The health of young Mrs. Blaine is mending very rapidly. She now goes about with no other aid than that of a cane, and she does not have to lean very heavily even on this for support. Her face has filled out so that its prettiness-much of which consisted of the plump outlines and dimples-has returned, and there is a decided improvement in the cheerfulness of one of the most widely discussed invalids of the year. All of this is based on the statement of a physician who has visited Mrs. Blaine. She lives at the New York Hotel, has a regular day for receiving her friends, and is occasionally a very eager attendant at the theatres. She will not be starred this year, but the indications are that Mr. Frohman will launch her on the season of '91-92.

Miflet's famous picture, "The Angelus," which was sold to the American Art Association of New York on July 1, 1889. at the acction of the Secretan collection in Paris, has been sold once more. The negotiations have only just been completed in Paris by Mr. R. Austin Robertson, representing the American Art Association. It is not as yet known exactly who the purchaser is, inasmuch as Mr. Robertson's negotiations have been carried on with agents. The picture has sold this time for 750,000 francs against 553,000 francs paid over a year ago by the American Art Association, It is conjectured that the "Angeins" when returned to Paris will be placed by its purchaser in the Louvre, but nothing definite can be said about this until later. The picture will remain in this country until about the middle of December, the terms of the sale requiring that it shall be delivered in Paris on Jan-
