EPPS'S COCOA.

BREAKFAST.

A thorough knowledge of the natural laws will govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the principles of dietetics, we can easily and quickly provide our invalids with delicious flavored beverages which may be many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a person may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist the tendency to disease. This is a simple and safe method of curing a weak patient. We may always keep ourselfs well by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished body.

EPPS'S COCOA. Made simply with chocolate or milk. Sold only in half-pounds by druggists, apothecaries, &c.

Invited the Crowd to Eat Oranges.

T. A. Melter purchased 5,000 sweet oranges and placed them on Concord's wharf, foot of Ocean street, for free distribution.

The only proviso was that the eater should quarter the fruit and place the peel in a barrel of alcohol standing near. About 4,000 of the oranges were eaten by the surrounding crowd, and Mr. Melter got a goodly amount of work done for nothing. The peeling will be shipped to England to be used for medicinal purposes.—Florida Times-Union.
