THE DAILY REVIEW

VOL. XIV. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1890. NO 271

This is the off-year in politics—off with the old—love and on with the new.
Senator Plumb is not to make any political speeches this fall. He has been muzzled by the Republican Congressional committee to prevent him from talking Democratic doctrine from the Republican pulpits.

The oldest man in the world is probably Osman, of Cavallovit, Turkey. He has lived 100 years, and has documents to prove it. He is an Arabian widower, and is supported by a small pension from the Sultan.

The registration in New York is about 230,000. Tammany claims, and is generally conceded, 105,000 of this vote. It is thought that the opposition can count on 100,000 and this will leave 15,000 scattering votes to fight for.

It is now more than two thousand years since it was first proposed to cut a canal through the Isthmus of Corinth, but the work is at last under way, directed by a Polish engineer, and promises to be completed in 1892.

In 1889 there were 630,000,000 pounds of tobacco consumed in the United States, 20,000,000 pounds of which was imported. There were 4,000,000 cigars consumed here in the same period, all but 40,000,000 of which were home made.

The Jacksonville Times-Union sums up the Senatorial situation in Florida as follows: "How the Anti-Call bosslets will sink into their holes next April after the Florida Legislature declares Wilkinson Call reelected to the United States Senate! How they are squirming now!"

The fight against ex-Governor Gordon, of Georgia, who is a candidate for the United States Senatorship, goes on apace, the Farmers' Alliance men in the van. It is noticeable that the newspapers are for Gordon, and they may perhaps reason with the farmers effectively in Gordon's interest.

"Another scheme that ought to be suggested to Quay & Co.," says the Florida Times-Union, "is the conversion of Southern States, Florida for example, into Republican States, by sending into them enough Northern Republicans to outnumber the Democrats. We would give them a cordial welcome and speedily convert them to the true faith."

Statistics collected on a first-class dividend-paying railroad show that nearly one-fourth of the accidents that occurred during the year were caused by careless switching, and only 10 per cent by defects in the track or other faults in the roadway. The net earnings of the road were three per cent, less than they would have been had all accidents been avoided.

Several attempts have been made to establish the tack industry in the South, but they have failed from difficulties in handling the material. This branch of the iron trade is in the hands of the New England manufacturers and is practically confined to Massachusetts. More than two-thirds of the tack business is controlled by the State and fully three quarters by all of New England.

A very pretty little piece of news comes from Washington City. It is in the shape of a New York Herald special and it is sent by one of the most conservative men and one of the best posted men in the country. Read what Mr. Redpath says to his paper:

There is a gloom and sadness at the White House. The gloom is so intense that even the music of Baby McKinley's voice could not dispel it from the President's mind. The President, who has both personal and political reasons for wishing a Republican victory a week hence, is simply stunned at the avalanche of bad news which is pouring in upon him from every part of the country.

This information is that the tide of battle runs so strongly against the Republicans that the only consideration is as to the majority the Democrats may have. The Democratic programme, according to the President's latest intelligence, is to kill off the Republican leaders and leave the party without a single directing head in the Fifty-second Congress.

To-day President Harrison was told that $30,000 had been sent to McKinley's district to be used against that gentleman. Ten thou-and more will be expended to defeat Henderson and Gear in Iowa and an equal sum will be spent by the opponents of Cannon in Illinois.

I asked the gentlemen from whom these facts were obtained what the Republicans were doing to counteract these influences. He replied that they were doing nothing. He knew nothing, he said, about the management of the Republican Congressional Committee, but he was confident they had not a penny beyond what was needed for current expenses. The manufacturers, he tells me, feel under no obligations for the passage of the McKinley bill. They paid for that in the campaign of 1888. Now when they are solicited for subscriptions they flatly refuse to contribute a dollar.

The Pennsylvania manufacturers, by informant states, are doing something, but they are giving it all to Quay for local purposes. These facts are well understood in administration circles, and although an effort is made to suppress them they leak out in spite of all precautions. The situation in Iowa gives the President more concern than in any other state. Both Gear and Henderson are Republican wheel horses in the present Congress, and both are very close in a personal sense to President Harrison. Their defeat would be a bitter disappointment to him, but he has every reason to expect it.

Their appeals for aid would be pitiful if they were not so frantic as to border closely upon the ludicrous. Gear's district is Republican by only 800 majority. A change of 500 votes from the last election would give it to the Democrats. Henderson, on the other hand, has a district especially gerrymandered for him, with a majority of 5,000 in his favor. His defeat could only result from a popular uprising. Judging from the situation there as it is reflected in Washington, the uprising is already developed and threatens to wipe the Dubuque statesman out of political existence.

This certifies that I have used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup and found it to be what it is represented. I can safely say that it has helped my cough (which I might say was chronic) and I cheerfully recommend it to all those afflicted.

The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 1,518 bales.

Hot Bed Sash and Glass for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Hon. Chas. M. Stedman has gone to Asheville on a short professional visit.

