The receipts of cotton at this port to-day foot up 2,564 bales.

Hot Bed Sash and Glass for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Green pork sold here on Saturday at 7 cents a pound, by the hog.

The doctors are kept busy now. Colds and slight influenzas abound.

Bets have been freely offered to-day that the Democratic county ticket will be elected to-morrow. No takers.

Visitors to our city should certainly not fail to call on the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co. for anything wanting in their line.

Use Regal Ready-mixed Paint, and have no other, if you want a good, durable article; for sale by the N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Br. steamship J. M. Lockwood, Jenkins, cleared for Liverpool, with 5,019 bales cotton, shipped by Messrs. Williams & Murchison.

I am Manufacturer's Agent for Barbed and all kinds of Wire, Combination Wire and Iron Fences. Orders solicited. James I. Metts.

Rev. Robert Strange, Rector of St. James' Church, preached a powerful sermon yesterday morning against lotteries and progressive euchre.

We have in stock an immense variety of Cook Stoves, all styles and sizes. Prices away down and Stoves guaranteed to give satisfaction. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

Someone forced an entrance on Saturday night into Mr. Nick Hulea's kitchen, corner Fourth and Red Cross streets, but failed to carry anything off with him.

The brick pavement on the East side of Third street, from Chestnut to Mulberry, has been completed and the next thing is to grade the street to a level with it.

Dairy men, stockmen, livery stable men, and horse-car men unite in saying that no such horse and cattle lotion as Salvation Oil has ever been put upon the market. It should be kept at every stable and stock yard in the land. Price 25 cents a bottle.

A large line of Breech and Muzzle loading Shot Guns, Air Rifles and Pistols; all grades at lowest prices. Wood Powder and sportsmen's supplies just received. N. Jacobi Hdw. Co.

There were five interments last week in the three city cemeteries. Oakdale reported one child and one adult, Bellevue two children and Pine Forest (colored) but one, a child.

So far as we can ascertain there is but one foreign-born citizen of Wilmington who will vote the Republican ticket to-morrow. Every Jew in the city will vote the Democratic ticket.

The wind got around to the South yesterday and we have had bright, pretty, pleasant weather to-day. If it holds out as it is until to-morrow night all over the country there will be a tremendous vote polled.

We can count up but 24 white men in Wilmington who will surely vote the Republican ticket to-morrow. There are but two or three who may be classed as doubtful. This is drawing the color line pretty close.

Mr. J. F. Craig, the well known tinner and sheet iron worker, renews his advertisement with us to-day. He can be found in the basement at the corner of Front and Princess street, ready to do good work and do it promptly.

"Watch the German Vote" is the title of a leading article in the Chronicle, a small weekly paper published here by colored men, which has excited much indignant talk to-day among the German residents. It will not help the Republican ticket.

For scrofula in every form Hood's Sarsaparilla is a radical, reliable remedy. It has an unequalled record of cures.

Hon. Daniel L. Russell, who has been speaking in the West, has returned to the city.

Politics have ruled the roost to-day. People think, talk and eat politics, so to speak.

Two new members were admitted into Fifth Street M. E. Church yesterday. One of those was by letter.

The Register of Deeds last week issued five marriage licenses, two of which were for white couples and three for colored couples.

Capt. F. M. James reports 11 interments in Oak Grove Cemetery in October. Of these 8 were adults and 3 children. But 2 were white.

Mr. Chas. M. Whitlock has opened on Second street, opposite this office, a stock of machinery, roofing, paints, packing, &c., and expects to conduct business there regularly hereafter.

Look out for at least 40,000 Democratic majority in North Carolina to-morrow. These are the smallest figures we will compromise on. Eight of the nine Congressmen are ours as sure as eggs.

"Go where glory waits thee," she said, as she buckled on her armor, and pressed into his off hand a small package. It contained a few bottles of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup; she didn't want him to contend with an enemy and a cold all at the same time. Sensible girl!

Maj. McClammy's Appointments.

Hon. C. W. McClammy will address the people on the issues of the campaign at the following times and places:

Magnolia, Duplin county, Saturday, Nov. 1.

Burgaw, Pender county, Monday, Nov. 3.

To Remain With Us.

We are glad to be able to state that Rev. Dr. Carmichael, Rector of St. John's Church, who received a call to a parish at Anniston, Ala., has decided to decline it and to remain in Wilmington. He announced this fact to his congregation yesterday. The church to which Dr. Carmichael was called is a large and elegant new structure erected by a gentleman as a memorial to his father.

Harbor Master's Report.

From the books of Capt. Joseph Price, Harbor Master, we get the following report of arrivals at this port during the month of October:

American—10 steamers, 7,002 tons; 1 brig, 373 tons; 14 schooners, 3,963 tons; total 25 vessels and 11,338 tons.

