, in the Currie building, near Princess. It is a big job and we are in a terrible mess. It will take days to get straight. Our office and composing room is to-day in the new quarters and the big press is still at the same old stand, where this issue is printed.
It will take several days to get straight and we must beg the indulgence of our readers for all shortcomings in this issue and the next.

Superior Court.

The following cases were disposed of in this court to-day:

E. H. Kidder et al., trustee, vs. W.
E. Mayo. Decree of foreclosure. Appeal by defendant.

Sol. C. Weill, receiver, vs. First National Bank. Judgment of Supreme Court affirming judgment of

V. E. Bunting vs. The Wilmington Mutual Insurance Co. Non suit.

The Wilmington Savings & Trust Co. vs. W. P. Canaday. Order to issue plures summons.

Clayton Giles and wife vs. C. B.
Wright and wife. Order.

The following cases are set for tomorrow:

R. W. Hicks vs. John McDuffie, et al. Cutlar for plaintiff; Sutton, Ray and Stedman for defendants.

Nancy L. Prevatt vs. R. E. L. Prevatt. Cutlar for plaintiff; no counsel for defendant.

H. A. London, Adm. vs. Mary E.
Quince, et al. Junius Davis for plaintiff; Rountree for defendant.

The Public Schools.

The public schools will open on Monday next. New pupils will be examined next Thursday at 9 a. m. at the Hemenway building on Fifth street, and at 3 p. m. of the same day, at the Union building, corner Sixth and Ann streets. Market street is the dividing line between districts Nos. 1 and 2. Pupils north of Market are to attend the Hemenway; those south of Market will attend the Union, and the committee will require that this is kept in all cases. Colored pupils will be examined Monday morning at the Peabody and Williston.

"Don't Give up the Ship."

Don't surrender, although the fight be long and bitter, and results thus far but dismal failures. Old Bad Blood may yet be conquered and disease driven from the citadel of life. You have not used the proper remedy, or long ago you would have felt a change. You have tried this and that, a hundred bottles of this specific and fifty bottles of that sarsaparilla, and feel you might as well have used so much rain water for all the good effect they had. Why have you not tried B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) made in Atlanta, Ga.? Because it isn't advertised so conspicuously as other remedies? Well, that's a poor reason. The greatest humbugs can afford the largest advertisements. As for B. B. B. try it, and if six bottles don't do you more good than all the other blood medicine you have ever taken, call it a humbug, a name that has never yet been applied to it by any one.

Walter Bridges, Athens, Tenn., writes: "For six years I had been afflicted with running sores and an enlargement of the bone in my leg.
I tried everything I heard of without any permanent benefit until Botanic Blood Balm was recommended to me. After using six bottles the sores healed, and I am now in better health than I have ever been. I send this testimonial unsolicited, because I want others to be benefited."

STATE NEWS.

Charlotte News: R. W. Williamson, late of Middle University, passed a successful examination before our Supreme Court to-day and has received his license to practice law.
He answered every question put to him and several that were passed.

Charlotte Chronicle: Through a letter received yesterday by S. W.
Reid, it is learned that Rev. Jno. W.
Moore and wife, who embarked at San Francisco, August 12th, in the steamship Belgic, for Yokohama, reached that port August 28th, after a pleasant voyage. The point of their destination is Kochi, Japan, where they expect to labor as missionaries of the Southern Presbyterian Church. Among the thirty passengers on board, were two missionaries bound on China, one of whom was a medical missionary.
Mr. and Mrs. Moore were in excellent health and fine spirits.

Newbern Journal: The revival in the Methodist Church at Harlowe, which began a week ago, when Rev.
W. S. Rone, the Presiding Elder, held quarterly conference there and was afterward continued by the pastor, Rev. N. M. Jurney, assisted by Rev. G. F. Smith, of Beaufort, resulted in 26 conversions, a remarkable work of grace for so short a time in a rural church. As Mr.
Fred Bray and Mrs. Oliver Perry were returning from services at Beech Grove Church, Thursday night, in a road cart, the horse ran away, throwing Mr. Bray out. Mrs.
Perry then climbed over the dash board, reached down and secured the reins and succeeded in stopping the horse after he had gone a mile or two. A remarkable feat, even for a man.

Goldsboro Dispatch: The revival services at the Baptist Church were well attended yesterday, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather.
Two persons united with the church at the morning service. At night there were two conversions and some ten or twelve requests for prayer. Tax collector W. T.
Dorsh is busy these days making up his tax books. As about 10,000 people have to pay him some idea of the size of the job may be imagined. The total amount of taxes to be collected this year is $52,600 which is $400 less than last year. The property valuation has increased considerably, but the falling off is caused by the exodus which has taken so many negroes from the country in the last two years. There have been between 500 and 1,000 left this county and each one represents a loss on the tax list of $2.25. Out of the immense amount due last year only a fraction of over $1,000 was uncollected. A good record for both the collectors office and the county. There are 1,300 more white than colored polls on the list.