Fine fish market this morning. Four large sea trout were selling for a quarter.

Visitors to our city should certainly not fail to call on the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. for anything wanting in their line.

We were glad to meet with Mr. W. S. Warrock on the street this morning and to know that he is a well man again. He is very feeble, as yet, but is rapidly convalescing. He has had a hard time of it.

The new brick pavement on North Third street is being rapidly laid. Nearly one-half of the work has been done. The grade has been altered and when the pavement is laid, there will be some grading necessary to the roadway.

The Signal Office reports that the highest velocity of the wind here and at Southport to-day was 36 miles an hour, with the wind from the Southwest. The high tide was caused, it is said, by the heavy wind driving the water up into the river from the ocean.

There are four Richmonds in the field now for Sheriff—Mr. F. H. Stedman, Democratic nominee; Mr. W. H. Chadbourne, regular Republican; Mr. D. C. Davis, Independent Republican, and Mr. Coleman Twining, Independent Republican and go-it-alone and as-you-please candidate.

The new buildings at the poor house—we mean the New Hanover Home—are all completed, and the Board of County Commissioners paid a visit of inspection there yesterday and again to-day. They found the buildings quite satisfactory and have formally received them from the contractors on behalf of county.

For scrofula, Salt rheum, etc., take Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Dr. S. S. Satchwell, of Burgaw, was in the city to-day for a short time.

Use Regal Ready-mixed Paint, and have no other, if you want a good, durable article; for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Only five days more, and then the country is going to work to turn the rascals out and put Democrats on guard for awhile.

I am Manufacturers Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited, James I. Metts.

The British Steamship Bessarabia, Martin, cleared for Ghent, Belgium, with 4,200 bales of cotton, valued at $206,700, shipped by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son.

We have in stock an immense variety of Cook Stoves, all styles and sizes. Prices away down and Stoves guaranteed to give satisfaction. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

There was frost yesterday morning, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding. It is so reported by the Signal Office and there is no going behind those returns.

A large line of Breech and Muzzle-loading Shot Guns, Air Rifles and Pistols, all grades at lowest prices. Wood Powder and sportsmen's supplies just received. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

We are sorry to hear of the continued sickness of that clever gentleman, Mr. N. W. Jacobs. He is suffering with typhoid fever. We hope to hear soon that he is on the road to recovery.

Those who have registered and have been challenged will have an opportunity to prove their right to register and vote to-morrow. The registrars and poll-holders will constitute the court.

When you have over-exerted yourself by running, jumping or working, there is nothing that will relieve the soreness of your joints and muscles so quickly and effectually as Salvation Oil, the greatest cure-on-earth for pain. Price 25 cents.

The cautionary southwest signal was ordered at 10:30 o'clock this morning for this section, which of course includes Southport. There was at that time a storm centre over Lake Erie. The signal was also ordered up at Morehead.

Appointments to Speak.
Hon. Chas. M. Stedman will address the people on the issues of the campaign at the following times and places:

Capt. S. B. Alexander will speak at the places mentioned below on the dates given:
Shallotte, Oct. 25th.
McKeithan's Store, Oct. 27th.
Albemarle, Oct. 29th.
Concord, Nov. 1st.

Maj. McClammy's Appointments.
Hon. C. W. McClammy will address the people on the issues of the campaign at the following times and places:

Fremont, Wayne county, Thursday, Oct. 30.
Faison's Depot, Duplin county, Friday, Oct. 31.
Magnolia, Duplin county, Saturday, Nov. 1.
Burgaw, Pender county, Monday, Nov. 3.

Got Up and Dusted.
It is, warm again. The wind got around to the Southwest this morning and kicked up lots of dust, which was almost blinding during the forenoon. It met the tide on the run going out and lashed the yellow waves into frenzy. It was almost dangerous to attempt to cross the river in a small boat. It has been one of the most disagreeable days known here in a long time.

Cut In the Face.
Mr. J. G. L. Gieschen received a painful injury this morning from a piece of glass from a broken door which fell and struck him in the face. Mr. Gieschen had just replaced a broken pane with a new one and was standing on the pavement admiring his work when the door was blown to by the wind and the new glass broken, with the result as above stated by us. The injury is a painful one but not serious.

Huckler's Arnica Salve.
The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.
For sale by Robert R. Bellamy, wholesale and retail druggist.

For North Carolina, rain and slightly warmer weather.

Local forecasts, from 8 a. m. to-day for Wilmington and vicinity, fair weather, followed by rain and slightly warmer.

Lockjaw in Horses.

Mr. Percy Cowan lost a valuable horse yesterday from lockjaw, or tetanus, and Mr. L. S. F. Brown lost one the day previous. Several cases are reported where horses have run nails into their feet and are threatened with lockjaw.