Foreign—11 steamers, 13,763 tons; 8 barques, 3,645 tons; 1 brig, 178 tons; total 20 vessels and 17,586 tons.

Total arrivals American and foreign 45 vessels, aggregating 28,924 tons.

Brooklyn Baptist Church.

This little church, at the corner of Fourth and Brunswick streets, is one of the most prosperous in the city. From a very small beginning it has grown in the number of its members until it now has 233 enrolled. The increase has been especially marked since its present pastor, Rev. R. E. Peel, has had charge. He is an earnest, consecrated preacher, devoted to his work, with great originality and force of expression. Previous to October 1st, 1890, the membership numbered 195; during that month 34 were added, and four were received yesterday. A larger and more convenient house of worship is much needed, and decided steps will be soon taken to accomplish that object.

The Voting Places.

The following are the voting places in the city for the coming election:

First Ward, First Division—Thos. G. Williams' store, corner Fourth and Harnett streets.

Second Division—Building corner of Sixth and Campbell streets, recently occupied by Mr. James Lewis as a restaurant.

Third Division—Unoccupied store on the corner of Tenth and Walnut streets.

Second Ward—The Court House.

Third Ward—Giblem Lodge.

Fourth Ward—Cape Fear Engine House.

Fifth Ward, First Division—Fifth Ward Market House, corner of Fifth and Castle streets.

Second Division—Bannaker Horse Reel House, on Ninth, between Cass and Queen streets.

Forecasts.

For North Carolina, fair weather and cooler, except stationary temperature on the coast.

Local forecasts, from 8 a. m. to-day for Wilmington and vicinity, fair and slightly cooler weather.

Children Enjoy.

The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when used by a laxative and if the father or mother be costive or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

An Excellent Scheme.

A movement is on foot here to establish a Summer Bible School similar in plan to those at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ocean Grove, N. J. and other places. Efforts will be made to get the best theological instructors in the country to attend these meetings. The plans are not yet fully matured but the project is in the hands of those who mean business.

Wilmingtonians in Charleston.

Alderman Morton and Mr. E. Kuhlblank were the only two Wilmingtonians, so far as we can learn, who spent part of the gala week in Charleston. While there they both met with many courtesies. They were both introduced to the Mayor and to Gov. Richardson and Mr. Kuhlblank says that the Governor can drink more beer than he can, which is saying a great deal. They took in Barnum's circus while there and say that it is indeed a magnificent show.

We Didn't Know It.

Capt. Capps, of the police force, in a communication received to-day sets us right on the question of the police uniforms. In speaking of the matter in Saturday's issue we were under the impression that the city paid for these uniforms but Capt. Capps tells us that the policemen themselves pay for them, in which case our theory falls to the ground. He says that all of the uniforms worn during the past twelve years have been made up at the North; that when the contract is given out to dealers here the goods are made up in some Northern city and that, although his own preference and that of all of the force is for home dealers, yet when it is, to their advantage to get the goods elsewhere there is no reason why they should not do so. The city dealers in this instance were called upon for bids, as usual, but the samples submitted were inferior and the price demanded per suit was $2 more than samples and bids from a Northern house and hence the work was given to the party who could do it best and cheapest.

Belford's Magazine.

The November issue of this favorite and popular magazine is at hand and with an excellent array of contents. "The Story of Christopher" opens the number. It is a pretty, pathetic little tale and charms every reader. "The Truth About Wives" is told by Champion Bissell, who seems to be thoroughly at home on the subject; "The Lovely Game" is by Julian Hawthorne and is all about tennis; Capt. W. H. Parker publishes the second and concluding instalment of "Early Discoveries in America"; R. H. Stoddard, in "Celebrated Men of the Day," tells us of Edward Fitzgerald; "The Rights of Our Naturalized Citizens Abroad" is from the pen of Marcus J. Wright and T. Edgar Wilson furnishes a powerful article entitled "Protection's Last Ditch." The remainder of the issue is made up of pleasing poems, the independent department, editorials, notes, bric-a-brac, book notices, humor, etc., and a complete novel, "Julia de Treceour." This last is by Octave Feuillet, translated by Frederick T. Jones, and is of absorbing interest. Belford's is issued every month by Belford & Co., 18-22 East 18th street, New York, at $2.50 per annum.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The Best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:
Mr. W. P. Oldham, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, in a communication published in the "Star" and "Messenger" with the caption, "Watch Your Tickets," says that if the Democracy of New Hanover county had attended the meeting of the Republicans held on Friday night last and heard the speech of one of the said candidates (referring to the nominee for Sheriff or myself), "no Democrat, yes, no decent man, could hesitate as to what his duty is on Tuesday next." In reply to this statement I desire to say, that during the whole of this campaign I have said nothing, either as a private meeting, or at a public gathering, that could give offence to the most refined person, either lady or gentleman, nor have I said anything except what was directly involved politically in the issues of the campaign.