There is no danger of the disease and no necessity for losing the animal if the proper precautions are taken in time, and it is well enough for horse owners to know of this. Mr. D. Quinlivan, the well known horse shoer and farrier, who has had twenty years' experience in the business, has been very successful in cases of this kind. In some instances, when applied to in time, he does not hesitate to guarantee a cure.

The Wind and the Waves.

The tide in the river to-day was the highest known for years. There is a big freshet and the strong Southwest wind backed the water up at high tide this noon. It was up over the dock at the foot of Market street and at the same time was within a few inches of the cap of the wharf in other sections. There was no overflow on any of the business premises but at the New York Steamship wharf and at the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. wharf the water washed up in some places through the flooring of the wharves, forming pools on the yards in the rear. At the foot of Mulberry street it overflowed the dock and was in the street nearly as far up as Water street. In no instance, however, as far as we could ascertain, was there any damage to merchandise. With the turn of the tide the water gradually receded.

Miss Ellsler Last Night.

A large, delighted and fashionable audience greeted Mr. and Mrs. Ellsler and their excellent company at the Opera House last night.

It was Miss Ellsler's second visit here, her first visit being early in last October.

The piece presented last night was "Miss Manning," a delightful comedy, full of good points, with Miss Ellsler as Maggie Manning.

The piece was put on the stage in admirable style. Miss Ellsler made many new friends, and Mr. John Ellsler, the veteran actor, appeared to better advantage, it seemed to us, than ever before. Mr. Knezer took down the house as the champion American sneezer on the stage, and the support was admirable in every respect.

To-night Miss Ellsler will appear in Swartz's charming domestic comedy-drama, "The Governess," in which she made such a decided hit here last season.

International Week of Prayer.

The following circular has been sent out by the International committee of the Y. M. C. A.'s stationed at New York:

The week beginning Sunday, November 9th, has been set apart, as usual, by the International Convention and the World's Conference of Young Men's Christian Associations, as a season of prayer for the associations and their efforts in behalf of young men.

The American associations have regularly observed this annual appointment since 1860, and each year abundant blessing has accompanied their efforts.

Though it may be impracticable for all the associations to observe the entire week, none, it is hoped, will fail to observe at least the first day, Sunday, November 9th. This season will be observed not only by public meetings, but in private devotions as well.

Every association is requested, as has been the custom for years, to take a collection during the week for the further prosecution of the work of supervision and assistance entrusted by the American associations to the International committee.

LEAURELLE OIL.

Prevents tendency to wrinkles or ageing of the skin. Prevents withering of the skin or drying up of the flesh. Nature's wonder for preserving youth and freshness. $1.00, large bottles, at druggists.

Children Enjoy

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

The Voting Places.

The following are the voting places in the city for the coming election:
First Ward, First Division—Thos. G. Williams' store, corner Fourth and Harnett streets.

Second Division—Building corner of Sixth and Campbell streets, recently occupied by Mr. James Lewis as a restaurant.

Third Division—Unoccupied store on the corner of Tenth and Walnut streets.

Second Ward—The Court House.

Third Ward—Giblem Lodge.

Fourth Ward—Cape Fear Engine House.

Fifth Ward, First Division—Fifth Ward Market House, corner of Fifth and Castle streets.

Second Division—Bannaker Hose Reel House, on Ninth, between Castle and Queen streets.

Orations and Ratifications.

There was some fun last night at the speaking stand at the corner of Market and Front streets. The Independent Republicans held forth there on that occasion. There was a good crowd to hear the various candidates orate and ratify. Guy Wright's band furnished the music, which consisted largely of "Two Little Pigs and a Bobtail Sow," but we do not for one moment suppose that any personal reference was intended.

Jas. A. Lowrey was chosen to preside, but did not appear. It may be that his heart failed him at the last moment. It was said that he was sick and could not attend. J. C. Smith, on motion of Bill Moore, was made chairman. The various candidates spoke and so did George W. Price, the great exodus. There was no disturbance, although the regulars were on hand in pretty good force. A squad of police were there and succeeded, without much trouble, in maintaining order.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

To Horse Owners—Lockjaw Prevented.

HORSES THAT ARE PRICKED WITH nails or other punctured wounds in the foot, when treated skilfully, are in no danger of dying from lockjaw. After a practical experience of 20 years I am prepared to guarantee the above. Call on me.

TO MY REPUBLICAN FRIENDS:
Realizing since the close of the registration that the total defeat of the Republican party in this county (for various causes) was certain and sure, at the earnest solicitation of my friends I consented to act with them in organizing a movement and call a Convention of true Republicans and take such action as would be thought best to rescue our grand old party from our political enemies. The result of such movement has been to place before you a ticket of such character and social standing in your party and the community that you should give it your hearty support. It is true that we have been battered, sold and humbugged by a few people ever were before, and the time has come when we should assert our manhood and break loose from our false leaders, and once more become a happy and united party; and I heartily approve of the resolutions adopted at that Convention, endorsing the administration, the appointment of Jas. H. Young Collector, and all other important matters before Congress.
